

Mrs. Clark R. Stone, the former Billie Cupper, whose marriage took place on December 20 at Las Vegas, Nevada. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Percy A. Cupper and a sister of Mrs. John D. Minto of Salem. Mr. Stone is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Stone of Santa Monica, Calif. He is a signalman in the navy and his wife is assistant county home demonstration agent for Orange county, Calif. (Jesten-Miller).

A bride of January 20 was Mrs. Kenneth Stillman Anderson, the former Priscilla Ann Keith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Keith. The ceremony took place at St. Paul's Episcopal chapel with a reception at the Keith apartment at the Royal Court. Mr. Anderson is the son of Mrs. T. J. Crabtree of Salem. The couple will live here. (Jesten-Miller).

Married in San Francisco on January 12 was Mrs. Robert E. Hoyt (Dorthea Corey). The couple's marriage took place at the First Presbyterian church at high noon. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Corey and her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Hoyt, all of Salem. After a wedding trip to Mexico City the newlyweds will return to Salem in the early spring. Mr. Hoyt just returned from the South Pacific. (Jesten-Miller).

WOMEN'S Society * Clubs * Music The Oregon Statesman SECTION

Valentine Dances . . .

February is a popular month for dances with the valentine and patriotic motif used for the dance theme.

Salem Junior Woman's club annual valentine ball will be an event of Saturday night, February 2 at the Elks temple. The semi-formal affair will be held from 9:30 to 12:30 o'clock with Claude Bird's orchestra playing for dancing. Proceeds from the affair will be used to carry on the philanthropic work of the club.

Tickets may be obtained from Quisenberry's or committee members. Those wishing information are asked to call the president, Mrs. Fred Gast, 7047, or Mrs. Sam Campbell, 4657. The dance directorate includes Mrs. Calvin Kent, chairman, Mrs. W. H. Haskins, Mrs. Elmo Lindholm, Mrs. Waldo Ott, Mrs. Campbell, Miss Emelyn and Miss Mabelle Frazer.

A Dinner Dance

The Subscription club's February dinner dance will be held in the Mirror room of the Marion hotel on Saturday, February 9. Dean Prather's orchestra will play for the formal affair.

The committee in charge includes Mr. and Mrs. Rex Adolph, Mr. and Mrs. Loring Schmidt, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Maisen, Mr. and Mrs. George Weller, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. John Helzel, Mr. and Mrs. John Caughell, Dr. and Mrs. Harold Olinger and Mr. Carl Gabrielson.

Arriving from Florida in mid-January were Mrs. Thorne H. Hammond and three months old daughter, Patricia Kathryn, who, with Mr. Hammond are now at home again at their North Summer street apartment. Lt. Hammond was released from the navy the first of December and for the past year the couple have been living in Miami Beach. (Kennell-Ellis).

Mrs. Robert M. Coffey pictured with her two daughters, Sharon, left, and Carol, who with Dr. Coffey have moved to Portland to make their home. Dr. Coffey has already opened his medical practice in Portland, where they have purchased a home. Several au revoir parties were given in honor of Sharon and Carol, popular Parrish junior high school students. (Kennell-Ellis).

The Party Whirl . . .

By Jeryme English
Statesman Society Editor

Luncheons, dinners and bridal parties are highlighting the January social calendar.

Mr. and Mrs. George Weller have invited friends to an informal at home today at their Shipping street residence for the pleasure of their son, Gordon, who is home from the European theatre of operations. Calling hours are from 4 to 10 o'clock.

Mrs. Murphy to Entertain

Mrs. Claude H. Murphy is entertaining with the first of a series of parties Tuesday afternoon at her suburban home on the Portland road in honor of a group of her friends. The hostess is planning a similar affair for Wednesday afternoon.

Guests have been invited to a one o'clock luncheon followed by an afternoon of contract bridge. They will be seated at individual tables centered with bouquets of early spring flowers, which will also be used to decorate the rooms.

