

Miss Doris Holmes to Marry

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Holmes of Dallas have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Doris L. Holmes of Salem, to Mr. Elmer L. Scheeler, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Scheeler, Salem. The couple will be married at the home of the bride's parents before immediate members of their families on February 14.

Miss Holmes has been employed by the Marion county welfare association since her graduation from Willamette university in 1944. While at Willamette the bride was a member of Pi Beta Phi, and worked on the editorial staffs of the weekly Collegian and the Willamette yearbook. In the spring of 1944 she was a princess in the university's traditional May weekend court.

Mr. Scheeler attended Willamette university for two years prior to his enlistment in the navy in 1942, and plans to re-enter Willamette as a junior with the opening of the spring semester in March. He received his honorable discharge from the service in December after spending several years in the Pacific theatre as a pharmacist mate.

Tea to Fete A Visitor

Mrs. T. W. Creech will be an informal party hostess this afternoon at her South 14th street home in compliment to Mrs. James J. Hague, Jr., who is visiting here from Berkeley, Calif. Mr. and Mrs. Hague and their daughter, Patricia Jean, have come north for a several weeks visit and are guests of the Leon Perrys. The Hagues formerly made their home here.

A few of Mrs. Hague's intimate friends have been invited to call at 4 o'clock. Mrs. Frank H. Spears, sr., will preside at the coffee urn and Mrs. Carleton J. McLeod will assist in the dining room.

Mrs. Charles D. Wood entertained informally at tea Monday afternoon at her West Lefelle street home in compliment to her sister-in-law, Mrs. Conrad Paulson, on her birthday. A few of the honor guests friends were invited to the affair.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Frederick Chambers are among those in Corvallis Monday and Tuesday to attend the Oregon State-Washington basketball games.

Salem Man Weds In Portland

Miss Josephine Du Chateau, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Du Chateau of Portland, became the bride of Mr. Raymond L. Milne, son of Mrs. A. White of Salem, at a ceremony performed in Unity Presbyterian church January 19. The Rev. Byron W. Travis officiated.

Mr. Theodore Du Chateau gave his niece in marriage. She wore a gown of white organza with lace inserts and carried a white prayer book with white orchids. Her veil of illusion was held in place by a band of orange blossoms.

Mrs. F. S. Jacob was matron of honor in seafoam green taffeta with which she carried daffodils and acacia. Miss Doris Kivett and Mrs. Roy Harmon also attended her in similar frocks to that of the matron of honor. Barbara Miller was a flower girl in white ruffled taffeta with which she carried pink and white bouvardia. Mr. Al Everist was best man and ushers were Messrs. F. S. Jacob, Vernon Stone and T. R. Thompson.

A reception was held in the church parlors after which the couple left for a plane trip to Victoria, B. C. They will be at home in Portland when they return.

The Keizer Ladies Sewing club will hold an all day meeting Thursday at the home of Mrs. John Gardner with a no-host luncheon at noon. Quilting and Red Cross Sewing will follow the luncheon hour and a white elephant sale will be held among members.

Mr. and Mrs. Manfred Olson, son, Robert, entrained Monday for Dolores, Colorado, to visit with his father, Mr. W. A. Olson, and other relatives for several weeks. Ensign Olson, now on terminal leave, recently returned to the states from Okinawa.

Get Better Cough Syrup By Mixing It at Home

Quick Relief. Big Saving. So Easy! No Cooking.

To get quick relief from coughs due to colds, you should make sure by mixing your own cough syrup at home. It's no trouble at all, and you know it's pure and good. It needs no cooking, and it's so easy to make that a child could do it.

From your drugstore, get 2½ ounces of Finex. Pour this into a pint bottle, and add enough plain syrup to fill up the pint. To make syrup, stir two cups of granulated sugar and one cup of water a few moments, until dissolved. Or you can use corn syrup.

Rites Read In South

From Burlingame, Calif., comes details of the marriage of a former Salem girl, Miss Elizabeth O'Reilly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. O'Reilly of Portland, to Mr. William Gordon of San Diego on Thursday, January 31. The bride is a sister of Mrs. Sydney Kromer of Salem, who with her daughter, Sidney Ann, went south for the ceremony.

