

Hobby Day At Woman's Club House

At the Salem Woman's club on Saturday afternoon three local hobbyists were featured.

Mrs. Ralph Barnes displayed and told how she had acquired her interesting collection of iron.

Mrs. Zella James showed her many varieties of bells and each had an interesting story.

Miss Maxine Buren, woman's editor for The Oregon Statesman, talked on "art work" indulged in by women during the past 40 years, showing examples of many recalling to mind such art eras as the china painting age, the burned wood period and the gesso era. More modern craft pieces were also shown.

Mrs. Harris Leitz sang "A Little Damsel" by Novello and "Ho Mr. Piper" by Curran. Mrs. Richard Meyer was the accompanist.

Mrs. George Rossman presided at the business meeting. A resolution supporting the Junior Woman's club project for accredited kindergartens in the city was voted.

Mrs. Nettie Spaulding announced that an old fashioned bridge benefit would be given by the club on the afternoon of February 21 at the clubhouse. The purpose of the benefit is to assist with the retirement of a state federation debt.

Tea chairman was Mrs. Rex Putnam, who was assisted by Mrs. George Swift, Mrs. Guy N. Hickok, Mrs. B. F. Williams and Mrs. Ivan Bushey. Mrs. Russell Catlin and Mrs. Henry Hansen poured.

The lace covered table was centered with an arrangement of acacia, purple iris and jonquils in a footed crystal bowl.

YWCA Corner

Marked on the calendar for next Tuesday is the annual membership dinner and meeting of the Salem YWCA, for 6:30 o'clock at the First Presbyterian church. "New Horizons for the YWCA" is the program theme. At the business session, reports will be given on the past year's progress and directors for the board will be elected, and preliminary plans announced for the proposed new YWCA.

Candidates for the seven positions on the board are listed as follows: Mrs. O. I. Paulson, Mrs. B. F. Williams, for re-election; Mrs. Wallace Carson, Mrs. Robert Fitzmaurice, Mrs. Robert M. Fischer, Jr., Mrs. Hamer Smith, Jr., Mrs. Bruce Spaulding. The candidates for the 1946 nominating committee include: Mrs. Roy Harland, Mrs. Carl McLeod, Miss Dorothy Pearce, as members at large, and Mrs. Guy Hickok and Miss Isabel Childs, board members. Ballots went out this week listing the nominees, and the members are asked to return them to the YW before Monday.

Preceding the dinner, Tuesday night, the past year's board members will be hostesses at an informal reception in the church parlor between six and six-thirty o'clock. This group includes: Mrs. Frank James, Mrs. Guy Hickok, Mrs. Lewis Griffith, Mrs. B. F. Williams, Mrs. O. I. Paulson, Mrs. Charles A. Sprague, Mrs. Wallace Carson, Mrs. C. W. Parker, Mrs. Blaine Brown, Mrs. John Caughell, Mrs. George Swift, Mrs. Carl V. Booth, Miss Helen Yockey, Miss Isabel Childs, Mrs. Helen Goodenough, Mrs. H. G. Matson, Mrs. C. A. Reher, Mrs. Claude Glenn, Mrs. Earl Barham, Mrs. A. A. Schramm.

Miss Laura Ault, New York City; Mrs. C. A. Barnes, Eugene, and Mrs. Margaret Edmundson Norton, Portland, will be national YWCA representatives at the meeting.

GALA PARTY preceding the Tillamook club dance Tuesday... The V. E. Kuhns and Elmore Hills entertained at the Marion hotel... The Marine room decorated with spring flowers and the hosts busying themselves about the rooms... The hostesses receiving by the door... Mrs. Kuhn in a good-looking gown of Victorian rose crepe with gold sequin and bead trim... and Mrs. Hill wearing aqua enhanced with gold nailheads... both had nosegay corsages of yellow roses, paper white narcissuses and freesias. The buffet table centerpiece was a large bouquet of the same flowers and in four white pottery candleholders were tiny nosegays.

Among those present...

