

Guests Are Bidden to Luncheon

Mrs. G. Frederick Chambers and her sister, Miss Dorathe Steusloff, are entertaining in the first of a series of bridge luncheons on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Miss Steusloff on Court street.

Their guests include a group of the young married set, who are friends of Mrs. Douglas Chambers and Mrs. Richard Chambers. A buffet luncheon will be served at one o'clock with contract bridge following. Covers will be placed for twenty guests. The Valentine motif, carrying out the red and white color scheme, will be used in the appointments.

Mrs. Chambers and Miss Steusloff are planning the second bridge luncheon for Friday afternoon at the home of the latter with a group of their friends making up the guest list.

Dances Are Planned

Three of the women's national Greek letter organizations at Willamette university have announced plans to hold individual dances in their respective chapter houses next weekend in keeping with the Valentine motif.

Members and pledges of Pi Beta Phi sorority have scheduled a Valentine formal for February 16 at the chapter house. Decorations will feature a red and white theme using hearts and couple's names about the rooms. The music will be furnished via records. Pi Phi social chairman, Thelma Wilcox, will be general chairman in charge of the formal. She will be assisted by Maryann Wittliff, Margaret Wood, Edith Fairham, Carol Bergstrom, Kathleen Secord and Carolyn Carson, decorations; Lorraine Murdoch, Maxine Meyers and Betsy Lyon, programs; and Dorothy Synes and Adele Egan, refreshments.

Chi Omega will hold their semi-formal sweetheart dance on the night of February 16 also, with decorations in the traditional Valentine style. Committee heads planning the dance are Terry Stewart, decorations; Barbara Sheridan, entertainment; and Betty Staab, entertainment.

Weigum-Sowles Vows Read

Miss Elva Sowles, daughter of Mr. J. E. Sowles of Vancouver, Wash., and Mr. Jacob Weigum, son of Mrs. Dortha Weigum of Salem, were married Saturday night, February 9 at a candlelight ceremony at the First Methodist church in Vancouver. The Rev. Daniel Taylor officiated at the 6:30 nuptials before a white arch in a setting of palms and ferns.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an ivory brocaded satin floor length wedding gown and short veil of tulle. Her only ornament was a rhinestone bracelet, a gift of the groom. Her shower bouquet was of pink roses centered with gardenias and tied with bouvardia streamers.

Mrs. G. L. Harte, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a pink satin gown and carried a bouquet of white roses and pink carnations.

Mr. John Ochsner of Portland was best man and ushers were Mr. William Ochsner and Mr. Louis Harte.

Miss Eleanor Whipple was at the organ and Miss Civilla Allyn of Seattle, sang "O Promise Me" and "At Dawning."

Immediately after the ceremony a wedding dinner in honor of the bridal couple was held at Hadley's tea room in Vancouver. The table was centered with a tiered cake flanked by white tapers.

Mr. Weigum and his bride will live near Salem on a fruit ranch.

A TREAT for LADIES

Many women have difficulty in getting garments made whereby they shall really beautify their figure and slenderize them.

Bernardy, Tailor-Furrier

specializes in ladies' tailoring as well as men's and the special designing of his special custom tailored suits and coats for stout women is really a treat for them yet it does not cost any more in comparison of quality of woollens and workmanship, so why not have your spring or summer suit or coat made to a smart tailored style whereby you will get more satisfaction than in a hand-me-down garment at no higher cost.

Travelers Return Home

Mid-winter travelers are beginning to return home from sojourns in the south and at the same time others are leaving for vacation trips.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald C. Roberts arrived in Salem this weekend from a several weeks stay in San Francisco and other points in the bay region. They went south to meet their son, Lt. (jg) Coe Roberts, USN, who had just returned from a year of sea duty in the south Pacific and Japan. He is communications officer on a cargo vessel.

While in the south Mr. and Mrs. Roberts also visited with their daughter, Georgia, a freshman at Mills college. During her mid-term vacation the family vacationed at Carmel.

Mr. and Mrs. James R. Humphrey returned to the capital Saturday night from a week's stay in San Francisco. Mr. Humphrey went south to attend the furniture mart. While in the bay city they were registered at the Chancellor hotel.

Dr. and Mrs. Lloyd Sanders and their sons, Steven and Phillip, are being welcomed home from a two months trip to Mexico City and other Mexican resorts. They traveled by car over 9,000 miles, returning home by way of Los Angeles and the coast route. While in Mexico they visited famous resort places including Acapulco, Fortin and Guadalajara.

Mrs. Brazier Small and Mrs. Lewis Griffith will entertain the Thursday club at a desert luncheon at 1:15 o'clock this week at the former's home on South Church street.

Hostesses Fete Miss Keukis

Mrs. Adam Frye, Mrs. Henry Overman and Mrs. Roy Anderson entertained Friday night at the former's home on North 23rd street in compliment to Miss Vivian Keukis, bride-elect of Mrs. Edward James Frye.

A bridal shower honored the bride-to-be and after an informal evening a late supper was served. The valentine motif was carried out in the decorations. Twenty-five guests were present for the affair.

Miss Keukis is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Keukis and her fiancé is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Frye. The groom-elect has been serving with the merchant marine. No date has been set for the wedding.