The nuptials were performed in Burlingame at the home of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Richard B. Wright. Mr. Ora C. Wright officiated at the 8:30 o'clock rites.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Lt. Richard D. O'Reilly, wore a platinum grey wool suit with pink blouse and an orchid corsage. Her twin sister, Miss Katharine O'Reilly of Portland, was the maid of honor. She wore a watermelon pink suit and a corsage of gardenias. Mr. Richard B. Wright was best man for Mr. Barstow.

A wedding reception was held immediately after the ceremony. Mrs. C. C. Wright of Burlingame poured and Mrs. Sinclair B. Wright of San Francisco cut the bride's cake. Mrs. Lester Wood of San Francisco presided at the punch bowl and Miss Isabel McMillan of Oakland passed the guest book. Assisting were Sidney Ann Kromer of Salem, Susan Wood, Loraine Peterson and Nancy Wright.

After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Barstow will go on to San Diego to make their home, where they have an apartment at Ocean Beach. The new Mrs. Barstow has been living in Oakland, Calif., the past three years, where she has been employed at the port of embarkation. Presumably she lived in Salem and was in the unemployment compensation commission. She is a graduate of St. Helen's hall and attended St. Helen's junior college in Portland.

The AAUW Thursday evening literary group will meet this week with Mrs. E. A. Carleton, Liberty road at Ewald avenue. Miss Eva Wolf will be assistant hostess.

Naval Officer Is Honored

Mrs. George Barnes entertained with a buffet luncheon on Saturday complimenting Mrs. W. Francisco Loiza and her cousin, Captain F. R. Talbot, of the U. S. navy. Captain Talbot is in command of the USS Indiana which, at present, is at the Bremerton navy yard. He will be remembered from a former visit to Salem with the late Mr. Loiza and Mrs. Loiza.

Mrs. W. F. Loiza and her cousin, Captain Frank R. Talbot motored to Portland on Sunday to be the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Flegel at the Waverly Country club.

Felicitations go to Mr. and Mrs. Rodney M. Simonsen on the birth of a daughter, Christine, Monday morning at the Salem General hospital. The little girl has two older sisters and a brother, Lorna Lou, Linda Grace and Rodney Jesse. The baby's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Packard of Preston, Idaho, who arrived in Salem Sunday for a several weeks stay, and Mrs. Simonsen of Brigham, Utah.

Mrs. Melvin Geist, 160 West Lefelle st., will be hostess on Friday at 2:30 to members of the music group of AAUW. Mrs. E. F. Carleton will play recordings of Beethoven's Eighth symphony.

A Birthday Reception Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Howard N. Hunsaker entertained with a charmingly arranged reception Sunday afternoon at their home on Trade street in compliment to her mother, Mrs. J. C. Morris, who celebrated her 80th birthday on Saturday.

Forty-five relatives and intimate friends called between 2:30 and 5 o'clock. Mrs. Morris has nine children who are living, 24 grandchildren and ten great grandchildren.

The honor guests' two daughters and daughter-in-law assisted in the dining room. Mrs. R. H. Struck of Portland served ices, Mrs. J. E. Whitehead, jr., cut the cake and Mrs. William Morris presided at the coffee urn. Grandchildren assisting were Mrs. Robert French and Mrs. Wesley Struck of Portland, who served, Mrs. Dee Himes of Portland, who invited guests into the dining room, and Mrs. J. H. Tompkins of Dayton, who passed the guest book.

The serving table was centered with a cake on a large mirror encircled with a wreath of silvered leaves and tiny red balls flanked by red tapers in crystal holders.

A Dinner Party

One of the larger affairs of the week will be the dinner party for which Mr. and Mrs. William J. Busick, Mr. and Mrs. Henry V. Compton and Mrs. Harry U. Miller will be hosts Friday night.

The dinner will be held at the Normandy Manor with a large group of the hosts' friends invited to make up the guest list.