From out-of-town came Mrs. Carl Smith of St. Paul in a handsome crepe dinner gown of salmon pink with side drape and long sleeves... Mrs. Ira Mix from Independence, wearing a black crepe gown enhanced with sequins on skirt and bodice... Mrs. John Andrews from Turner, smartly dressed in black with net polka dot skirt... Mrs. Hugh Adams in a stunning model of icicle blue crepe with draped girdle caught at the side with a jeweled clip... burgundy satin slippers showing through the slit in her skirt and planned to the shoulder of her gown was a lovely orchid... Mrs. L. V. Benson wore a striking gown of winterberry red crepe with wide peplum effect in front and sequin trim on the bodice... Mrs. C. Lester Newman in a beautiful gown of winter aqua crepe embellished with beading on the bodice... Mrs. James Sears attractive in a gold crepe gown with gold sequin sleeves and sequins on the bodice... Mrs. Lawrence Brown looked her usual sweet self in an apple blossom pink jersey gown with black torso style bodice.

Mrs. M. B. Gillmore, Mrs. Myrtle Holman, and Miss Renka L. Swart were visitors to Portland this week to attend the operetta, "The Student Prince."

University of Oregon Mothers rummage sale committee made plans this week for the event to be held on February 1 and 2. Committee members include Mrs. Walter Spaulding, chairman, Mrs. Claude McPherson, co-chairman, Mrs. Walter Kirk, Mrs. Walter S. Lukins and Mrs. Howard Pickett.

and pink jersey insets edging the high, round neckline... Mrs. Leonard Goldblatt wore a black velvet evening wrap with ermine bow worn over her striped taffeta gown fashioned with low decollete.

AT RANDOM... Calline Hillman, who has announced March 24 as her wedding day to Robert Burns, will be married on the wedding anniversary of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grover W. Hillman and also of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Carter... Calline and Peggie Wiener, who announced at the same party a week ago, were seen that night at a dinner and dance... Each wore a good-looking black dress and white orchid in their long hair.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Dashney, who moved to McMinnville in June, are now situated in an eight room house a few blocks from the center of town... At first they were located in a smaller house just outside the city limits... Carolyn is busy training as an aide at the hospital...

Temporarily in Portland are Major and Mrs. Louis B. School and daughter, who have been in Monterey, Calif., the past few years... Dr. School is released from the army and is making plans to locate in business.

Planning to live in Salem are Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Swenson (Cleopatra), Jimmy and Johnny... Oscar has been released from the coast guard... They plan to purchase a home here and move soon... The Swensons are Willamette university graduates and Cleo was a May day princess.

OPEN HOUSE last Sunday at Lausanne hall with guests calling to see the newly redecorated rooms. The large reception room and two small parlors are beautifully decorated... Rose carpeting is used throughout...

In the center of the large room are two chaise longue seats with a low round coffee table between... soft rose chairs on either side of the fireplace and above the mantle a huge mirror... A grey figured damask davenport is in front of the windows... on either side tooled leather end tables and figurine base lamps are placed... In one corner, sectional furniture upholstered in a figured pattern of deep rose, red and chartreuse to match the drapes... Lovely deep red carnations and white tapers. Willard Friesen sang "God Made You Mine" and "Because." Mr. Kenard Adams played a violin solo and the Rev. C. Howard Smith presided at the organ.

For her wedding the bride chose a white taffeta gown fashioned with a train, sweetheart neck and long sleeves. Her full length veil cascaded from a beaded coronet. Her only ornament was a gold locket, an heirloom of her mother's. She carried white carnations and gardenias.

Miss Betty Bethel was maid of honor and wore a gown of blue taffeta and carried pink carnations. Bridesmaids were Miss Evelyn Stephens, Miss Shirley Kenagy, Mrs. Frances Ricketts and Miss Betty Ann Willis. Each carried white carnations. Miss Glenda Thurston of Seilo and Miss Betty Johnson lit the tapers. Nancy Kenagy was flower girl and LaVern Gilman ring bearer. LaVern Gilman carried the rings on a white satin cushion.
