

PIANO RECITAL HELD AT MARCOLA

MARCOLA, April 11.—(Special).—Mrs. Warren J. Price presented her piano recital in a public recital Wednesday evening, April 8, at the L. O. O. F. hall. The program was as follows:

"Fairies of the Forest," Grace Price; "April Flowers," Nell Camp; "The Rose Waltz," Clifford Price; "Sailing," Laura Redding; "Silent Night," Harold and Donald Seaver; "Lullaby," Ruth Camp; "The Swan," Sadie Price; "The Mexican Serenade," Alma and Mary Camp; "Evening Melody," Harold Seaver.

"Black Hawk Waltz," June Green; "Over the Waves," Doris Morison; and "Merry Melody," "The Blossoms," Donald Seaver; "The Oregone," June Green and Marjorie Price; "Aloha Oe," variations, Lois Nielsen; "Babbling Brook," Mary Camp; "The Flower Song," Anna and Ethel Schneider; "Imps and Fairies," Marjorie Price; song duet, "When Younger," Hal Turner to Silver, Edna and Elizabeth Paris.

"Love and Roses," Alma Camp; "In the Rose Garden," Ethel Schneider; "The Rose Garden," Alma and Mary Camp; "With My Love," Anna Schneider; "Meditation," Lois Nielsen and Grace Price; "Meditation," Doris Morison; "Melody of Love," Vivian Troxel.

At Harrisburg

HARRISBURG, April 11.—(Special).—Careful examination shows that the floods of last week were responsible for very little damage here. A part of the reversion at the S. P. bridge went over the dam, being estimated at $1,000. A few fields on the bottom were washed considerably.

A large group of the Christian Endeavor held a sunrise service at Idylwood Park Sunday morning. The service was held at 7:30 a. m. and was attended by a large number of people.

P. T. A. held a meeting Tuesday night and furnished the audience a good program. A nominating committee was named to place nominations for officers of the association.

Heavy Breckinridge has purchased the four-acre tract north of Harrisburg belonging to John Sheriff. He and his sons will live there.

The organization of a Lions club is under way here and three meetings have been held. The Lions of Springfield will put on the program next Wednesday night.

George J. Wilhelm went to Portland one day last week to see the family, which is making a temporary home there.

Miss Billie Channell returned from the Eugene hospital Sunday, after an operation for appendicitis.

Two carloads of hops were shipped from Harrisburg Friday. There is yet quite a quantity held here in storage.

A. W. Garland of Albany was in town Tuesday looking for livestock that is for sale.

Miss Frances Rachorbas has gone back to her home at Day's. She has been employed at a restaurant here.

Mrs. Ralph Murphy and daughter Georgia, were visiting recently with Harrisburg relatives.

O. D. McLane of Salem spent a few days here this week with his sister, Mrs. P. W. Goodman.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Applegate went to Albany to see the daughter who is suffering with pneumonia.

Miss Evelyn Gilbert came home from Portland for the week-end.

Mrs. Meta Morris, friend of Mrs. L. E. Rounds, spent the day here recently.

M. Herman suffered from a paralytic stroke a few days ago and has been quite ill since then.

L. Hathaway made a trip to Yoncalla Saturday and returned the first of this week.

At Upper Camp Creek

UPPER CAMP CREEK, April 11.—(Special).—Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Daniels, of the Daniels Lumber company announce the arrival of a baby girl last week.

Several car loads from this community went to Walthersville last Sunday evening to attend the Easter pageant.

The Easter program given by the Sunday school Easter morning was well rendered by the children. A large audience was present.

Mr. and Mrs. George William and family drove to Cottage Grove Sunday, where they attended a dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. John William of that place.

The Helping Hand club met at the home of Mrs. David Stephens Wednesday afternoon as the hostesses had no work for them. Mrs. Carl Terpening brought a small quilt which she was making for little Velma Lindsay who has been confined to her chair for two months and the members worked on it.

The parent teachers association is planning a picnic for its next meeting, Friday evening, April 17th. Everybody is urged to bring a plate.

