Local Markets Quiet Monday; Stock Prices Reveal Gains

BEARS FOILED AS RISES APPEAR IN SEVERAL OF LINES

NEW YORK, April 13.—(AP)—The financial markets took on a somewhat less gloomy complexion today.

Bearish efforts in the stock market were largely unsuccessful, and short covering in the Utilities gave the list a firm tone in the late trading.

Foreign exchanges, however, the Spanish Peseta broke wide open, reflecting the monarchy's adverses in the first popular election in several years.

Shares rising 2 to 5 points included Consolidated Gas, International Telephone, Standard Gas, Stone & Webster, American Water Works, Allied Chemical, Case and McKeesport. Auburn shot up more than 10 to new high ground since 1930, getting above 200. American Tobacco rose about 4 points to close to its peak of last year.

Trading continued in meagre volume, the day's transfers approximating about one and a half million.

Closing prices on the exchange today were:

CHICKEN MARKET IS DEMORALIZED

PORTLAND, April 13. — (U.P) — Complete demoralization of the market for chickens is reflected in the efforts of Hillsboro and Vancouver interests to force sales of their product of dressed stock in the Portland trade. Price cutting by the outsiders has created an unusually unfavorable position in the market. While other operators have not been inclined to shade buying prices more than a fraction or so generally, the lack of local outlet for the dressed product at a profit to handlers creates in the latter general unwillingness to take no more live stuff than necessary.

There is no change in the general trend for butter; conditions being weak with almost general shading of values. In fact retailers have recently sold prints below the quotable figures on cubes.

Cheese market is reflecting considerable weakness. In the Wisconsin trade late developments have been weak with almost general losses of ½ to ¾c lb. Local prices are weak but were showing no change for the day.

Unusually good quality green beans are arriving from the San Pedro, Calif., section. The stock is of good color and appears of quality. Prices are generally held $3.75 per 28 lb. hamper.

There were good trade indications in the market for asparagus, both local and Californian. Sales of Columbia river long green were mostly $1.75 doz. bunches with the best Californian around 8c lb.

Prices were advanced in the market for grapefruit during the day with California up around 25c case. Florida stock was up 50-75c case.

With somewhat better weather and improved catches along the Oregon as well as northern coast, the outlook for halibut prices is lower.

While there has of late been a good call in the livestock market for old mutton on account of an Alaskan demand, dressed stock is weaker and lower here. Practically all meats are likewise easier for the week's opening.

Artichokes are firmer on account of the small supply and good demand.

While Mexican tomatoes are due strong to higher; some as is stock is being offered down to $1.50-1.75 lug. Quality is indifferent.

Carload of Los Angeles strawberries is due Tuesday.

Lettuce market is inclined to show strength for quality.

Peas are reported steady with most sales $2.25-2.50 hamper.

Mushrooms continue scarce.

Hothouse cucumbers are about steady.

Cauliflower is very scarce and firmly priced up to $1.75 crate.

Bananas continue mostly at a nickel for best.

There was profit taking and selling on the rise but the market absorbed sales easily and finished with good gains. WOOL MARKET

BOSTON, April 13.—(U.P)—Current trading in wool is rather quiet with quotations showing no material change. An undertone of firmness appears to be based on reports of a fairly steady movement of wool into consumption. The receipts of domestic wool at Boston during the week ending April 11, amounted to 1,126,500 lbs., as compared with 2,178,800 lbs., during the previous week.

LITTLE OF EARLY ASPARAGUS SAID COMING IN NOW

Local markets were all unchanged in prices Monday.

Livestock dealers look for a change on hogs, Tuesday.

The first of the local-grown asparagus is expected to be coming in the latter part of the week or by the first of next week. A few bunches were reported bought by some stores the past week-end. It was quoted at 12 cents a pound. Quality was not of the best however, accounting for the low prices. When the season is on, prices are expected to be from 15 to 20 cents a pound, buying price, on best quality. Plentiful supplies of California asparagus however, are crowding in on the local with result there may be some effect on prices of the latter.

The local rhubarb is flooding the market now, alth..gh prices continue around 2½ and 3 cents.

Following were the prices for the day:
