

Mid-Winter Travelers Interest

Wintertime travelers continue to hold the social spotlight.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Sexton and daughter, Patsy, are being welcomed home from a month's trip in the east and south. Mr. Sexton went to Washington, D. C., on business and from there went south to Miami, Fla., to join his family, who had preceded him. There they were the guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Sexton. This was the first trip home for the Sextons in 20 years.

The Sextons returned via the southern route and stopped in Monterey, Calif., for a stay at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Iversen. Mr. Sexton went on to San Francisco on business. They arrived in the capital Tuesday night.

Mrs. R. T. Boals has returned from a ten-day stay in San Francisco as the guest of her son, Mr. Harlan C. Boals. Mr. Boals has been with the Chase National bank in New York City for the past two and a half years and will now be with the American Trust company in the bay city.

Mrs. W. Connell Dyer entertained for the south on Sunday and after a stay in San Francisco went on to Monterey to visit with her son and daughter-in-law, Capt. and Mrs. William C. Dyer, Jr.

Captain Dyer is being transferred to the Presidio in San Francisco. His wife and son, William Connell III, will accompany Mrs. Dyer home next week. Captain Dyer expects to be released from the service in June. They will make their home in Salem.

Shuttleworths Honor Guests

On February 22 Mr. and Mrs. Lon Shuttleworth were guests at a six o'clock dinner honoring their 53rd wedding anniversary. Their four daughters were hostesses at the dinner which was held at the Fairmount Hill home of Mr. and Mrs. G. K. Sundlie.

Spring flowers were used in decorations around the rooms. The tables had centerpieces of crystal and silver with bowls of floating flowers and white candles in crystal holders. The place cards were passed with crystal bowls.

Guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Lon Shuttleworth, Mr. and Mrs. George Stroutz and son Junior, Mr. and Mrs. W. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Dotson and daughter Barbara.

The Shuttleworths' daughters and families present included Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Mitchell and daughter Marilyn, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. West and son Richard, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Buchanan and daughter Freda, and Mr. and Mrs. George K. Sundlie.

Society . . . Clubs Music . . . The Home

Maxine Buren
Women's Editor

Jeryme English
Society Editor

Mrs. Ronald Hudkins a Hostess

Mrs. C. Ronald Hudkins was hostess for a beautifully arranged luncheon Wednesday afternoon at her North Summer street home in compliment to a group of her friends.

Arrangements of daphne and violets provided the decorative note and at each place were corsages of early spring flowers. Contract bridge was in play during the afternoon.

Covers were placed for Mrs. William Bush, Mrs. Roger K. Putnam, Mrs. Kenneth Sherman, Mrs. Ralph Nohlgren, Mrs. Edwin L. McEwen, Mrs. W. Gerald Nibler, Mrs. Albert Ott and Mrs. Hudkins.

Costume Party At Severin's

Judy Foreman, Barbara Franzwa and Astrid Severin were hostesses for a gala George Washington party on Friday night at the R. D. Severin home on Tillman avenue. Guests came in costume and Geraldine Keene was awarded the prize for the funniest. She was dressed as a fisherman, advertising her father's store. Claudia Waters won first prize for her costume as a ballet dancer.

Games were in play during the evening and refreshments were served later by the hostesses. Assisting were their mothers, Mrs. Clayton Foreman, Mrs. William Franzwa and Mrs. R. G. Severin.

Attending the affair were Barbara Bonesteel, Jean Jorgenson, Patsy Snider, Carol Lee, Claudia and Clarice Waters, Sidney Ann Kromer, Marjorie McAllister, Julie Ann Miller, Geraldine Keene, Marcia Maple, Judy Burdette, Judy Schmele, Joan Neal, Patsy VanOttingham, Barbara Klunder and Carol Streb.

The Women's Relief Corps will meet Friday at 12 noon at the VFW hall for a no-host luncheon to be followed by the regular meeting.

KEIZER—Mr. and Mrs. Nick Le Rud entertained at dinner on Sunday for Portland friends. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Culver, David and Nadine, Mrs. Culver's mother, Mrs. Dilly.

Luncheon at Chambers' Home

Mrs. J. N. Chambers will preside at a smartly arranged 1:15 o'clock luncheon this afternoon at her attractive, country place in Morningside for the pleasure of a group of her friends.

The luncheon table will be centered with an arrangement of daffodils flanked by yellow tapers. Other spring flowers will be used about the rooms. Contract bridge will be in play after the luncheon hour.

Covers will be placed for Mrs. Frederick J. Brennan, Mrs. Henry Hanzen, Mrs. Mall Rudd, Mrs. David Bennett Hill, Mrs. Harry Lucas, Mrs. Frank Brownell, Mrs. Harris Lietz, Mrs. Clifton Mudd, Mrs. R. D. Paris and Mrs. Chambers.

Au Revoir Party Is Given

Mrs. Maurice Welch and Mrs. Florence Wilkerson were hostesses for a farewell party given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cook, who will leave soon for their home in Pendleton. Mrs. Cook is a sister of Mrs. Archie Bones of Salem.

The dinner table was centered with a bouquet of tallman roses. Mr. Welch's gift to his wife on her birthday. The day was also the 34th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Len Wilkerson. Pinochle was in play during the evening. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Denham of Turner, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Bones, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Todd Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cook and Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Welch.

