

HARRISBURG WOMAN HONORED BY LODGE

HARRISBURG, May 23.—(Special)—Miss Florence Veach was given the decoration of chivalry at the Corvallis grand lodge convention last week.

The junior-senior banquet was held Wednesday night at the Blue Bell restaurant. A program of speeches and songs made the affair an interesting one. Thomas, the master of ceremonies, presided over the program.

The tennis court has been finished and is in great demand by the younger people. It was promoted by the P.T.A. and the high school and numerous individuals.

Farmers are still seeding land to spring grain, hoping that late rains will bring it in and make a crop. All crops need rain.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Butler of Medford were guests of Miss Marie Porter Sunday and Monday, on their way to Portland.

Mrs. Elmer Lawrence of Portland visited this week with her mother, Mrs. L. Dickerson.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gray of Portland were visiting Sunday with Mrs. Gray's sister here, Mrs. A. C. Sperling, and Mr. Sperling.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Beckett, Mrs. Emma Beckett, and Mrs. Lela Kimes of Salem were guests at the Lewis Skirvin home Sunday.

Mr. Frank Lynch and daughter Frankie may spend a few days with relatives in Portland recently.

Mrs. Vernon Roberts has returned to Shedd, after a visit here with Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Lewis.

Marcola Locals

MARCOLA, May 23.—(Special)—A birthday dinner was given for Raymond Murdoch Tuesday, May 19, in honor of his twelfth birthday anniversary. Those present were: Mrs. George Murdoch, Mrs. H. E. Boggs, Mr. and Mrs. Viola and Teddy, Mrs. Walter Polley and children, Clyde, Leonard and Louis, and Mrs. Murdoch and children, Tommy, Bobby and Raymond.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Thrope are the proud parents of a baby boy born Monday, May 18, at the Pacific Christian hospital at Eugene.

Mrs. Marie Stockwenger and son, Orville, of Dallas, Tex., Boggs of Harrisburg, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lott and daughter, Mildred, of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Whitall and daughter, Marjorie, of Eugene, and Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Boggs of Wendling camp three visited at the E. E. Boggs home here Sunday.

Henry Schwend and R. L. Garrison attended the Odd Fellows grand lodge at Corvallis this week.

Albino Schindler of Eugene visited in Marcola Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Dempsey of Dexter visited at the Frank Healy home here Sunday.

Miss Helen Hansen of Cottage Grove visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Scott, Thursday.

Miss Eleanor Workman who has been teaching school at La Pine, has returned to her home here for the summer. She will teach at La Pine again next fall.

Mrs. Charles Churchill is suffering from a bad case of poison oak.

Mr. Butler of Eugene has opened a barber shop in Marcola.

Mrs. Maude McBride of Vaughn visited with Mrs. Earnest Mabe here Friday.

Mrs. Jim Martin returned home this week from the Pacific Christian hospital.

Mr. John Pollak arrived here this week from Greece to make her home with her husband.

Miss Frances Price was in Portland on business Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ora Dunn and family and Mr. and Mrs. George Eastham and family attended the circus at Eugene Wednesday.

The Methodist Ladies Aid met on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Esther Butler with Mrs. Grace Bonney as joint hostess. The afternoon devotion was singing and looking at home views from Italy which Mrs. Conartha brought. Light refreshments were served. Those attending were: Mrs. Viola Boyle, Mrs. L. M. Cowling, Mrs. Mary Conartha, Mrs. Anna Shunk, Miss Ella Shunk, Grandmother Roberts, Mrs. Myrtle Wright, and hostesses, Mrs. Bonney and Mrs. Butler.

At Junction City

JUNCTION CITY, May 23.—(Special)—Lucile Johns, a former Junction City high student now of Salem, spent the week-end in Junction City attending graduation exercises.

Mrs. Morton Nelson was hostess on Wednesday afternoon to the Birthday club, the occasion being her birthday. The guests left Mrs. Nelson several remembrances of the day. Those present were: Mesdames A. Rasmussen, F. Phillips, L. Mallory, R. Speer, C. Nelson, C. Peterson, Mary Nelson and Mrs. Morton Nelson.

Little Phyllis Rock was six years old on Tuesday and a number of her friends were invited to help her celebrate the auspicious occasion. A birthday time was had by the little fete and "Grandma" Phillips served delightful refreshments. Those present were: Beverly and Billy Lynch, Julia Ann Shields, Gerald Rasmussen, Betty Jean Shuck, June Rogers, Rose Marion and Mary Carolyn Gibson, Jo Ann Lehman, Beverly and Barbara Miller, Margaret Alice Bean and Janice Lee Hansen and the honor guest, Phyllis Rock.

Edward F. Bailey of Eugene was in town Thursday attending the Paeschke funeral and meeting his many friends about town.

Mrs. Bert Thornton of Marshfield has been spending a few days visiting at the C. T. Thornton home.

Wilbur Reets and Wayne Reetz of Canby Valley spent a few days at the Alvin Reetz home this week.

Mrs. Dorothy McDuffie is training in the local telephone office for regular operator during vacation of the regular operators.

Harry Linder has been taken to the Pacific Christian hospital and is reported as being very low. His only child, Mrs. Dessie Breckenridge of Oakdale, Ore., has been sent for.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Rasmussen and small son left on Monday for points in California. They are taking a much-needed vacation and expect to be away about two weeks.

Mrs. Carl Bracher went to Portland Thursday to attend the funeral of J. D. Bracher, who passed away on Saturday evening but Carl Bracher remained over a few days to be with his mother and brothers.

Gillespie Corners

GILLESPIE CORNERS, May 23.—(Special)—Mrs. Art Kragenbrink and Mrs. N. W. Wainwright, who are a farewell party on Saturday, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter who are moving to the new house at Gillespie Corners has leased the

THE FOUR HORSEMEN LINE UP AGAIN!

The Four Horsemen of Notre Dame—Miller, Crowley, Stuhlrehrer and Layden—famous all-American backfield of 1924, came back in a huddle once again when Don Miller, one of the quartet, married Miss Mae Lynch at St. Mary's of the Woods College, near Terre Haute, Ind., the bride's home town. Miller is now an attorney in Cleveland. Shown in the wedding party are, left to right: Miss Evelyn McAdams, of Chicago; James Crowley, of Lansing, Mich.; Miss Genevieve Savole, of Kankakee; Elmer Layden, of Pittsburgh; Miss Mary Ronan, of Chicago; Hurry Stuhlrehrer, of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. Don Miller, and Jerry Miller of Cleveland.

At Pleasant Hill

PLEASANT HILL, May 23.—(Special)—Mr. and Mrs. Rosa Mathews and son Albert accompanied by their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Weiss and daughter Bonnie Jeanne of Thurston, motored to Portland early Sunday morning to spend the day visiting with Miss Josephine Mathews and Austin Mathews, wife and family. They returned late Sunday evening.

The funeral service for the infant baby of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Mathews of Pleasant Hill was held in the cemetery here on Thursday. Mrs. Mathews was formerly Miss Elsie Smith.

Miss Cora John, teacher of the Scottsburg school, is here spending the week-end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. John.

Members of the Junior class at the Pleasant Hill high school will entertain the members of the senior class with their annual picnic at Newport this year. They leave here on Friday, May 22 and return Sunday. They plan to sleep in their tents and cook on a bonfire. Mr. and Mrs. Kilpatrick will accompany them.

Mrs. Ida Caldwell returned to her home in Eugene after having spent nearly four weeks here visiting with her sister, Mrs. W. H. Chapin.

There was a large crowd out to hear the lecture given by the Rev. I. G. Shaw, pastor of the Christian church of Cottage Grove, Mr. Shaw visited with his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Malpas, John Malpas has been very ill for some time.

Will Malpas of Michigan is visiting his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Malpas, John Malpas has been very ill for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Fletcher of Marshfield, Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher and Mrs. Alice Fletcher of Bend were visitors at the home of Mrs. Nora Castle last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Herrick of Holley, Oregon, visited with Mrs. Frances Morse, Thursday. Mrs. Derrick and Mrs. Morse are sisters.

Miss Lela Hancock and Howard Hancock of Portland spent last Sunday at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hancock.

N. C. Purkerson is seriously ill at his home here in Coburg.

Dallas left sometime ago for Washington where he is employed in driving a truck.

Reverend Workman of Marcola, who preached at the Christian church last Sunday, was a Sunday dinner guest at the home of Rev. and Mrs. N. M. Shrode.

Mrs. M. G. Pettis and two daughters, Patricia Ann and Marjorie Jean, of Portland, visited at the home of Rev. and Mrs. N. M. Shrode last Sunday.

Miss Neta Wirak of Forest Grove has been a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Adair and at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hurd. Mr. Wirak formerly taught in the local high school.

Miss Edna Drury, who underwent major operation for appendicitis at the Eugene hospital last Sunday morning, is reported to be getting along nicely.

Ed Feeder attended grand lodge at Corvallis last week.

Ed Pitkin has just added a bathroom to his house in east Coburg. He is also painting the house.

At Central

CENTRAL, May 23.—(Special)—Mr. and Mrs. Dan Shaw, and Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Wainwright, who are guests on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Warren.

Mrs. Hattie Vanocick and daughter, Mrs. May of Portland, visited at the Lester Thomas home Tuesday.

Mrs. and Mrs. Maurice LaChance, Miss Bernice Phelps and Ernest Phelps called on Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Buehl on River Road Sunday.

Miss Bernice Phelps, who recently returned from Klamath Falls for a visit at the home of her parents, was in town Thursday attending the Paeschke funeral and meeting his many friends about town.

Mrs. Bert Thornton of Marshfield has been spending a few days visiting at the C. T. Thornton home.

Wilbur Reets and Wayne Reetz of Canby Valley spent a few days at the Alvin Reetz home this week.

Mrs. Dorothy McDuffie is training in the local telephone office for regular operator during vacation of the regular operators.