At The Churches Sunday

"How Shall We Measure Life?" to Be Sermon Topic at Methodist; Rev. Mr. Simon to Begin New Sermon Series; Symposium at Bethany Evangelical

Unitarian
Eleventh and Ferry, Ernest M. Whitcomb, minister. Morning service at 11:15. Dr. John Mueller of the University of Oregon will speak on "The Interests of the modern church—what they usually are and what they ought to be." Symposium at 10:30. Topic: "How can we as a church reach more people and how to give assistance to those whom we do reach." Church school at 10:15. No evening service.

Central Presbyterian
Tenth and Pearl, Pastor, Rev. M. Weber. 11 o'clock sermon subject, "Prophecy or Phonograph Records?" Rev. J. M. Adams will preach. At 7:30 p. m. the Odd Fellows band will give a sacred concert for the benefit of the Salvation Army work. Captain King will speak and H. B. Salles will preside.

First Congregational
Thirteenth and Ferry, Clay E. Palmer, pastor. Morning service 11 o'clock; subject, "What is Liberal Christianity?" Sunday evening forum 7:30 p. m. Dr. J. E. Wetherbee to speak on "India." Student forum 8:15 p. m. "Psycho-Religious Healing."

First Methodist Episcopal
Twelfth and Willamette, Roy Lee Smith, minister. Morning worship, 11 o'clock; sermon topic, "How Shall We Measure Life?" Evening service, 7:30 o'clock; sermon topic, "Choosing One's Life Work." Play by Wesley club, "Cleopas," by Alice L. Barton.

Fairmount Church of Christ
Seventh and Columbia streets. Errol B. Sloan, pastor. Communion and morning worship, 11; sermon, "Christian Athletics." Evening service, 7:30; sermon, "Not Far From the Kingdom."

Lighthouse Temple
Twelfth and Olive, Harry R. R. Neat, pastor. Morning service, 11 o'clock; subject, "Landmarks," fourth of a series of sermons. 2:30, Rev. R. J. Gordon of Cottage Grove will speak. Evening service, 7:30 o'clock; subject, "The New Birth," broadcast over KORE.

Church of the Nazarene
(Westleyan)
Eighth and Monroe, Rev. Ava S. Adams, pastor. Morning worship at 11 o'clock; sermon by Rev. A. J. Smith, "Go Forward." Evangelistic service at 7:30 p. m.; sermon by the pastor, "The Inevitable Harvest."

Springfield Baptist
Ralph Mulholland, pastor. Morning service, 11 o'clock; Rev. W. P. Osgood of Albany. 7 p. m. missions study. Evening service, 7:30 o'clock; W. P. Osgood, preaching. Trixie Chimes musical program by the Deimos Davis family.

Unity Center
Miner building, Galle Dawson, leader. Morning service, 11 o'clock; subject, "Abiding Peace." Norman Dawson, speaking. Evening service, 8 o'clock; subject, "I My Brother's Keeper." Galle Dawson, speaking.

Grace Lutheran (Missouri Synod)
Eleventh and Ferry streets, Martin

At Horton

HORTON, April 11.—(Special).—Mr. and Mrs. R. Hayes, Mr. and Mrs. Buchanan and families took a trip to Florence Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Hulbert of Chesham visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. Horton Wednesday.

Mrs. S. Davidson came out Monday to spend a few days with Mr. and Mrs. R. Hayes.

Mary Benninger returned to school at Monmouth Sunday. She spent her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Benninger.

The water was up this week the highest it has been this winter. It was over the road in several places and many of the fields were completely covered, but no damage was done.

"Red" Witteraft went to Salem Friday to take part in the boxing given at a smoker there.

Sam Horton and Charlie Starr returned to work at Post's mill Wednesday after having been laid off for a few days.

At Latham

LATHAM, April 11.—(Special).—Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Rose have been re-elected teachers of the Latham school.

Miss Hazel Tearous has accepted work with her former employers now in Drain.

Mr. and Mrs. Pitzer and family are visiting in Lynx Hollow this week.

HOME CENTER IS BEGUN AT LATHAM

LATHAM, April 11.—(Special).—The beginning of a home information center was made Wednesday by the Latham better home committee. Mrs. S. T. Rose, a member of the committee, will have charge of distribution of reading materials.

The center is to eventually contain helps in all departments of home making from the purchase and building of a home to all activities connected in and around the home. A number of leaflets dealing with the care of various contagious diseases from the county health unit, have been turned over by Mrs. Hugh Trunnell, chairman.