Covers will be placed for Mrs. Arthur A. Rogers, Mrs. E. J. Scellars, Mrs. Harry V. Collins, Mrs. Percy R. Kelly, Mrs. Charles A. Sprague, Mrs. George Alexander, Mrs. James T. Brand, Mrs. Miller B. Hayden, Mrs. William McGilchrist, Jr., Mrs. I. M. Doughton, Mrs. M. P. Adams, Mrs. Milton L. Meyers and Mrs. Murphy.

A Bridge Luncheon

One of the larger social affairs planned for the week will be the one o'clock luncheon for which Mrs. Ralph H. Campbell, Mrs. Harry Schenk and Mrs. L. V. Benson will be hostesses at the Normandy Manor.

Covers will be placed for 40 guests and contract bridge will be in play after the luncheon hour. The valentine motif, carrying out the red and white color scheme will be used in the table appointments and decorations.

Honor a Bride-Elect

Miss Jean McElhinny, popular bride-elect of Mr. Norman Nelson, is the incentive for several pre-nuptial parties. Wednesday night Mrs. George Rhoden and Mrs. Lester Wilcox will entertain at a dessert supper at the former's home on South Church street in honor of the bride-to-be.

Contract bridge will be in play after the dessert hour. The bridal motif will be carried out in the appointments.

Honoring Miss McElhinny will be members of her mother's club including Mrs. Charles S. McElhinny, Mrs. Biarne Erickson, Mrs. Estill Brunk, Mrs. Earl Cooley, Mrs. Robert Elstrom, Mrs. Charles Feike, Mrs. Carl W. Emmons, Mrs. Gardner Knapp, Mrs. Oscar Paulson, Sr., Mrs. Keith Brown, Mrs. John Koenig, Mrs. G. W. Ross, Mrs. George Rhoden and Mrs. Lester Wilcox.

Saturday night Miss McElhinny was honored at a waffle supper at the home of Mrs. Alberta Morrow in McMinnville. Assisting hostesses were Mrs. Lowell Pearson (Miriam Armillage) and Mrs. Ruth Hinegardner.

Winter Travelers . . .

Mid-winter travelers are headed for the south this time of the year. Mrs. Sydney Kromer and daughter, Sidney Ann, and Mrs. Kromer's brother, and sister, Lt. Richard D. O'Reilly and Miss Katharine O'Reilly, of Portland, left Saturday by car for Burlingame, Calif., where they will be the guests of another sister and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Richard B. Wright. Also joining the sisters and brother in the bay city for a reunion will be Miss Elizabeth O'Reilly of Oakland and Miss Jane O'Reilly, who is flying south from Seattle on Wednesday. Mrs. Kromer and her daughter will return to Salem next weekend.

Southward Bound

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Cooley are enroute today for a two weeks stay in San Francisco and Los Angeles. Mr. Cooley is going south on business. In Oakland they will visit with their daughter, Marjorie, a student at Mills college, and will also go to Palo Alto to visit Helen Shepard, a freshman at Stanford.

Mr. and Mrs. William C. DeFew are leaving tonight by train for a week's sojourn in San Francisco and other points in the bay area. Mr. DeFew recently returned to the states from the South Pacific.

Leaves For East

Mrs. Anthony Touart enroute Saturday night for Columbus, Georgia, where she will be the guest of friends at Fort Benning. Mrs. Touart, who has been making her home here with her daughter, Mrs. Robert Arn, plans to remain in the east and will visit friends and relatives in New York and along the eastern seaboard.

Mrs. Joseph B. Conny and sons, Edward and Larry, have left for San Francisco, where they will sail on January 30 for Honolulu to join Colonel Conny at Scottfield Barracks. They made their home here before the war and this summer Mrs. Conny returned when her husband was sent overseas.

Mrs. John Valek is arriving in Portland this morning by train from Chicago for a visit with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Brennen, and her new grandson, Bruce John, who is two months old. Mrs. Valek plans to remain several weeks.

Lt. and Mrs. James S. Smart (Margaret Hood) whose marriage took place on January 17 at the Knight Memorial church. The bride is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Hood of Independence and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Smart. The couple will live in Salem until their new home is completed at Zena, where Mr. Smart will be engaged in farming. (Jesten-Miller).