

Frosh Heads Honor List At Woodburn

Patricia Thompson
First Scholar for
High School Period

WOODBURN, Feb. 7-(Special)—Names of honor students for the third six weeks period of the school year have been announced by Milton Gralap, school superintendent. Patricia Thompson, freshman, heads the list with a straight A average for the period. Two seniors, seven juniors, eleven sophomores, and 21 freshmen made averages of 2 or better.

The honor roll includes Sam Anderson, Ethel Anderson, Dorothy Bjelland, Jeanne Butterfield, Elfreda Davis, Joan Davis, Virginia Douglas, Betty Jo DeHaven, Hazel Engle, Carolyn Glass, Corinne Glass, Donna Gilliam, Dwight Gralap, Robert Hall, Bernadine Harper, Lucille Hart, Mary Helsel, Jean Hove, Gordon Kadmas, Jack Krieger, Delmer Kuns, Hazel Mason, Anita Miller, Dennis Miller, Eleanor Moen, Merry McGrath, Rose Nash, Mary Peshaw, Robert Pillsbury, Lorraine Powell, Dwayne Rogers, Charlene Ross, Ardell Rudi, Don Scarborough, Donna Sebern, Donna Sonnen, Virginia Sprague, Darlene Swanson, Lois Thompson, Patricia Thompson and Beryl Walker.

Property Changes Hands, Gervais

GERVAIS, Feb. 7-(Special)—Miss Catherine Buidi has sold her home here to Mr. and Mrs. John Ditrich of Gaston, who will improve the place for a permanent home. Mr. and Mrs. Ditrich lived here before going to Gaston several years ago.

Ernest LaChapelle has sold his house and barn and seven lots at old St. Louis to Dan and Margaret Charbonneau of Portland. They will take possession immediately.

Trio Goes East For Wedding

GERVAIS, Feb. 7-(Special)—Mrs. Frank Holoubek and son, Richard Holoubek and Miss Alice Regner left Thursday for Phillips, Wis., home of Miss Regner, where Mr. Holoubek and Miss Regner will be married February 28. They will return to Oregon in March to live. Mrs. Holoubek will remain for a longer visit with her mother and other relatives in Chicago and Phillips, former home of the Holoubeks.

Plans Made for New Business

BETHEL, Feb. 7-(Special)—Mrs. J. A. Hain returned from Klamath Falls on Tuesday where she has been a guest at the homes of her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Lee and family and Mrs. Harold Redden.

Lawrence Lee had driven north to look for a location for a re-finishing shop. He plans to buy a home here, and hopes to be in Salem by April.

Lee had gone to Seattle to visit his mother and stopped in Bethel district on his return trip. His cousin, Mrs. Hain, accompanied him back to Klamath Falls and returned to Salem by train a few days later.

Boy, Man Sent To Hospital

AUMSVILLE, Feb. 7-(Special)—Gene Speer, grader, son of John Speer, has been hospitalized in Salem.

Paul Gilbert has been hospitalized and given a blood transfusion.

T.Sgt. Fay Bates, cavalry, arrived home Sunday night after receiving his discharge. He has been in the Pacific for 13 months, recently in the Tokyo area. His wife, the former Loretta Weisenhaus, has been employed in Salem and his son stayed with his mother, Mrs. Freda Bates in Stayton. Mr. and Mrs. Bates will reside in Stayton.

Coats service station was broken into the night of February 3 and cash and checks taken.

Mr. and Mrs. Royal Holford and daughter of Salem were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wright. Holford, Mrs. Wright's brother, was recently discharged from the navy.