Material on housing, furnishing, care and repair, gardens and flowers are now available. Other things will be added as request for them grows. It is the wish of the committee to make the center a real help to the many phases of home life.

At Philomath

PHILMATH, April 11.—(Special).—The student body of Philomath high school presented the play, "The Crisis," last Friday night. It was said to be the best play given for many years and "went over big." More than $120 was taken in.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Guyer spent the week-end in Corvallis with her uncle, J. G. Feiler.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bigins of Monmouth, and Mr. and Mrs. Volney Bigins of Brooks, visited at the Gilson home Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Green announce the birth of a son, April 5, at the St. Vincent hospital in Portland.

Mrs. Ralph Thornburg and daughter Emma, of Enterprise, Ore., are visiting Mrs. Thornburg's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Gray.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Smith of Falls City, and Mr. and Mrs. R. G. White of Eugene, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. White.

Miss Minnie Tatum of the Mills City school force, spent the Easter vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Tatum.

Miss Marion Moreland of Corvallis, visited Miss Mary Abernethy over the week-end.

Mrs. Minnie Gray moved to Waldport the first of the week.

Mrs. Jennie Smith, who has spent the winter with her brother, M. E. Watkins, at his ranch south of town, left to visit her daughter, Mrs. Vada Peterson at Lebanon, a short time before returning to her home in Yachats.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Means and family, of Mills City, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Means over Sunday.

Mrs. and Mrs. William Willing and children, Vivian, Marvel, and Jean, of Portland, are visiting Mrs. Lestra Gosper.

Myrtle Ingram of Baker, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Ingram.

Miss Emma Paige, the evangelist, has finished the union service and gone to her home in Portland.

At Walton

WALTON, April 11.—(Special).—The Friday Easter egg rolling at Globe school house was a success. All the children and several of the mothers of the district were present. Ninety eggs were brought by the pupils and teachers.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Moorhouse spent the week-end at Alsea, returning to Globe Sunday night, as Mrs. Moorhouse is the teacher at Globe.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Porter walked down to Globe station from Alsea, one day last week as the Alsea-Alma wagon road is impassable for cars because of a slide on the high grade. Mrs. Porter is visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Kinny, at Veneta.

Dwight Newman and wife of Eugene spent Easter at Globe with their mother and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Osgood.

S. W. Porter's condition is much improved. He was seen one day last week out hunting for pitch, and he is planning a fishing trip with Whitaker creek.

Radio Programs

SATURDAY, APRIL 11
KOIN (319) Portland
5 p. m.—Popular organ melodies.
5:30—Prize kiddie club.
6—DLBS feature.
6:30—Jack and Jill.
7—Hank Simmons Showboat.
8—Dinner dance music.
8:15—Prize's Military band.
8:30—The Bohemians.
9—KJL Merry-makers.
9:30—Southeast Portland feature.
10—The Syncopators.
11—McElroy's Greater Oregonians.
12-1 a. m.—Merry-Go-Round.
KNX (285) Los Angeles
5 p. m.—Recorded program.
5:45—Town Crier's tips.
6—Wesley Tourtelotte, organist.
6:30—Church announcements.
6:45—Petite concert ensemble.
7—Frank Vatanabe and Archie.
7:15—Dance ensemble, June Forsell.
8—KNJ Revue.
9—Russian-American Art club.
9:30—Rev. Ethel Duncan.
10—Alma Wranglers, Sheriff.
11—12—Wesley Tourtelotte, organ.
KEX (254) Portland
5 p. m.—White Wizard.
5:15—Vesper glow.
5:45—Theater night, Dean Collins.
6—The Musical Racketeers.
6:30—The Amber God.
7—Silent period.
8—Apostolic Faith Mission concert.
9:30—Chronicles.
10—Ken Stuart's Sunshine prog.
10:30—Walkabout from Lotus Isle.
11:30—Vic Meyer's orchestra.
12-3 a. m.—Midnight Revelers.
KPO (441) San Francisco
5 p. m.—Big Brother.
5:30—Date book, Stuart Strong.
5:45—News digest, "Scotty."
6—Organ recital, George Nyklieck.
6:15—Cecil and Sally.
6:30—North Americans.
7—Variety program.
8—Radio feature.
8:15—The Circus.
8:45—Roads to Hollywood.
9—Nathan Abas, violin recital.
9:30—"Packard" program.
10—Jesse Stafford's orchestra.
11-12—Floyd Wright, organist, with Helen Sloan, blues singer.

