Rites Read At Church Ceremony

The Court Street Christian church was the setting for the wedding of Miss Bonetta Walker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Walker, and Mr. Henry Schutte of Topeka, Kansas, Friday night, January 25.

The double ring ceremony was performed at 7:30 o'clock with the Rev. Phillip Ryan of Myrtle Point, assisted by the Rev. W. H. Lyman, officiating. The altar was banked with arrangements of pink snapdragons, calla lilies and candelas. Lighting the tapers were Miss Delores and Miss Verlaina Walker, Mrs. Merle Van Cleave sang "O Promise Me" and "Sweetheart I Love You." Miss Beverly Lyman played the accompaniments and wedding marches.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin floor length gown for her wedding. The dress was designed with long sleeves and a sweetheart neckline. Her fingertip-length veil cascaded from a crown of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds, gardenias and maiden hair fern tied with a white satin bow.

Mrs. Walter Smith of Yakima was the matron of honor and wore a yellow gown. She carried winter blue iris, and narcissuses tied with a blue satin bow. Mrs. Phillip Ryan and Mrs. Alvin Armstrong were bridesmaids. They wore flowered chiffon and blue frocks respectively and carried nosegays of rosebuds, freesias and narcissus.

Mr. Walter Smith stood with the groom as best man. Ushers were Mr. Alvin Armstrong and Mr. Charles Nixon of Eugene.

For her daughter's nuptials Mrs. Walker chose an aqua blue crepe gown with brown accessories and a corsage of pink camellias and freesias.

At the Reception
The wedding reception was held in the church parlors. Mrs. Everett Walker of Everett, Wash., and Mrs. Kenneth Waters cut the bride's cake. Mrs. Ernest Walker presided at the coffee urn. Serving were Mrs. Charles Nixon, Miss Doris Krueger, Mrs. Marie Terrill of Turner, Miss Delores and Miss Verlaina Walker. Mrs. Kenneth Karns passed the guest book and Mrs. Warren

Shrake was in charge of the gifts.

When the couple left on their wedding trip to the Oregon coast the bride wore a gold suit with brown top coat, brown accessories and a gardenia corsage.

The newlyweds will make their home in Seattle where Mr. Schutte is in business. The bride is a graduate of Salem schools and has been employed in the office of Montgomery Ward and Co. Her husband has been discharged from the army after four years of service; two and a half years of which were spent in the Pacific area.

Women of Rotary Meet

Mrs. B. O. Schucking gave an interesting illustrative talk on "Flower Arrangements" at the luncheon meeting of Women of Rotary Monday afternoon at the Quella. Mrs. Melvin Geist presided at the meeting and program.

The tables were festive with arrangements of heather, pussy-willows and red hearts. Valentines were placed along the table. Miss Bernice Isham and Miss Connie Keller sang "Danny Boy" and "Dark Eyes," with Miss Jewell Gueffroy the accompanist.

Special guests were Mrs. Frank Miller, Mrs. J. L. Kennedy, Mrs. Hugh Craven, Mrs. Byron Lieudallen, Mrs. Fred Gibson, Mrs. Duane Gibson, Mrs. Ervin Potter, Mrs. Wallace Sprague, Mrs. Melvin T. Hurley and Mrs. Schucking.

Date Set for February Nuptials

Saturday, February 2 has been set as the date for the wedding of Miss Betty Jean Bethel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bethel of Aumsville, to Mr. Harry G. Wagaman, son of Mrs. W. J. Boley of Larned, Kansas. The ceremony will take place at the Calvary Baptist church with Dr. Charles Durden officiating at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. George Halvorsen will sing before the ceremony and Mr. Howard Smith will be the organist. Lighting the tapers will be Miss Frances Rickett and Miss Hazel McCommon.

The bride, who will be given in marriage by her father, has asked Mrs. Ivan Bugenheimer (Charlotte Stephens), who was married last Thursday, to be her matron of honor. Bridesmaids will be Mrs. Ralph Bethel and Miss Evelyn Stephens.

Mr. Charles Stephens will stand with Mr. Wagaman as best man. Ushers will be Mr. Ivan Bugenheimer and Mr. Gilbert Herman.

The couple will receive the congratulations of their friends at a reception in the church parlors.

After a trip to Washington the couple will leave for Larned, Kansas, to make their home.

Miss Bethel is a graduate of Salem schools and her fiancé received his education in Larned. He has been discharged from the army after 41 months of service. He served in the south and west Pacific on the Gilbert islands and Okinawa for 27 months as a corporal.

Pages Hosts At Dinner
