Mr. and Mrs. Doe Jungwirth and son Fred have returned after spending last week in West Salem.

Helen Johnson, daughter of the Helver Johnsons is ill with pneumonia.

Marvin Berry returned to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Berry the last of the week from San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford West and children moved Monday to Jack Johnston's place in Fox Valley. They have lived for some time on the Percy Hault place west of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Basset made a business trip to Portland Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Thayer who have been here since his discharge from the navy, have moved to Stayton.

Bill Artz of Wolf Creek, Mont., is visiting his niece and Sam Bridges and family.

Central Linn Teachers Will Meet in Lebanon

ALBANY, Feb. 20 (Special) Central Linn county teachers meet Friday night at Lebanon. The program will include numbers in keeping with the birthday of George Washington.

On Saturday, February 23, the Linn county division of the Oregon State Teachers' association will hold a directors' and clerks' conference in Albany, with the senior high school building to be the meeting place.

The Schoolmasters' club will meet here Thursday, February 28.

Future Farmers Plan Hazel Green Program

HAZEL GREEN, Feb. 20 (Special) Salem chapter of Future Farmers of America will furnish the program here Friday, February 22, at the Community club. Readings will be given by Lois Wackere, Helen Shelton and James Carter; accordion selections by Donna Wiederkehr and two one-act skits by the other members. James Carter will be master of ceremonies. W. P. McKinney is chapter advisor. Pie will be served and the public is invited.

Albany Police Arrest 17 Traffic Violators

ALBANY, Feb. 20 (Special) Over the weekend city police held a round-up on motorists who failed to heed the "stop" sign at the railroad crossing on the Santiam highway just east of Main street. The result was 17 arrests. At other points in the city three more arrests were made for the same fault. With the exception of one, Earl Ashley, the offenders paid fines. Ashley elected to spend a day in jail in lieu of paying the fine.

Foursquare Revival Services Under Way

Henry C. Marty, nationally known evangelist and musician, is conducting revival services at the Foursquare church, 490 N. 19th st.

The Rev. Marty will also be working with the Youth for Christ in Salem and in Portland. An outstanding musician, he has played in the Boston gardens for 20,000 people as well as for other large audiences throughout the United States and Canada.

The Rev. Charles Tate, local pastor, invites the public to attend these special services.

Inter Racial Talk Given at Mt. Angel

MT. ANGEL, Feb. 20 (Special) Edwin C. Berry of Portland, head of the Urban League which fosters better relations between negroes and whites, spoke to the students of Mt. Angel academy and normal February 14 on the negro question. His talk was frank and unvarnished, and he said the general American belief is of the negro's inferiority. Berry said a nation which claims to be Christian and democratic has no right to foster race discrimination.

Mt. Angel Woman Observes Ninetieth Birthday at Home

MT. ANGEL, Feb. 20 (Special) Mrs. Lena (Grandma) Unger, second oldest person in Mt. Angel, celebrated her 90th birthday Sunday by being the honor guest at a dinner at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Unger.

Because of Mrs. Unger's recent ill health, the usual elaborate party at the hall was changed to a small family group gathered to do her honor. Many gifts were showered upon her. For years she has been "grandma," not only to her own kin but to anyone who needed her motherly attentions.

Present at the dinner were Grandma Unger, Father Saal of Roy, Fathers Damian Jentges and John Cuminsky, Mrs. Josephine Melchior and Mrs. Mary Supanchick of Mt. Angel; Mrs. Payne Pfeiffer, Bill, Sally, Mary, Alice, Joseph and Tommy, Tacoma; Mr. and Mrs. George Grenbemer and Pat Grenbemer, Port Townsend, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Unger and Nancy of Reedsport; Mrs. Margaret Orme and sons, Ronald, Robert and Harry, Dr. Robert Unger and Norma Jean Unger, and Dorothy Grenbemer, all of Portland; and the hosts and family.

Elizabeth Unger and George Webb assisted with the serving.

Kellers Visiting Mt. Angel Family

MT. ANGEL, Feb. 20 (Special) Mr. and Mrs. Fred Keller and small daughter, Mary Kay are visiting their aunt, Mrs. Mae Heggie. The Kellers came from Bridgeport, Conn., where Keller was in the submarine service for the last year and a half. They came west through California and visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kastigar in San Bernardino and her brother, Dick Kastigar, recently returned from China.

The Kastigars are former residents of Silverton, who moved to California a year ago. Mr. and Mrs. Keller will make their home in Portland.

There are 54,000 towns and villages in the United States served only by highway and motor transport.

Lyons Pupils Party Hosts

LYONS, Feb. 20—A valentine box was held in the school Thursday, with a short program, with parents as guests.

