

Miss Jean Rowland Engaged

Blonde Jean Rowland, popular Willamette university coed, revealed her engagement to Corporal George E. Schroeder, USA, at a "Cookie shine" at the Pi Beta Phi sorority house Thursday night. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mrs. B. W. Stacey of Salem and Mr. Reed Rowland of Portland. Her fiance is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Schroeder of Roosevelt, Long Island, N. Y. No date has been set for the wedding.

Miss Rowland's sorority sisters were told the news when they were invited to the traditional "Cookie shine" at midnight. At each place were red place cards with a verse revealing the betrothal. In the center was a large heart shaped cake bearing the names of the couple. On either side were red candles.

Miss Rowland, a Salem high school graduate, is a junior at Willamette and a Pi Beta Phi. She has served as vice-president of her house this year and is assistant in the publicity office at the university.

Corporal Schroeder attended schools in Long Island. He has been home on furlough and has now returned to Camp Pickett, Va., for reassignment. He was taken prisoner of war while serving with the army in Germany and has been in the service for nearly four years.

Miss Lusk A Visitor

A delightful visitor in the capital is Miss Margaret Lusk, daughter of Supreme Court Justice and Mrs. Hall S. Lusk. Miss Lusk will remain here indefinitely with her parents at their Royal Court apartment.

Miss Lusk was just returned from England, where she served as a Red Cross hospital secretary in Winchester for the past 18 months. She resigned her position on arriving in New York.

The visitor expects to go to San Francisco for a stay later in the spring.

Arriving today from Longview, Wash., to be the weekend house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thorne H. Hammond are Mr. and Mrs. James Allen Myklebust. The two couples met while they were stationed in Miami Beach, Florida.

Sojourners Are Entertained

The Sojourners were entertained at a dessert bridge Thursday afternoon at the Salem woman's clubhouse. Hostesses were Mrs. Lee Thomas, Mrs. I. Bryan and Mrs. Vera Hjervorson.

The Valentine motif was carried out in the decorations with white cloths and red carnations. Winning prizes in bridge were Mrs. William Klosterman and Mrs. Jacob Foss and Mrs. Ed Klippert was high in pinocle. Guests present were Mrs. T. E. James, Mrs. P. L. Harrison, Mrs. Warren Stevens, Mrs. A. P. Collins, Mrs. M. W. Tucker, Mrs. L. C. Morris and Mrs. R. S. Klover. Covers were placed for thirty-six.

Date Is Set For Bridge Benefit

Thursday, February 21 has been announced as the date for the Salem woman's club bridge benefit tea to be held at the clubhouse on North Cottage street at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding has been named chairman of the directorate with members of the executive board on her committee. Proceeds from the affair will be used to liquidate a state federation debt and to carry on the scholarship loan fund.

A large group of matrons have already reserved tables for the occasion. Those wishing reservations are asked to call Mrs. Spaulding at 8304, or Mrs. George Rossmann, 6353.

The committees are as follows: Mrs. J. E. West and Miss Kate Dickson, tea table; Mrs. J. C. Perry, Mrs. Herbert Babe, room decorations; Mrs. Estill Brunk, refreshments; Mrs. David Wright, card tables; Miss Eleanor Stephens, prizes; and Mrs. Clifton Mudd, chairman of fine arts committee, program.

Woodburn Girl Is Married

At a candlelight service held February 1 in the United Presbyterian church in Oakland, Calif., Miss Naomi Van Cleave, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Van Cleave of Woodburn, exchanged marriage vows with Mr. Edward Arthur Harney of Boston. The bride walked down the aisle on the arm of her brother, Dr. R. J. Van Cleave, who gave her hand in marriage. The Rev. G. Raymond White officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride wore a wedding gown of white satin and lace, with a tulle veil attached to a circlet of orange blossoms. Her bouquet was of white orchids. In the bridal entourage were Winifred Jeanette Porter, a cousin, who served as maid of honor, and May Beth Van Cleave, a niece, junior bridesmaid. They wore gowns of blue and pink, respectively. Master John Van Cleave, a nephew, served as ring bearer.

Best man was Arthur Sultz, jr., of Oakland. Ushers were Messrs. John A. Hammond, E. T. Grove, Harris Hunter, William Adams, A. F. Sultz, sr., M. W. Bell and E. M. Walters. Mrs. Neva Aubin, Mrs. Nona Brown and George C. Gernhardt were soloists at the wedding and were accompanied by Mrs. James Bell at the organ.

Because the illness of Miss Van Cleave's mother made it impossible for her to attend the wedding, Mrs. R. J. Van Cleave, a sister-in-law, represented the mother. Immediately after the reception the couple left on their honeymoon trip which was to take them up the Redwood highway to Oregon and Woodburn to visit the bride's parents and friends, after which they plan to motor to Quincy, Mass., where their new home will be established.

AMITY — Miss Fay Kosta, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Kosta, became the bride of Lyle Smith, son of Mrs. Anna Smith, Sunday afternoon. Rev. Charles Funk read the double ring service at the Methodist church. Mrs. H. W. Forbet sang and Miss Patricia Stockoff played the wedding music. The bride wore an aqua blue street length dress and carried a white Bible with a spray of orchids.

She was given in marriage by her brother, Bernard Kosta and was attended by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Bernard Kosta. Roy Smith was best man for his brother.

A reception was held in the church parlor. After a brief honeymoon they will be at home in the Henderson apartments.
