Siltcoos Landmark Being Torn Down

SILTCOOS, Dec. 20.—(Special)—The dismantling of the large old house near the Earl Gardiner place between Siltcoos and Canary, removes one of the landmarks of earlier days. The house was built by Prof. Thomas Martin, now deceased, 38 years ago.

The lumber was hauled from South Slough, near Cushman, over trails which permitted hauling only a few hundred feet of lumber at a trip.

Mr. Compton, now about 89 years of age and a resident of Florence, hauled the lumber for the house. Earl Gardiner and R. W. Delamater are taking down the old structure.

OAKRIDGE NOTES

Group Plays Bridge at Putnam Home Wednesday Evening

OAKRIDGE, Dec. 20.—(Special)—The postoffice employes are beginning to notice the Christmas rush, and every day finds them a little busier. It hasn't yet been necessary to put on any extra help but by the first of the week there will probably be another clerk. So far no foreign packages have been received and only a few have been sent.

Mrs. William Dolmyer and daughter, Edna Mae, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Croner Thursday evening.

Dr. and Mrs. Grant J. Gray are spending the week-end in Eugene.

WINBERRY NEWS

WINBERRY, Dec. 20.—(Special)—Uncle Vern Bowdell, who makes his home with Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Jackson, has been suffering with a heart attack for the past week.

Miss Thelma Carter is spending this week visiting friends in the Oakridge community.

Mrs. A. Mitheny and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Neet and little son Albert were Eugene visitors Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, the Unity teachers, spent last week-end in Portland.

Little Miss Mona Jackson was absent from school Thursday on account of a very sore finger.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Mooney visited Herman Moses at the Eugene hospital Wednesday where he is recovering from a recent operation.

Mrs. Lovall has been driving the school bus for a few days.

Oakridge I. O. O. F. Visit Eugene Lodge

OAKRIDGE, Dec. 20.—(Special)—A delegation from the I. O. O. F. lodge drove to Eugene Tuesday to visit the Eugene Odd Fellow chapter. They attended a regular meeting at which the initiatory degree was put on for some new members.

Those making the trip were J. E. Paddock, T. J. Spatz, A. Metzner, Alvie Flock, Martin Johnson, Virgil Winkleman, E. E. Wert and Melvin Spatz.

AT LEABURG

LEABURG, Dec. 20.—(Special)—Miss Olive Goff, teacher of Vida, is in Eugene taking examinations this week. Mrs. L. L. Lawrence is teaching for Miss Goff while she is away.

The Vida school is preparing to give their Christmas entertainment on Wednesday afternoon, December 24.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Tennis and family have moved from Cedar Flat to Leaburg and are occupying the place vacated by Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Blenis.

Miss Ellen Johnson was a guest of Mrs. Everett Wearin at the Rebekah lodge Christmas party on Thursday evening at Walterville.

Miss Johnson was an all night guest of the Wearin's the same night. Both Mrs. Wearin and Miss Johnson are teachers of Deerhorn.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgie Clover entertained the 500 club on last Tuesday evening at their home in Vida. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Harris entertained the club on Wednesday evening and Mr. and Mrs. Lou Crow on Saturday evening.

A dress rehearsal will be held at Leaburg church on Saturday evening for the Christmas pageant which will be given on Sunday evening, December 21.

Dr. and Mrs. R. G. Allin of Blue River were callers at the J. C. Ayers home Tuesday at Leaburg.

Miss Evadne Hurst will be a visitor in Junction City Friday night and Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Smith and sons are remaining in Oregon until after Christmas before departing to their home in Los Angeles. They intend spending Christmas in Albany.

Cleo Carter is improving rapidly from a case of chicken pox.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Thomason with their two children are planning on spending Christmas in Eugene with relatives.

Mrs. Vern Gillespie and small daughter of Deerhorn visited at the Ed Howells home Friday.

AT CLEAR LAKE

CLEAR LAKE, Dec. 20.—(Special)—The Christmas entertainment will be given at the schoolhouse on Saturday evening at 8 o'clock. Everyone is invited.

The school is enjoying a new piano, installed last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Huftile and family have moved into the Edgerton house.

The board is building a new stage for the schoolhouse, which is to be permanent.

The eighth grade has finished the marketing project.

Little Loren Grant had his head cut quite badly when he ran into the swinging horizontal bar.

Junior Hill has been quite ill with a cold.

Parker Funeral Will Be Monday

Funeral services for B. H. Parker, who died Friday, will be held Monday at 2 p. m. at the Branstetter chapel, it was announced Saturday night.

Rev. A. L. Lonsberry of the Evangelical church will officiate. Burial will be in the new I. O. O. F. cemetery.
