To Welcome Ex-Wave

Mrs. Glenn Stevenson has invited a group of 35 to an evening party to be given as a "welcome home" for her sister-in-law, Miss Helen Stevenson. The honor guest was released a few weeks ago from the WAVES. The party, beginning at 8 o'clock, will be informal, with refreshments served late in the evening. It will be at the Stephenson home, 1875 Market st.

Deaconess Tea Plans Complete

The Deaconess hospital auxiliary at its regular meeting in the dining room of the hospital Monday afternoon voted to purchase a steam table for the hospital as its next project. This would enable food to be served hot to the patients in every part of the hospital. Miss Geraldine Kem, dietitian, talked about the use of the table. Mrs. Mayme Hill presided over the business session in the absence of the president, Mrs. L. F. Heuperman. The Rev. James Scott, pastor of the Church of Christ, brought the devotional message. During the social hour refreshments were served at tables centered with bouquets of violets and daisies. Mrs. Frank Jirak and Mrs. O. A. Condit were the hostesses.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Polanski, 1595 Berry st., will be the scene of the Valentine tea sponsored by the auxiliary of the Salem Deaconess hospital Thursday afternoon. Calling hours will be from 2 to 5 and the public is invited.

Mrs. H. P. Toews will arrange the tea table which will be centered with a large crystal bowl of red carnations, guarded with red tapers. The table cloth will be white lace.

Presiding at the tea urns will be Mesdames A. H. Wilson, Klonny Smith, James Brand, David

Lincoln Day Program

An Abraham Lincoln program will be presented by Salem Toastmistress tonight following the 6 o'clock dinner meeting at the Quella. This is the first program in the new series and is the first one built around a single theme.

Mrs. L. O. Arens, retiring president, will be toastmistress. Speakers and their subjects will be "Lincoln the Lawyer," Grace Bottler; "Lincoln the Story Teller," Isabel Childs; "Newspaper Comment on the Gettysburg Address," Marguerite Gleason; "Mary Todd Lincoln," Mrs. Sally Cleaver; "Abe Lincoln, 1846," Loretto Friderich.

The report on the International Toastmistress conference in Portland to which Toastmistress club members were invited guests, will be given by Mrs. Raymond Walsh. Ada Ross will be general critic for the evening. Mrs. Hal Reeves will be table topics chairman and Mrs. Estil Brunk timekeeper.

Rites Performed At St. Mary's

MT. ANGEL — Miss Angela Bielemeier, daughter of Mr. Peter and the late Mrs. Bielemeier, became the bride of Lawrence Schiedler, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Schiedler of Gervais, Saturday morning, February 9, at 9 o'clock at an impressive ceremony in St. Mary's church against a setting of yellow and white snapdragons and daffodils, bouquets and baskets of which decorated the high altar and sanctuary.

The Rev. Damian Jentes officiated at the nuptial high mass. Miss Helen Keber presided at the organ and St. Mary's choir sang with Miss Pauline Saalfeld singing the solos. Jack and Tommy Schwab, cousins, served at the altar.

The bride wore a princess model of white satin with inserts of French lace, with long pointed sleeves and full train. Her floorlength lace-edged veil was caught with a coronet of seed pearls and she carried a shower bouquet of yellow roses. She also wore a strand of pearls, the bridegroom's gift and carried a silver rosary, a gift of Mrs. Ed Bielemeier.

Miss Irene Eder of Gervais was maid of honor and Miss Laura Schwab was bridesmaid. They wore identical dresses of white moire with draped fitted bodice and full skirt with a bustle bow and a white Mary Stuart headdress with shoulder veil. They carried nosegays of yellow roses.

Little Judy Ficker was flower girl and was adorable in a long pink taffeta frock and Juliet cap of lattice work and a shoulder veil. She carried a nosegay of pink roses.

Clem Schiedler was best man for his brother and Edward Bielemeier was usher.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schwab were hosts to the bridal party for breakfast with Mrs. E. P. Scharbach serving.

The wedding dinner was at the Mt. Angel hotel. Appointments were in pink and yellow and Miss Maxine Gilles and Mrs. Ernest Walker served.

The reception followed at the Legion hall. Serving were Miss Gertie, Miss Rita and Miss Emma Eder and Miss Catherine Bielemeier of Gervais, and Mrs. Ed Booth of Salem.

After a honeymoon to Miami, Fla., Mr. and Mrs. Schiedler will make their home in Woodburn.

For going away the bride chose a gold color dress, fur coat with brown accessories and a corsage of rosebuds.

Ringland and Arlene Theodorsen.

Large Crowd at Convention

A large number of out-of-town guests were in Salem on Friday for the American Legion and auxiliary convention. The women's sessions were held in the Salem Woman's clubhouse. Mrs. Fred Siefert of Newberg, district president, presided at the business session after being introduced by Mrs. Austin Wilson, Salem president.

The Dayton and Woodburn units were awarded first place in membership increase. Mrs. Earl Templar of Brookings, state president, outlined department plans for the year and announced the state convention for Medford in July. Mrs. Leon Brown, Salem, vice-president, announced present district membership as 1466.

Among the announcements made during the report of various committees were: Girls State planned for Silver Creek to accommodate 105 girls; a "tiny tot" membership plan; that 105 veterans are making poppies for the annual sale, each receiving $20 per thousand.

A banquet was given at Legion home in the evening.

Miss Benroth Feted at Party

Miss Florence Benroth, whose marriage to Ralph Burroughs of Portland is to be an event of March 9, was the inspiration for a shower Thursday night when Miss Maxine Moses and Mrs. Charles Boelens entertained at the former's apartment in the Roberts.

Two contests were staged early in the evening with prizes going to Miss Benroth and Mrs. William C. Cook.

The honored guest received gifts arranged in the "pot of gold" at the foot of a large rainbow.

At a late hour refreshments were served to the following: The Misses Audrey Vaughan, Helen Ruettgers, Laura Yantis, Mrs. William C. Cook, Mrs. Stanley E. Neuens, Mrs. Maurice Ramsey, Mrs. Leslie Finegan, Miss Benroth and the hostesses.

Shower Given for Bride-Elect

Girls from the high school group of Jason Lee church gave a shower on Saturday afternoon from 1 to 3 o'clock for Miss Arlene Theodorsen, who will marry Robert S. Schuld soon.

Games occupied the girls during the afternoon, and at the refreshment hour, decorations included colored umbrellas placed around the punch bowl. Those at the party were Mrs. William T. McKeenny, Miss Ina Monrow and the Misses Judy Dean, Rena Theodorsen, Mary Ellen Pantrasy, Joy Aston, Nancy
