

Tea Monday At McKay Home

Chapter members of the Oregon State college Mothers club and mothers of new students who entered school in January were honored at a lovely tea meeting of the club Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Douglas McKay on Jervis avenue.

Over fifty attended the affair. Mr. John Fenner, alumni secretary at Oregon State college, talking on the future plans of the housing situation for veterans and families at the college and of his experiences in Africa.

Chapter members honored were Mesdames Edwin L. Minar, Edgar S. Fortner, H. A. Rowe, S. H. Probert, C. E. Hatfield, Lloyd Riches, D. H. Upjohn, Douglas McKay and Oscar Paulson, Jr.

Arrangements of daphne and spring flowers were used in the living room. The tea table was centered with a silver bowl filled with pink carnations, blue bachelor buttons and California wax flower flanked by tall pink tapers in silver candelabras. Mrs. Oscar I. Paulson and Mrs. G. A. Reeher presided at the tea urns.

Wintertime Travelers

While some winter vacationists are returning home, others are leaving for sojourns in the east and south.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick S. Lamport are being welcomed home from a two months stay in the south. The Lamports spent three weeks in Palm Springs and several weeks at Jocke Inn, a winter resort at Jocke Inn, near Phoenix. Before returning north they visited 10 days in Los Angeles.

Mrs. L. S. Covert entrained Sunday for Oklahoma to visit with friends and relatives. She is returning via the southern route and will visit with her daughter, Grace, in Vallejo, Calif., where she is stationed with the Red Cross. Mrs. Covert plans to be away a month.

Mrs. James C. Drury left Monday on the steamship for New York City to join her husband, who is a professor at New York university. Her son, Jon, will be the guest of Jerry Pekar at the M. D. Pekar home during his mother's absence. Her other son, Jimmie, will be with his sister, Joan Newcomb Anderson.

Mrs. Drury expects to return in the late spring by way of Washington, D. C., where she will visit Mr. and Mrs. Jack Luckar, and in Los Angeles with Miss Kathryn Gunnell, a former Salem resident.

Wheatena

IT'S "DIFFERENT"

Hits the spot? You bet—tempting hot Wheatena is such a marvelous change from the usual hot cereal every day.

For Wheatena is deliciously different. Has the nut-like flavor of natural toasted wheat. It cooks fast as coffee. And what a nifty builder-upper.

Get it! Serve it! Tomorrow!

IT'S THE WELCOME CHANGE FOR BREAKFAST!

Salem Man Married in Portland

Of interest to the couple's many Salem friends is announcement of the wedding of Miss Selma Nepom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Nepom of Portland, to Mr. Bernard David Brown, son of Dr. and Mrs. Harry Brown of Salem, on February 9, at the Multnomah hotel. Rabbi J. B. Fain and Rabbi Philip Kleinman officiated at the 7:30 o'clock nuptials before several hundred friends and relatives.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore an ivory velvet frock with full veil and carried a white bible with spray of orchids.

Miss Charlotte Rosenstein was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Betty Axe, Shirlee Geller, Harriet Popick and Saralace Lukowitz. They all wore lace and net frocks, the maid of honor in blue, the bridesmaids in pink and carried fan bouquets of iris and tulips with head-dresses of the same flower.

Capt. Lewis Brown, the bridegroom's brother, was best man and ushers were Sam Russell, Solomon Menashe, Benjamin Russell and Marvin Nepom. A wedding dinner and dancing followed the ceremony. The newlyweds are now on a trip to Los Angeles and southern California. They will return to Salem to make their home.

Mr. Brown, a graduate of Salem schools, will enter Willamette university in March. He recently was released from the army after two years of service, part of which time was spent in Europe.

The Sojourners will meet at the Salem Woman's club on Thursday. Hostesses will be Mrs. William Galloway, Mrs. Lloyd DeGroot, and Mrs. Paul D. Baker.

