By knocking Idaho twice and defeating Washington State Wednesday the University of Oregon baseball team put itself in a position to either tie or win the Pacific Coast conference baseball crown.

The chance is not great, however. Oregon's hopes are dependent on the work of the league leading Washington Huskies, who need only three games out of their remaining six to cop the championship. Oregon must also win her three remaining games.

Huskies Play O. S. C.
Washington meets Oregon State Thursday and Friday in the Huskies' final home series. Oregon State has the same outside chance Oregon has to make history and will be fighting to take advantage. Chances are good that Washington will not get more than one game from the Beavers, and they will have to show plenty to get that.

The champions play Idaho and Washington State two games each next week to wind up the season. If Washington should only find two victories this week and on the trip, and Oregon wins all her games, Oregon and Washington would be tied for the conference leaders with 10 victories and six defeats.

Oregon Strong
Oregon has showed plenty of strength on the northern invasion. The Webfoots divided a series with Washington, took two straight from Idaho's Vandals and Wednesday took Washington State into camp.

Oregon plays the Cougars again Thursday on the last game of the tour. Then lie ahead the last two games of the season, those with Oregon State. The teams will play in Eugene May 29 and at Corvallis Decoration Day.

With Oregon going in full swing now, as shown by the results of its last five games, the chances of beating the Cougars again are good.

Last American Out Of British Amateur Play

WESTWARD HO. Devon England, May 21.—(AP)—Syd Roper, young insurance clerk who eliminated George Voigt, last American hope, in the fifth round of the British Amateur, was defeated today in the quarter-finals by Johnny DeForest, young English millionaire who learned his golf in America.

DeForest's margin was two up and one to play and retired in part as a vindication of American golf.

He spent most of last winter in the United States taking lessons from the leading professionals, including Horton Smith, and picking up all the tricks he could from American amateurs.

William Tulloch, Glasgow business man, eliminated John Morrison, former Cambridge all-around athlete, three and one. Dr. John MacCormack, Dublin physician, defeated Capt. H. C. C. Tippett, conquered by Cyril Tolley, two and one. Eric Smith, of Cambridge university, eliminated Peter Miller, two and one.

With all the better known golfers out, the galleries shrank to only a fraction of their former size.

OREGON SLUGGERS BEAT W. S. C., 10-7

PULLMAN, Wash., May 21.—(AP)—The University of Oregon went wild in the third inning and played errorless baseball throughout to defeat Washington State college, 10 to 7, in a Pacific coast conference game yesterday.

Trailing 3 to 0, Oregon upset the works in the third inning. Five hits were bunched by Oregon. A Cougar muffed another bingle that could have been the sixth hit, and Ficens, Washington pitcher, walked one batsman and hit another. All told Oregon made six runs.

Chester, Oregon first baseman, hit a home run in the fifth with the bases empty, and Mitchell, Cougar catcher, hit another homer in the eighth, scoring one man ahead of him.

OREGON TRACKMEN WORKING HARD FOR MEET WITH O. S. C.

Despite Oregon State apparent superiority today, Bill Hayward, Oregon's veteran track coach, expects his athletes to rise to great heights Saturday, when the schools meet here, and predicts a close race.

Oregon, Hayward admitted, has more potentialities than his showing against Washington last week would indicate. What Oregon needs is hard work, and they are getting it this week.

O. S. C. Has Sprinters
Oregon State showed much strength in the sprints against Washington State Saturday. Elie, the Orange sophomore, turned in some remarkable time in the 220-yard dash, which was covered in 21.9 seconds. His 10 flat in the century also assured him a first place. Schreiber and Starr have both been clocked at 10.1 this season in the 100 and Starr has covered the 220 in 22, while Bala has been just one-fifth of a second slower.

These Webfoot sprinters may make the going tough for Elie, although the Orangeman is favored to take both events. If Hayward's lads can get a second and third in each, the Webfoots' outlook will not be so dim.

440 To Be Good
Dolloff of Oregon and Kirk of Oregon State should put on a great race in the quarter-mile. Dolloff has picked up speed in practice, and may upset the Orange quarter-miler.

Moran, Oregon's premier half-miler, and Johnston, Oregon State's best, are expected to put on a thrilling race. The best time for each this season has been 1:57.
Captain Ralph Hill is practically a cinch to take the mile race. Mullens of Oregon State may press him, but the Webfoot mile champion is expected to come first with a good many yards to spare.

Five Colleges to Hold Track Meet

SALEM, Ore., May 21.—(AP)—Willamette track team today was ready for the five-way meet at Forest Grove Saturday, with Pacific, Linfield, Fugate Sound, and Albany as the other teams competing.

Coach Les Sparks believed his Willamette team would win the half mile, two mile, pole vault and possibly the mile events.

HIGHCLIMBER looks 'em over

By ROY CRAFT

On Thursday, the United States Davis cup team was to tee off in Montreal against the Canadian tennis ace in a tournament that will decide whether or not the Americans will compete with Argentina for the right to represent North and South America in the Davis Cup matches in Europe this summer. The hope of the United States rests on the shoulders of three minor children and a hearty old gentleman of 23, and it is up to these kids to keep this country in the running.