At Eula

EULA, April 11.—(Special).—John Peisel and his son, Fred, came down from States camp and stayed over the week-end.

Emmette and Lorene Blakely spent several days in Eugene this week where Emmette took medical treatments.

Mrs. Edith Rhodes, formerly of this community, came up from Halsey with friends last Saturday night and attended the dance.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Calloway, Ethen Calloway and Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Stockton and son Jack, visited last Sunday at the C. R. Cook home at Winberry.

Anstin Greer left for Woodland, Washington recently. Mr. Greer spent the winter at the May and Greer homes.

Mrs. J. N. Smithson has been quite ill this week with tonsillitis.

At Deadwood

DEADWOOD, April 11.—(Special).—Mr. and Mrs. G. Williams and Tony Quilled of Junction City spent Easter Sunday with Mrs. L. H. Brooks and family.

Vic Steinhauer has gone to Portland for an indefinite period.

The closing of the road right of way is progressing nicely and will be ready to begin widening soon.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Fredericksen and daughter of Mapleton spent the first of the week visiting relatives on Deadwood.

GILLESPIE TO HAVE NEW MILL

GILLESPIE CORNERS, April 11.—(Special).—The Messrs Dimick and Lenzacher are building a new mill three miles north of here and back of the McNutt ranch.

They expect to begin operations Monday and will cut six or eight thousand feet a day. Mr. Buchanan will furnish the logs.

At Lone Pine

LONE PINE, April 11.—(Special).—The Lone Pine Garden club met at the home of the leader, Mr. Campbell, on Friday afternoon. The afternoon was spent in looking at various plants. Those present were Chester Lee, Delmar, Loeffelmacher, Sam Pakulak, Leonard Chambers, Wilmar Rienecke, Glen Etchison, Roy Etchison and the leader, Mr. Campbell.

Mrs. Opal Hise and daughter, Lola, of Westfir are spending a few days at the home of Mrs. Hise's mother, Mrs. Minnie Wheeler.

There was no school Thursday because a large number of the students were not able to get to school because of the high water.

A large number of people attended the P. T. A. meeting which was held Thursday night at the school. After the regular meeting a program was given consisting of recitations, vocal solos, dialogues, accordion solo and singing by all, which was enjoyed by everyone. After the program a lunch was served.

Work has started again at Mr. Horn's brick yard.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Currier and son have returned from Sutherlin to the F. W. Miller home, where Mr. Currier works.

Mr. Ford is building a summer home on his place on Beacon Drive.

Neal Howell, Mrs. Maude Valentine and son Albert, Charley and Everett Chapin have returned to their homes at Oakdale, Cal. after spending a few days visiting at the J. J. Howell home.

At Lobster

LOBSTER, April 11.—(Special).—Frank Decker, of Philomath, who has been spending several days at the C. A. Sapp home, left early Monday morning for his place on Beacon Drive. He took his four hounds along to chase bears and wild cats. He took food but no bedding. Mr. Decker expects to remain in the hills for several days.

J. E. Davis, principal of the Alsea schools, was a visitor in the valley Sunday, April 5. He and several of the Lobster boys took their bows and arrows and hunted for jack-rabbits. He returned to his home in Alsea Sunday evening.

Miss Edith Bennett of Corvallis

DANCING

TONIGHT
at IDYLWOOD
GOOD MUSIC
by Sharkey Moore's
7-Piece Orchestra

At Junction City

JUNCTION CITY, April 11.—(Special).—Mrs. Maude Robinson and son Gerald are in Junction City visiting at the home of Mrs. Robinson's mother, Mrs. Anna Sanders.

Mrs. Anna Willis and Mrs. N. P. Hansen went to Lake Creek on Thursday for a few days.

Mr. Bruce Hise, new teacher, has brought his family from Veneta and they are living in the Alsea school house on South Kalama. Mr. and Mrs. Walter LaBine, who were living here, have moved to Golden where Mr. LaBine is trucking for a mill.

