

Two Dances Slated This Week

Two dancing clubs have slated their monthly parties for this week.

The Thursday Night Dancing club will entertain with a semi-formal dance at the Veteran's hall with Claude Bird's orchestra playing for the affair between 9 and 12 o'clock.

The committee in charge of arrangements includes Mr. and Mrs. Burl Cox and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Waller.

Pre-dance Parties
Several informal parties have been arranged to precede and follow the dance. Mr. and Mrs. James Henry and Mr. and Mrs. Dal Sullivan will be pre-dance party hosts at the James L. Cooke home on Cascade Terrace.

Their guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Maurice W. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Kilgore, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Larkins, Mr. and Mrs. Casper Schweigert, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Prime, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Page, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Larkins, Miss Margaret McBain and Mr. Frank Nichols. Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Stoddard are entertaining at dinner before the dance at their home on Cascade Terrace.

Covers will be placed for Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McMillan, Mr. and Mrs. David Klingler, Lt. Col. and Mrs. D. G. Culliver, Miss Gertrude Koke, Mr. Charles Robinson, Miss Marie Hannigan, Mr. Charles Knapperson and Mr. and Mrs. Stoddard. Trotters Club Dance

The Trotters club will hold its semi-formal dance Friday night at the Crystal Garden ballroom with Claude Bird's orchestra engaged to play for dancing.

On the directorate for the affair are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bowman, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Carter, Mr. and Mrs. William Bush, Mr. and Mrs. James Byers and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Adair.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Ellis have invited a few of their friends to a midnight supper at their home on East Lefel's street following the dance.

Joint Installation At IOOF Lodge

A joint installation of officers was held at ceremonies Thursday night for Capital Auxiliary No. 11, Patriarchs Militant and Canton No. 11 of the IOOF lodge.

The colors of the order were carried out in the decorations of yellow roses and lavender candles. The installing officers, Mrs. William Beard, assisted by Adjutant Mrs. Clarence Townsend, and Aide Mrs. Gustave Erikson, seated Mrs. Anna Hunsaker, retiring president, as junior past president; Mrs. Lora Groves, president; Mrs. Millie LaVine, vice president; Mrs. William Beard, secretary, and Mrs. William Cladeck, treasurer.

Brig. Gen. A. R. McLaughlin and Fred Walker of Yamhill No. 6, were installing officers for the cantons, and seated Howard Hunsaker as junior past captain, William Drakley as captain, Lloyd Wood as ensign, Willis LaVine as lieutenant, William Beard as secretary, R. G. Henderson as treasurer, Gustave Erikson as picket, Pearl Harlan as chaplain, Ray Detoit, officer of the day, and Grover Pomeroy, banner bearer.

A no-host dinner supper was served in the dining room after the meeting.

Polk County PTA in Session

INDEPENDENCE, Jan. 29—(Special)—Four towns, Monthouth, Dallas, Pedee and Independence were represented at the Polk county Parent and Teacher association council meeting held on Tuesday at the Independence woman's clubhouse.

The morning was devoted to a business session under the direction of Mrs. Ira Mix, county president, and Mrs. Martin Fratzke, secretary. Mrs. Dean Walker conducted a school of instruction on problems of parents and teachers.

A nominating committee was appointed, consisting of Mrs. E. F. Harrow, Mrs. Fratzke and Mrs. Eldon Zaver. The next meeting was announced for March 29 at Pedee, and the state convention for April 30, May 1 and 2, in La Grande.

Mrs. Francis Newton, Mrs. Martin Fratzke and Mrs. Ralph Scranton represented the independence group and formed the hostess committee at the noon luncheon.

The afternoon session included a brief talk by Maxine Buren woman's editor on The Statesman, and several vocal selections by Dolores Klotzky, accompanied by Marilyn Mix.

Raymond Van Dyke will direct the group and Claude Larkins of Rickreall will act as chairman. Singers were there from Independence, Monmouth, Perrydale, West Salem, Dallas and Rickreall. The chorus plans to sing at various gatherings throughout the county.

