The tilt, second of the season between the rivals, is clocked for 8 p.m.

The Henry Lever quint, certainly one of the best in the conference, ran over the Bearcats, 50-35, in the earlier meeting at Linfield. The Bearcats took two 54-49 beatings from CPS this week, but displayed enough soup in both games against a good ball club to be classified as tough. To date the 'Cats have won seven games and lost 11. Their hopes for a high finish in the conference chase were wrecked by CPS, but if the Bearcats can hang another loss on the Linfield ledger they can close their cam-