BPW Club Hears Mrs. Chin

Holdings the second monthly dinner meeting of the 1946 season, the Salem branch of the BPW presented a program both interesting and entertaining to the members and guests present at the Golden Pheasant, Tuesday night.

The principal speaker of the evening was Mrs. Stanley Chin, wife of the Chinese Counsel in Portland, who presented the need of future relations, both economical and cultural, of the American and Chinese people. She emphasized the need of continuing the scholarships in American universities for Chinese students, the abolishment of extraterritorial rights in China, and the desire of China to trade with America without tariff walls.

Mrs. Chin also stressed the necessity of a continuance of American-Chinese relations as a means of maintaining world peace.

In furthering the "project of the year," a collection was taken for the fund used for the training of Chinese orphans.

Guests present were Mrs. John Schmidt, Jr., Mrs. John Minto,

Mrs. H. J. Thomas, Mrs. I. A. De France, Miss Amie E. Martin, Mrs. E. A. Meola, Mrs. Stanley Chin, Mrs. Ella Yan Arsdale, Mrs. R. Sidway, Mrs. Mable Carder, Miss Elizabeth Dotson, Mrs. C. H. Fisher, Mrs. W. R. English, Mrs. John Jelderks, and from the Seattle BPW club, Miss Ruth Jaynes.

During the program Mrs. H. J. Thomas was presented in three vocal selections and accompanied at the piano by Mrs. John Schmidt, Jr.

Cooleys Are Dinner Hosts

Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Cooley were hosts for a smartly arranged dinner party Wednesday night at their D street home for the pleasure of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Nicholson, Jr. Mr. Nicholson recently returned from duty in the South Pacific and Japan.

The buffet table was centered with a ring of violets and acacia and white tapers in crystal candelabras. The individual tables were decorated with crystal vases holding a white candle, acacia and violets.

Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. James H. Nicholson, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Robert Needham, Mr. and Mrs. Claybourne Dyer and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cooley.

Guests Are Bidden to Parties

With three formal dances on the calendar for the latter part of the week several informal parties are being arranged to precede and follow the affairs.

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Nicholson, Jr., will be hosts for an informal party at their North Summer street home Saturday night preceding the Town club dinner dance at the Marion hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ferris have invited guests to a midnight supper party at their North 24th street home after the Trotters' club dance Friday night at Crystal Gardens.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ferris will be Dr. and Mrs. Harry Fredricks, Mr. and Mrs. Roger K. Putnam and Mr. and Mrs. Francis Jennigan.

Mrs. Leslie R. Burdette will preside at a bridge luncheon this afternoon at her Fairmount Hill home in compliment to members of her club. Mrs. T. Harold Tomlinson will be an additional guest.

Mrs. Roy H. Mills is spending a few days in Camas, Wash., as the guest of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Cooley.

Mrs. Clinton Standish will entertain members of her club tonight at her home on North Church street. A late supper will follow several hours of contract bridge.

Knights of Columbus and the Catholic Daughters of America will hold a dance at St. Joseph's hall on Tuesday night. The affair is to be in honor of returned servicemen.

Shrine Club Banquet

Elaborate plans have been made for the coming Salem Shrine club formal banquet to be given in the Mirror room of the Marion hotel Friday night, March 1, at 6:30.

The entertainment committee has secured a complete professional floor show for the event, which will provide a diversified evening of entertainment for the Shrine nobles and their wives. Decorations will be carried out in true Arabic pattern in keeping with Shrinedom.

Music for the dinner hour and for dancing later in the evening will be furnished by the Top Hatters.

The Rainbow Girls will have charge of the punch bowls during the dancing hours.

Many Shriners and their wives from neighboring towns will attend.

Couple Will Be Bridge Hosts

Mr. and Mrs. Evert G. Givens have invited a group of their friends to an informal bridge party Saturday night at their North 17th street home.

After several hours of cards a late supper will be served by the hosts. Bouquets of early spring flowers will provide the decorative note about the rooms.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Givens will be Dr. and Mrs. Estill Brunk, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Goodenough, Mr. and Mrs. F. Ivan Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Gail Jones, Mr. and Mrs. I. F. Remington and Mr. and Mrs. James Turnbull.

Mr. and Mrs. Givens are planning a series of parties and will be hosts for a similar affair in a fortnight.

From Portland comes word of the birth of a daughter to Dr. and Mrs. Robert Evans, formerly of Salem. The little girl was born on February 22 at St. Vincent's hospital. She has two older brothers and three sisters.

Mrs. R. T. Boals will be hostess for a bridge luncheon this afternoon at her apartment at the Ulrich in honor of members of her club.

For FAMED LABELS!

Nationally Advertised in 'HARPER'S BAZAAR' . . . 'CHARM'

put your faith in a

—AS SEEN IN HARPER'S BAZAAR AND CHARM

Unerringly simple . . . inevitably right . . . YOU in one of those wonderful coats by Shagmoor! Superbly detailed of our exclusive 100% wools . . . yarn-dyed to achieve their lovely muted colors.

Style No. 462
Pictured Above

35⁰⁰

Interpretations of Favorites for Spring

SEARS
ROEBUCK AND CO.

Black 'n' Right

The news in fashion! Chic black Kerrybrooke shoes . . . dramatic exclamation points at the foot of your light spring costumes. Styled with skill to allure and endure.

Grained leather oxford $4.45

Perforated leather sandal $4.89

Patent leather sandal $3.98

Look pleasant please!

"Satisfaction guaranteed or your money back" SEARS

484 State St.
Phone 9192