"THE YOUNG IDEA" By Mossler

Late Buying of Metals, Rails Props Market

NEW YORK, Feb. 5 (AP)—Late buying of coppers, steels, packers, rails and specialties propped the stock market today after an extension of Monday's selling during the forenoon.

Belief that the administration's wage-price program, expected soon from the white house, would permit increased ceilings for metals and other durable goods received inflation psychology as a bullish influence. Hopes for constructive labor legislation and ending of strikes were helpful.

Transfers of 1,670,000 shares compared with 1,660,000 the day before.

The Associated Press 50-stock composite was up 4 of a point at 80.3. The market was broad, 1,033 issues registering. Of these, 506 advanced, 326 declined and 201 were unchanged.

U. S. Steel was up 1 1/4 at a peak for the past year. Loos-Wiles gained 2 1/4 on a 2-for-1 split proposal. Less improvement was shown for Anaconda, Kennecott, Cerro de Pasco, Packard, American Smelting, Phelps Dodge, Bethlehem, Youngstown Sheet, Boeing, United Aircraft, American Telephone, Santa Fe, Southern Pacific, Armour and Wilson & Co.
