Baptist Church Adds Cub Pack

Calvary Baptist church completed its scout family with an installation of the church-sponsored Boy Scout Cub Pack No. 2 at the church Tuesday evening. The church already sponsors a scout troop and senior scout unit.

Committees appointed at the Tuesday meeting to lead the new cub pack are Byron W. Troth and Robert N. Evenden and ten mothers appointed were Mrs. Byron Troth, Mrs. Robert Evenden and Mrs. E. M. Larsen.

Cubmaster is Warren E. Durbin and his den chiefs are Don Steiner, Thomas Durbin, Roger Gebauer and David Hile. Assistant Scout Executive Martin Mockford and Commissioner Art Lamka attended the installation meeting.

German POWs Dock With U.S. Cigarettes

LONDON, Feb. 27 (AP)—A shipload of 2250 German prisoners of war arrived at Liverpool today from the United States with 4,000,000 cigarettes in their baggage.

An American sergeant guard said: "Each prisoner is allowed to travel with personal luggage up to 65 pounds. These lads crammed their kit bags half full of cigarettes they obtained in their camps."

Leonardo Da Vinci was a painter, sculptor, architect, engineer, musician, anatomist, inventor, stage designer and moral philosopher.

Geologists See Colored Slides

Walter Morse showed colored slides of Oregon views and geological and mineralogical displays were featured Tuesday night when the Salem Geological society observed its fifth anniversary in the social rooms of the Congregational church.

The displays were made by Dr. F. D. Voigt, Mrs. Ted Gordon, Mrs. P. W. Geiser and George L. Tompkins. Included in the late supper served was a birthday cake brought from Portland by three charter members, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Davis and Mrs. Mildred Stockwell.

Silverton Unit Holds Meeting

Mrs. John Demas Head Of Auxiliary of Marion Post

SILVERTON, Feb. 27.—(Special) Mrs. Lewis A. Hall was chairman of the Monday night program of Delbert Reeves Unit No. 7 of the American Legion auxiliary. Program arrangements were all in charge of the Past Presidents' club.

Mrs. John Demas, president, conducted the meeting. New members are Mrs. Frank Porter, Mrs. Frank Porter, Mrs. Orville Elliott, and Mrs. Lester Oehler.

Mrs. C. H. Dickerson, accompanied by Mrs. Demas and Mrs. Hall made the presentation of February 22. The poppy poster contest will include the seventh and eighth grades as well as the high schools with prizes to be awarded in both divisions. Junior girls will meet March 14.

A sandwich and salad luncheon will be held at the next meeting, March 11, instead of the no-host 6:30 dinner at first planned.

During the program hour community singing was enjoyed; Mrs. T. P. Heidenstrom gave a reading, and in a dressing contest, Pat Grogan won first prize with second prize going to Frank Porter.

Dr. Young to Tell of Travels

Dr. Beatrice Young of Pacific university will describe her travels in Spain before the Salem Spanish club Friday evening, March 8, at the YMCA here, it was announced Wednesday by the club's program chairman, Mrs. Pauline Goldenstien of Tillamook.

At the group's meeting last Friday a talk on Mexico was given by Senora Victoria Villagomez de Macaulay, a native of that country and now the acting Mexican counsel in Portland. Accompanying her were her two adopted children, formerly of Madrid, Spain. Her husband, Hal E. Macaulay, was an engineer in Mexico for many years.

Cement Block Plant to Start

Machinery for the manufacture of mortartless interlocking cement blocks for building purposes is anticipated daily by W. G. Stanton, who is erecting a frame plant on properties recently purchased near East Hoyt and 14th streets, Stanton said Wednesday.

Boilers already are in place, kilns are being prepared and materials for the blocks, popular in many new building uses and for garden wall construction, have already arrived, he said.

Work on a similar plant in Polk county, where he also holds a franchise for manufacture of the patented building material, will start sometime this year, Stanton said. Stanton came to Salem recently from Boise, Idaho. Only other plant in Oregon manufacturing the blocks is at Klamath Falls, he declares.

Smither Tells Soroptimists Of Investments

How and whys of investments were discussed before the Salem Soroptimist club's Wednesday noon meeting by A. W. Smither of Conrad Bruce & Co.

Neither men nor money should be made to work too long and too hard, Smither maintained, explaining why markets break as prices mount beyond reason. He presented members with Dow-Jones industrial average charts and with investment timetables indicating what share of the invested dollar should be in "defensive" (government bonds, mortgages, postal savings, etc.) investments and how much in "aggressive" securities.

Large investors ordinarily rely almost solely upon investment counsel, paying well for the service, he said.

Smither spoke on a "Soroptimist day" program, featuring the employment of one of the members of the classified women's service club. Esther Werner, office manager for his firm in Salem, provided the program.

Rotarians Hear Of Low Cost Transportation

Development of low cost inland transportation is a pressing need of the Willamette valley, Kit C. Congers, who directed army transportation in the Bristol area during the war, told Salem Rotarians Wednesday noon.

The clays of the Washington, Columbia and Molalla areas which will be made into alumina were among the products which would benefit in particular from such low cost transportation.

Forty per cent of inland transportation in northern France is by canal barge and 60 per cent of transportation within Germany before the war was by inland waterways, the army transport man said. Such form of transportation is almost completely undeveloped in the northwest.

Agricultural Groups to Meet

Agricultural committees of chambers of commerce throughout western Oregon, including Portland's, will be guests of the Salem chamber Friday for an all-day conference on many phases of the agricultural industry.

Featured speaker will be Delos L. James of Washington, D.C., manager of the agricultural division of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce.

It is expected that many executives and managers, as well as agricultural committees of chambers of commerce, will attend.

Labor Shortage Seen On Pacific Coast

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 27 (AP)—Western states will be confronted by a labor shortage in 1947, Dr. Nat H. Engle predicted today in a talk before the Oregon Ad club.

A member of the national committee of economic development which made a survey of labor needs, Dr. Engle said the 11 western states would have six million jobs requiring 140,000 more men than now are available.

Nine hundred thousand square miles of Russia were planted with mines and shells and booby traps by the German invaders.

Inter Racial Talks Given at Toastmistress

Four Navajo Indians, U.S. marine corps signal men, were the subject of a talk by Don C. Nelson, district president of Toastmistresses, in a talk before Salem Toastmistress last night.

Nelson was a guest at the "brotherhood of man" program of the women's group for which Isabel Childs was toastmistress. The Navajos needed no special code in their work in the south Pacific, using their own native language, Nelson said in telling of his meeting with the lone survivor of the group.

White children in a Portland school, attended also by a large number of Negroes, have no special reaction to the situation except where it reflects adults, Mrs. Jess Daugherty, Englewood principal, said in her talk. The experiences of Harryette Masonic, former toastmistress, now teaching in the Portland school, were the basis of Mrs. Daugherty's talk.

Lois Hamer spoke on Negro contributions to American literature, and Esther Gulley spoke of "My Friends, the Chinese." Mrs. L. O. Arens was table topic chairman; Loretta Friedrich, general critic; Marie Ling, timekeeper; Grace Bottler, president, conducted the brief business meeting. Mrs. Mabel Grass of Woodburn is a new member of the group.
