

Betrothal of Miss Jean Barham

Romantic news revealed Friday night was the betrothal of Miss Jean Barham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl V. Barham, to Mr. Ralph Smith, USN Seabee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Smith. Guests were told the news at a dessert supper party at the Barham home. The wedding will be an event of June.

The popular bride-elect is a junior at Willamette university and a member of Alpha Chi Omega sorority. She also sings in the cappella choir. She is employed at the Miller Mercantile company.

Her fiancé is a graduate of Salem high school and entered the service nearly three years ago. He is now home on terminal leave and expects his discharge in March. Mr. Smith has been in the south Pacific, Tinian and Okinawa for two years. He is a seaman first class.

Guests were seated at individual tables centered with pink hearts edged in lace ruffles and a nosegay of violets and pink carnations. Pale pink streamers tied with a scroll bearing the names of the couple, extended to each place. The supper table was arranged with a large pink heart with candles and a circular bouquet of violets and pink carnations. Arrangements of pussywillows, carnations and heather were used about the rooms. The evening hours were spent informally.

Bidden to the announcement party were Mrs. Earl Barham, Mrs. Arthur W. Smith, Mrs. K. H. Pickens, Mrs. Brewer Mills of Coos Bay, Mrs. Harold Smith, Mrs. Wilmer Wells, Miss Janet Rogers, Miss Georgia Hull, Miss Pat Mansfield, Miss Betty Louise Sinkola, Miss Elaine Cloudy, Miss Evelyn Johnson, Miss Florence Lewis, Miss Jean Rowland, Miss Shirley Parker, Miss Mary East, Miss Patricia Sears and Miss Vivian Barham.

Mrs. George Neuner has left for Bremerton, Wash., to meet her husband, Lt. Neuner, who is being released from the navy.

On Monday night members of the Rotana club were invited to the home of Mrs. Herbert Miller on route 3. Fourteen members attended the meeting and buffet supper which followed. Guests were Mrs. C. K. Logan and Mrs. Marcel Perzy. Business included a discussion of the scholarship fund and the buffet supper to which the Portland and McMinnville clubs will be invited on March 11.

Ericksens to Be Dinner Hosts

Mr. and Mrs. Bjarne Ericksen have invited a group of friends to dinner tonight at their South Cottage street home in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Lloyd Sanders, who are being welcomed home from an extended trip to Mexico.

An arrangement of daphne will center the dinner table. Contract bridge will be in play after the dinner hour.

Covers will be placed for Dr. and Mrs. Lloyd Sanders, Dr. and Mrs. Lewis Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Feike, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney King, Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Bradley and Mr. and Mrs. Ericksen.

Reeves-Sparks Vows Read

On February 2 at the parsonage of the Rev. F. Kunzman in Vancouver, Wash., Mrs. Rosetta Mae Sparks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Tricker, became the bride of Mr. Dorsey Dale Reeves, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Stirrman. The morning ceremony was performed by the Rev. Kunzman at 11:30 o'clock.

For her wedding the bride chose a black and pink striped taffeta skirt with black silk crepe bodice and a corsage of American Beauty rosebuds.

Miss Dolores Brown was the honor attendant and wore a chocolate brown suit with champagne blouse. Mr. Collins Utter was best man.

The couple will make their home in Salem. They are graduates of Salem high school. The new Mrs. Reeves is employed at the Oregon state highway commission, and her husband is attending Willamette university.

Miss Harriet Hawkins, a junior at the University of Oregon, is spending the weekend here at the home of her mother, Mrs. Taylor Hawkins.

Miss Inez Hilfiker To Wed

Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Hilfiker announced the engagement of their daughter Inez to Mr. Roger Emery, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Emery, all of Salem, at a dinner party at the Quelle Friday night. The romantic news was revealed on miniature Valentine hearts bearing the names of the couple.

Both Miss Hilfiker and her fiancé are graduates of Salem high school. The bride-elect is a senior at the Oregon College of Education. Her fiancé recently returned from Europe, where he served with the 101st airborne division.

David Turner to Have Birthday

David Turner will celebrate his 11th birthday this afternoon at a party at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Turner. After several hours of games a birthday cake and refreshments will be served.

Bidden to honor David are Blaine, George and Jack Stuberfield, Gene Crows, Billy Meier, Jimmy Lawrence, Junior Pierce, Gary Patterson, Edward Hart, Allan Robbins, Dale Reed and Gary McFarland. Additional guests will be David's grandmother, Mrs. Theo Turner, Miss Emily Turner, Mrs. Herb Monkman and Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Turner.

House guests of Mrs. Edward A. Lebold are her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Ketcham, who came north from Los Angeles. Mr. Ketcham has been released from the army after four years of service, part of which was spent in the south Pacific. After a week in Salem they will go to Denver and Iowa to visit with relatives before returning to the capital to make their home. Mrs. Lebold's son, Robert, and his schoolmate, Jack Waters of San Francisco, visited here last weekend. They are students at St. Mary's college high school, Berkeley.

Mr. and Mrs. John Graham and Mr. and Mrs. George Causey will be in Corvallis tonight to attend the 25th anniversary dinner dance of Theta Deuteron chapter, Phi Sigma Kappa, on the Oregon State college campus. The affair will also be a reunion for alumni who have returned from the service.

Twins Born to Petersons

Of special interest in Salem is the announcement of the birth of twins to Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Peterson (Alice Fay Daugherty) on Friday morning at the Salem General hospital. The father and mother were members of the class of 1916 at Willamette university, and Mr. Peterson will graduate this summer. The children, to be named Christine Marie and Michael Douglas, are grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Daugherty of Salem and Mr. Frank Peterson of Bozeman, Idaho, and Mrs. Gladys Peterson of Tacoma. The great grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Wells of Salem. Mr. Daugherty has been employed at the post office for the past 32 years. The father was at Willamette with the V-12 program and served 4½ years with the navy, a year in the south Pacific, New Guinea and the Solomon.

Major and Mrs. Arthur L. Rogers of Portland are arriving today to be the weekend house guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Rogers. Major Rogers has been released from the army medical corps after four years of service. Recently he has been at Fitzsimons General hospital, Denver. The army officer is now on terminal leave and will soon return to the staff of the Portland clinic.

Luncheon Event of Week

Miss Dorthea Steusloff and Mrs. F. Frederick Chambers were hostesses for the second in a series of spring bridge luncheons Friday afternoon at the former's home on Court street in compliment to a group of their friends.

A buffet luncheon was served with Mrs. Frank Healy and Mrs. Roy S. Keene assisting the hostesses. The buffet table and individual tables were centered with arrangements of carnations and smilax. Contract bridge was in play during the afternoon, with prizes going to Mrs. Healy and Mrs. Wallace Bonesteel. Bidden were Mrs. George Alexander, Mrs. Lester Barr, Mrs. Custer Ross, Mrs. Wallace Bonesteel, Mrs. Ralph Wirth, Mrs. Henry Hansen, Mrs. E. J. Scellars, Mrs. James Humphrey, Mrs. W. Wells Baum, Mrs. C. H.