The Rev. P. Malcolm Hammon of Lewiston, Idaho, has visited the Paul Johnston home in Fox Valley. The two attended Willamette university together. Guests at the Johnston home Wednesday were Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Klempe and daughter Dorothy and Mrs. Eldon Arder of Aberdeen, Idaho.

Betty Jean Bodeker of Portland spent the weekend at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Bodeker, Lois Douglas of Boise, Idaho, accompanied her.

Robert M. Brassfield, ABM 3/c of the U.S. navy, left Saturday for Long Beach, Calif., after a 30-day leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Brassfield.

Howard Naue spent last week with his brother, Donald Naue of Sweet Home.

Mrs. Melissa S. McMahan

ALBANY, Feb. 20 (Special) Mrs. Melissa Stuart McMahan, 94, died in Salem February 15. Death was caused by pneumonia. Funeral services were held from the Methodist church in Halsey February 18, with Rev. Earl Cochran of McMinnville, assisted by Rev. Harold Miles of Halsey, conducting the service. Burial was in the Pine Grove cemetery. The Fisher funeral home was in charge of the arrangements.

Melissa Stuart was born near Corvallis Jan. 20, 1852, and spent her life in Oregon, more than 60 years in Halsey. She was a member of the Rebekah lodge in Halsey and of the Methodist church.

Survivors are a daughter-in-law, Mrs. Mildred McMahan, and a granddaughter, Mildred Jean McMahan, both of McMinnville. Her husband, William H. McMahan, died in 1922.

Mrs. W. L. McCracken ALBANY, Feb. 20 (Special) Private funeral services were held Tuesday for Mrs. Nellie McCracken, 56, who died Sunday while on her way home from church services. Death resulted from a heart attack. The Rev. Reginald Rogers officiated. Burial was in Riverside.

Mrs. McCracken was born March 19, 1889, in New York, and lived there until 1910. She came to Oregon 35 years ago and since 1940 had made her home here. She was married to W. L. McCracken in 1911 at Myrtle Point. She was a member of the Albany Church of Christ.

Survivors are her widower and four children, Jack and Lloyd McCracken and Mrs. T. K. Pearl, all of Albany, and Mrs. D. W. Hackelman of Eugene, and nine grandchildren.

Services will be held Saturday, February 23, at 10 a.m. in the W. T. Rigdon chapel with Rev. George Swift officiating.

S. S. Brownell Rites Saturday

PRINGLE, Feb. 20 (Special) Sidney Simeon Brownell, pioneer farmer in the Pringle district and early day road supervisor, died of a heart attack, incurred while working in his yard, near here Tuesday. His nephew, Frank Brownell, Salem, was with him.

Brownell was born in 1869 at Decorah, Iowa, coming to Oregon with his parents in 1892. The family purchased a 200 acre farm near Pringle which Brownell was farming at the time of his death.

He had been road supervisor in the Pringle district for 14 years, starting in 1897, and had been an early advocate of good roads. He was active in the democratic party and had been clerk of the school board.

Surviving, in addition to his nephew, are a niece, Mrs. Ed Peterson, Seattle, and another nephew, Finch Brownell, Seattle.

Services will be held Saturday, February 23, at 10 a.m. in the W. T. Rigdon chapel with Rev. George Swift officiating.

Seek 20 Acres As Fairground

ALBANY, Feb. 20 (Special) A minimum of 20 acres has been set by the Linn county fair board as the land requirement for a fair grounds. This decision followed the chamber of commerce's offer of a four-acre tract by Wallace Eakin and Ralph Sanders. They said an additional 19 acres could be secured.

No definite action was taken by the board on a location, but it was decided to proceed with building plans as several resolutions were read and groups appeared asking that the board provide adequate buildings for youth activities. Resolutions came from the Linn County Pomona grange, Morning Star grange, Riverview Farmers Union and the Linn county agricultural planning conference. H. W. Cooley represented Grand Prairie grange, R. A. Talbot the 4-H Leaders' association, and E. E. Gourley spoke as a purebred Jersey breeder.

Requests for fair funds were presented by Scio Pat Lamb and Wool show, 4-H club fairs, Sweet Home Community fair, Lebanon Strawberry festival, Brownsville Pioneer Picnic, Charity Grange Harvest Festival, Morning Star Grange Harvest Festival, Jordan Community fair and Lyons Community fair.

The fair board meets at 10 a.m. February 23 in the courthouse to make fair fund allocations and further discuss the building situation. Members of the board are L. E. Arnold, Lebanon, chairman; Ned Callaway, Brownsville, and Dr. A. G. Prill, Scio. O. E. Mikesell, county agent, is secretary.