At Blue River

BLUE RIVER, April 11.—(Special).—Mr. and Mrs. D. Meier have moved to McKenzie Bridge. Mr. Meier is one of the men employed on the state highway.

Dr. and Mrs. Allin and Mr. and Mrs. Whitty ate Easter dinner at Sparkes ranch.

Edwin Cooley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Cooley, who is attending business college in Portland, spent Easter vacation with his parents here.

Mr. and Mrs. Lamar and Mrs. Weston were guests of the Vincents for Easter week-end.

Lester Morgan is on the sick list and has been for several days.

Mrs. Ellen Wilshire has been elected for the second year as teacher of Blue River high school.

A pretty new bungalow is being built just a short distance from the Helrich residence.

At Marcola

MARCOLA, April 11.—(Special).—Mr. and Mrs. George Eastman and family spent the Easter vacation at Westport.

The Mohawk high school baseball team are practicing hard for their games this year but do not expect to do much, although Coach Gettmann expects them to get their teams in good shape for the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Mathews and son, Albert, of Pleasant Hill and Bonny Jeanne Wells of Thurston visited at the Nettie Nell home Sunday.

Mrs. Martha Carter of Coquille is here helping care for her grandmother, Mrs. Wallace, who is ill.

At Trent

TRENT, April 11.—(Special).—Verna Manning of Springfield is spending this week at the Lewis West home here and visiting friends.

The Oscar Moore family has moved back here, after spending the winter in Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Walker of Springfield visited in Trent last Sunday.

Direction FOX WEST COAST THEATRES

"WHERE ENTERTAINMENT REACHES ITS ZENITH"

TONIGHT

MIDNIGHT MATINEE

at 11:15 p. m.

"Watch the Skies at 10:30"

PREVIEW

MID-NITE SHOW

"The Night Life of Eugene"

You've A Pressing Engagement Tonight For—

The Boy Friend is here in the most uproarious romance in months, from the famous stage play. It's a riot!

WILLIAM HAINES

"in" A TAILOR MADE MAN

with DOROTHY JORDAN, MARJORIE RAMBEAU, IAN KEITH

Featuring Those Sultans of Syncopation The 10 Commanders IN "WHOOPEE CLUB" Music and Mirth Served a la Mode Doors Open 11 P. M. All Seats 50c

LAST TIMES TONIGHT!

JOHN FORD'S

Seas Beneath

GEORGE O'BRIEN

MARION LESSING MONA MARIS

LARRY KENT WARNER HYMER WM. COLLIER'S

A FOR PICTURE

STATE THEATRE

EDDIE QUILLAN

in "BIG MONEY"

with ROBERT ARMSTRONG-JAMES GLEASON, MARGARET LIVINGSTON

CARTOON - NEWS - COMEDY

CHAPTER 8 OF

The SPELL OF THE CIRCUS

DATE YOUR SWEETIE FOR OUR MIDNIGHT PREVIEW of "LET US BE GAY" with NORMA SHEAKER 11:15 p. m. 25c

HEILIG

SETTING THE STANDARD FOR ENTERTAINMENT!

IT'S POSITIVELY THE LAST TIMES TONIGHT FOR THE FUNNIEST SHOW EVER!

TWO GREAT STARS IN 1

SIT TIGHT

AND THE LAST EVENING FOR "VAUDEVILLE"

Then—Tomorrow and Monday—"RICO"—KING OF GANGDOM!

Rico's gun ruled all gangdom, but not this gangster's girl. Her love was greater than her fear when Rico's vengeance put her sweetheart on the spot!

LITTLE CAESAR

AT LAST!

Eugene, like the rest of the world, will blaze anew with the joyous glow of "City Lights," and the art that belongs to Charlie Chaplin. Again thousands will rub the lamp of happy entertainment... "City Lights"... and find at their command a gem of capricious whims... a priceless pearl of pantomime in the crown of comedy's king.

Tomorrow At One

Charlie Chaplin in "CITY LIGHTS"

First Showings Tonight at the Gala

MIDNIGHT PREVIEW 11:15 - 50c

COLONIAL

LAST TIMES TONIGHT

Oh, for the Laughs and Thrills.

THE BEST HAINES EVER!

WILLIAM HAINES in "REMOTE CONTROL" 25c