The youthful Davis cup team is made up of Francis X. Shields, 20; Sidney B. Wood, Jr., 20; Cliff Sutter, 20, and Gregory Mangin, 23. In national ranking, Shields is No. 2; Wood, No. 4; Sutter, No. 5 and Mangin, No. 6. The average age of the team is 20.3-4 years. The eyes of Eugene, of course, will be on young Wood, for he attended the University of Oregon here last fall and managed to get acquainted with a lot of people during his brief stay. As a boy his health was bad, and even yet his appearance is fragile, slender and delicate, but he is regarded as one of the master strategists of the game.

Most of his play has been on grass courts, but he has been adapting his play swiftly to clay court competition, which is a Davis Cup standard. Last year, Wood amazed the tennis world when he stopped Ellsworth Vines in the final of Seabright after the Pasadena prodigy had blazed his way in sensational fashion through a field that included Hunter and Shields. This was the making of Wood, while at Oregon, he practiced with Stan Alquist on the University courts and on the fast hardwood floor in McArthur court. He gave several exhibitions here.

After Canada, come the Argentines. They will arrive in Washington May 25 and practice for three days in the Chevy Chase courts before trying to the young Americans in the American interzone finals May 28, 29 and 30. This is assuming, of course, that the game from the United States team Canada this week. The winner of the final round matches will sail for Europe early next month to meet the winner of the European zone final, July 17, 18 and 19. The challenge round against France will be held in London.

ST. LOUIS LEADING LEAGUE ALTHOUGH HALF GAME BEHIND

By GAYLE TALBOT, Jr. (Associated Press Sports Writer)

The New York Giants had a just complaint today against the compiler of baseball's handy reference book.

The volume in question is a complete, paper-backed affair that tells you at a glance what club is leading the race. Up to yesterday afternoon they figured on the face of things, to be just a half-game behind the St. Louis Cardinals.

That put the McGraw clan out in front and pulled the Cards from the first time this season. That is, it did until the ready reckoner was consulted. It shows that the league game behind, actual still are leading the league by four percentage points today. Hence the Giants' chagrin.

Although they fell short of their goal, the McGraws gained solace in the brilliant pitching of John Beric, recruit from Rochester, who set Cincinnati down with five scattered hits and cinched himself a place as a starting pitcher. Bill Terry's homers with two on was the big noise in the Giants' arsenal.

The Cards went down fighting. They rallied in the seventh and ninth innings to tie the count at 4-4, only to see their efforts wasted when the Babe Herman's single scored Fresno Thompson, who had walked, with the deciding run.

Arlett Gets Homers
Buzz Arlett, luskly recruit from the coast, poled his eighth and ninth homers of the year as the Phillies came from behind in the late innings to take the second straight from Pittsburgh, 11 to 7. A four-run rally off Willoughby in the eighth decided the issue.

Four runs in the first inning off Frankhouse and McAfee gave the Chicago Cubs a lead that was never overcome as they squared their series at Boston, 7 to 5. Gabby Hartnett hit a homer, double and two singles to lead the winners' record.

Not to be outdone by his side partner, George Earnshaw, who shut out Detroit with two hits the previous day, Lefty Grove allowed only three blows and gave the Tigers another blowy winning streak to 12. Homers by Fox and Miller accounted for two of the winners' runs off Uble.

The Washington Senators made only three hits off Pat Carnay, but turned them into a 2 to 0 victory over the Chicago White Sox. Spencer's homer accounted for one score and a two-run homer by Reynolds made possible the other. Sad Sam Jones held the Six to six hits and was credited with his fourth victory.

Uble's homer's two homers did not prevent the Boston Red Sox losing an 8 to 4 decision to the St. Louis Browns. It marked the Browns' eighth win of the year and was the fourth credited to Walter Stewart.

Beavers Tounce Idaho Tossers, 17-1
MOSCOW, Idaho, May 21.—(AP)—Coach Rich Fox found a new Idaho lineup and used it, but Oregon State college won, 17 to 1, in their Pacific coast conference baseball game yesterday.

From the start the Beavers jumped all over Idaho's pitchers all four of them. In the first Oregon State scored five runs and duplicated this performance in the third. Sixteen hits, including home runs by Grayson, second base, and Blanton, third base, were counted off the quartet of hurlers. Idaho made eight errors. Idaho's lone run came in the second inning when Corkery, outfielder, singled and came in on Wick's sing.

TICKETS SELL FAST FOR FRIDAY MATCH

The advance ticket sale as reported to Herb Owen, matchmaker for the Eugene wrestling fans, indicates that the fans are "steamed up" over the forthcoming double main event. The Eugene armory Friday evening.

Wildcat Pete is to meet John Kallis, sensational Greek protégé of Jim Londos, in one of the two main events, and Hassan, a Singh, Hindu, will meet Brantano, southern Oregon flash, in another of the events.

Owen says that the ticket sale has been unusually good for the first three days this week, partly due to the fact that so many good boys are signed for one card, and partly due to the fact that the Pete-Kallis match is a continuation of a rather brutal affair which started in Salem last week and ended with Pete, the surfer-boarder, and Kallis going out of the ring together on their heads.

Singh, the Hindu, is said to be one of the most colorful figures in the ring. He comes from Calcutta, India, and says he has ambitions of taking Jagul Joe's place in the minds of Eugene wrestling fans. Singh claims to be a clean wrestler but says he has plenty of stuff to show here, and he is matched up with Brantano, who gave Henry Jones such a merry ride in Medford a few months ago, will force him to unload a whole bag full of tricks to stay out ahead.

Friday evening will see one of the first double-main event cards in months. The grapplers will knock Friday which will go on first for a one-hour limit go, and which will wrestle the two-hour limit final match.
