Remember That Day

—6 months ago? We looked, with hope in our hearts, to the return of the easy-flowing peaceful life; to the boys coming home; to the priceless intangibles—and to the tangible merchandise that spells "American Productivity" LOOK AROUND YOU TODAY—the boys are coming home; the factories are fast converting; cigarettes and candy—typically American—are plentiful again. On these pages you'll find old favorites you haven't seen for some time—and new surprises, representatives of many arriving daily in your neighborhood Fred Meyer Shopping Center. Fred Meyer's policy is to send "critical" merchandise (irons, heaters, hosiery, etc.), to the Fred Meyer Stores immediately upon arrival—when quantities are still limited it is not even advertised—another reason thrifty buyers visit their neighborhood Fred Meyer store many times weekly.
