By Mossler G. H. Saubert Celebrates 55th Anniversary

CUSHMAN, Feb. 27-(Special) George H. Saubert, one-time associate publisher of The Oregon Statesman, and Mrs. Saubert celebrated their 55th wedding anniversary here Sunday, February 17. Residents here for about 25 years, they came to Cushman from Spokane to make their home on the old "Dr. Saubert homestead."

Their first home after their marriage Feb. 17, 1891, at Trinity church in San Francisco was Salem, where Saubert was associated with the late R. J. Hendricks in publishing The Statesman. In 1894 they moved to Spokane, where Saubert was with the Spokesman-Review for 23 years. Mrs. Dal M. King of Myrtle Point. whose husband is circuit judge of that district, is their daughter. They have one son, Harlan Fr Saubert of Dallas, Tex.

Stock Market Begins Rise

NEW YORK, Feb. 27 -(AP) - A number of leading stocks gained 1 to more than 4 points today as the market snapped back from the downturns of the past two

Closing prices of many leaders were at the day's best levels. Transfer of 1,400,000 shares were sharply down from Tuesday's 2,650,000

Buying by customers with idle funds resulting from recent profit cashing was credited by brokers with providing a lift, along with belief the list was in line for a comeback following sharp breaks earlier this week. Dividend increases spurred some