Mrs. Huston To Visit in Canada

Mrs. Oliver B. Huston entertained Friday on the streamliner for the east coast and Canada for a month's sojourn. Mrs. Huston was met in Portland by her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Challoner of Victoria, B.C., who accompanied her on the trip.

The travellers will make stops in Chicago, New York, Washington, D.C., before going up to Montreal, Ottawa, Toronto, London and Edmonton, Canada. Mrs. Huston will visit with relatives she hasn't seen for over 20 years. She attended the London branch of the University of Toronto in London, Ontario.

Mrs. Huston will accompany the Challoners back to Victoria and will return home the end of February by plane from Vancouver, B.C.

To Arrive in Salem Today

Major and Mrs. Frank H. Spears, Jr. are expected to arrive in the capital today for an extended visit with their parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Garnjobst and Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Spears, Sr.

Major and Mrs. Spears, who have been making their home in Washington, D.C., while he was stationed there with the army, left the end of December for the west coast. They drove the southern route by way of New Orleans and spent several weeks in Mexico. Coming north they came through Texas, Grand Canyon, Utah and Idaho. Their daughter, Julianne, has been with her grandparents this winter. Major Spears is now on terminal leave.

No-Host Dinner For Husbands

Over fifty Junior Woman's club members, husbands and guests gathered at the clubhouse Monday night for a no-host dinner party. Guests were seated at long tables decorated with Valentines, cupid and hearts. Arranging the affair were Miss Clarice Satter, Miss Lucille Satter, Mrs. Carey Martin, Jr., Mrs. H. John Anning and Miss Maria Dars.

A program followed the dinner hour with Miss Grace Ashford presenting two vocal selections with Mrs. Karl Thelan accompanying. Sandra Allison, Gary and Jerry Neal from the Betty Pierce dance studio gave a group of numbers with Mrs. Clifton Mudd playing the accompaniments.

Cards were in play during the evening with prizes awarded to Mr. James Pike, Mr. Albert Walker and Mrs. Elmo Lindholm.

Mrs. Grace Carlston left Salem on Tuesday to return to her home in Portland after a week's stay in Salem with her sister, Mr. Helen Goodenough.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Hunt and their young son, Frank, Jr., left Salem Tuesday for Longview, Wash., to make their home. Mr. Hunt will return to his former position in Longview, which he held before the war. Lt. Hunt, now on terminal leave, returned early in January from the South Pacific where he served for two years. Mrs. Hunt and their son lived in Salem while he was overseas.

VFW Auxiliary Plans Dance

Marion Auxiliary No. 661, Veterans of Foreign Wars, met Monday night at the VFW hall with Mrs. Virgil Bolton presiding.

Initiation was held for Mrs. Marie Schafer. The officers and color bearers will go to Woodburn February 6 to assist with the initiation.

Proceeds from the dance to be held Wednesday, Jan. 30, will be given to the March of Dimes. After the business meeting the post joined the auxiliary and refreshments were served by Mrs. Rose, Mrs. Eva Bolan, Mrs. Yvonne Ritchie, Mrs. Iva Hamilton and Mrs. Sybil Dalton.

Executive to Visit YWCA

Arriving Tuesday to attend the annual membership dinner and meeting of the Salem YWCA, Miss Laura Ault, advisory secretary for business and professional girls, national board of the YW, is remaining in Salem through Wednesday to talk over with local YW leaders some of the present situations for workers.

Present status of workers in the white-collar or clerical field is causing grave concern to the national board and to local associations throughout the country. Miss Ault comments, pointing out salaries of clerical workers, low before the war, have not risen in proportion to the cost of living.

Miss Ault came to the national board of the YW in 1944 from the association in Chicago where she supervised recreation and clubs for the business girls for six years. She is a graduate of Adelphi college and holds a master of arts degree from Columbia university.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Meyer entertained members of their pinocle club at a no-host dinner Sunday night. Guests were

Mr. and Mrs. William Smith of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Kennedy and Mr. and Mrs. Harris Lietz.