Miss Lorah Kate Griffith, who is taking her nurses training at the University of Oregon medical school in Portland, was the weekend guest here of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Griffith.

Women of Rotary Meet

Mrs. Alexander Levy gave an interesting talk on "Inter-Racial Problems" at the Women of Rotary luncheon meeting at the Quella Monday afternoon. Virginia Ward Elliott sang with Mrs. Ralph Dobbs accompanying.

The luncheon tables were festive with arrangements of jonquils, laurestinus and pussywillows. Special guests were Mesdames Harland B. Pearson, C. C. Higgins, E. L. Bentley, William Wood and Leon Lassers.

Members attending were Mesdames L. R. Tweedie, Frank Burlingham, A. A. Rogers, Homer H. Smith, R. Ivan Lovell, Thomas Roen, J. C. Perry, I. M. Doughton, K. H. Pickens, Robert Lehman, A. A. Lee, Ivan Stewart, W. W. Moore, O. F. Franklin, George Grabenhurst, sr., Arthur A. Keene, Robert Hutcheon, N. S. Rogers, Charles Fowler, M. E. Walters, L. O. Arons, J. Lyman Steed, Melvin Geist, Roy Harland, Harry Johnson, Robert Elstrom, Homer F. Smith, B. E. Sisson, Harley Bossler and R. E. Lee Steiner.

Miss Eloise Ransom a Bride

The First Presbyterian church was the setting for the marriage of Miss Eloise Ransom of Salem, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Ransom of Payette, Idaho, and Mr. Robert C. Glass, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Glass of Portland, on Friday, February 22, at 8 o'clock.

The Rev. Chester Hamblin officiated at the ceremony before a setting of pink and white gladioluses and white tapers. Virginia Ward Elliott sang "I Love Thee" before the nuptials and the "The Lord's Prayer" during the service. Mrs. Ralph Dobbs was the organist. Miss Nancy Glass of Portland, sister of the groom, lighted the altar tapers. She wore a pink satin dress fashioned with a peplum and overskirt of net.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white embroidered marquisette gown fashioned princess style with floor length skirt, long sleeves which ended in points at the wrists and a sweetheart neckline. Her fingertip length tulle veil fell from a Dutch cap of the same material. She carried a spray of red roses and bouvardia.

Attends the Bride

Mrs. Ruth Andrews was the maid of honor and wore a mist blue frock with net skirt and taffeta bodice made with a sweetheart neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations and sweet peas.

Mr. P. A. Raney, chief gun-ner's mate, USN, stood with the groom as best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Ransom came from Idaho for their daughter's wedding. She wore a powder blue gown with navy blue hat and accessories. Mrs. Glass wore a navy blue gown trimmed in pink and navy accessories. Their corsages were of pink carnations.

After a wedding trip to Seaside the couple will go to Portland to make their home. For travelling the bride wore a burnt orange dress with navy blue coat and accessories and a corsage of roses and freesias.

The bride attended Willamette university and has been employed at the Marion county agent's office. Her husband, a radio operator, was with KSLM here before entering service over two years ago. He just returned from the Philippines and has been released from the army.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Smith were hosts for an informal supper party Sunday night at their home on South High street in honor of their son, Floyd, who has been released from the army. He recently returned from the European theatre of operations. A group of his friends were bidden to the affair.

Mrs. Eugene Reed of Portland was a visitor in Salem on Saturday. Mrs. Reed and daughter, Sybil, plan to join Mr. Reed here next month.

Felicitations go to Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. McBurnett on the birth of a son Monday morning at the Salem General hospital.

Stella Davis Tells Troth

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Davis announce the engagement of their daughter, Stella, to Mr. Thomas P. Hubbard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Annie Hubbard of Los Angeles.

The couple will be married in the early summer. The news of the engagement was first made known to friends Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Schmaltz of Clear Lake. The table decorations consisted of a vase of spring flowers tied with a white satin bow. On the streamers were the names, "Tommy and Stella."