Harry Linder has been taken to the Pacific Christian hospital and is reported as being very low. His only child, Mrs. Dessie Breckenridge of Oakdale, Ore., has been sent for.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Rasmussen and small son left on Monday for points in California. They are taking a much-needed vacation and expect to be away about two weeks.

Mrs. Carl Bracher went to Portland Thursday to attend the funeral of J. D. Bracher, who passed away on Saturday evening but Carl Bracher remained over a few days to be with his mother and brothers.

Gillespie Corners, May 23.—(Special)—Mrs. Art Kragenbrink and Mrs. N. W. Wainwright, who are a farewell party on Saturday, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter who are moving to the new house at Gillespie Corners has leased the

Gillespie Corners, May 23.—(Special)—Mrs. Art Kragenbrink and Mrs. N. W. Wainwright, who are a farewell party on Saturday, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter who are moving to the new house at Gillespie Corners has leased the

Gillespie Corners, May 23.—(Special)—Mrs. Art Kragenbrink and Mrs. N. W. Wainwright, who are a farewell party on Saturday, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter who are moving to the new house at Gillespie Corners has leased the

Gillespie Corners, May 23.—(Special)—Mrs. Art Kragenbrink and Mrs. N. W. Wainwright, who are a farewell party on Saturday, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter who are moving to the new house at Gillespie Corners has leased the

At Pleasant Hill

PLEASANT HILL, May 23.—(Special)—Mr. and Mrs. Rosa Mathews and son Albert accompanied by their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Weiss and daughter Bonnie Jeanne of Thurston, motored to Portland early Sunday morning to spend the day visiting with Miss Josephine Mathews and Austin Mathews, wife and family. They returned late Sunday evening.

The funeral service for the infant baby of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Mathews of Pleasant Hill was held in the cemetery here on Thursday. Mrs. Mathews was formerly Miss Elsie Smith.

Miss Cora John, teacher of the Scottsburg school, is here spending the week-end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. John.

Members of the Junior class at the Pleasant Hill high school will entertain the members of the senior class with their annual picnic at Newport this year. They leave here on Friday, May 22 and return Sunday. They plan to sleep in their tents and cook on a bonfire. Mr. and Mrs. Kilpatrick will accompany them.

Mrs. Ida Caldwell returned to her home in Eugene after having spent nearly four weeks here visiting with her sister, Mrs. W. H. Chapin.

There was a large crowd out to hear the lecture given by the Rev. I. G. Shaw, pastor of the Christian church of Cottage Grove, Mr. Shaw visited with his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Malpas, John Malpas has been very ill for some time.

Will Malpas of Michigan is visiting his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Malpas, John Malpas has been very ill for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Fletcher of Marshfield, Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher and Mrs. Alice Fletcher of Bend were visitors at the home of Mrs. Nora Castle last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Herrick of Holley, Oregon, visited with Mrs. Frances Morse, Thursday. Mrs. Derrick and Mrs. Morse are sisters.

Miss Lela Hancock and Howard Hancock of Portland spent last Sunday at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hancock.

N. C. Purkerson is seriously ill at his home here in Coburg.

Dallas left sometime ago for Washington where he is employed in driving a truck.

Reverend Workman of Marcola, who preached at the Christian church last Sunday, was a Sunday dinner guest at the home of Rev. and Mrs. N. M. Shrode.

Mrs. M. G. Pettis and two daughters, Patricia Ann and Marjorie Jean, of Portland, visited at the home of Rev. and Mrs. N. M. Shrode last Sunday.

Miss Neta Wirak of Forest Grove has been a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Adair and at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hurd. Mr. Wirak formerly taught in the local high school.

Miss Edna Drury, who underwent major operation for appendicitis at the Eugene hospital last Sunday morning, is reported to be getting along nicely.

Ed Feeder attended grand lodge at Corvallis last week.

Ed Pitkin has just added a bathroom to his house in east Coburg. He is also painting the house.

At Deadwood

DEADWOOD, May 23.—(Special)—The picnic that Miss Leading gave at Central was a success, it was well attended and enjoyed by all. It finished a very successful term of school. Miss Leading has taught in this district two years and will teach the next term for them.

Miss Edna Summers fell Saturday at the school picnic while running and sprained her back and arm. She suffered a great deal but they report her much improved.

Mrs. Louise Ross of Cottage Grove called on friends and relatives Tuesday afternoon. She has been camped with her husband at Yachats the past two weeks.

Mrs. W. C. Brooks accompanied her husband to his work at Yachats Sunday and expects to spend the week there.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Phelps and son, Austin Powell, spent the week-end at Yachats.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Moss and family of Yachats have recently moved to the old Fraser homestead.

Mrs. O. J. Mitchell came home Sunday with Mr. Mitchell's people who had gone to Corvallis to visit their son in the hospital.

Miss Leading's people of Portland came for her Sunday and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Taylor and family.

Mrs. A. F. Mitchell's uncle, Arthur Boddy, is spending a few days visiting with the family.

Mrs. Rose Calvert left Monday evening for Corvallis where she will attend grand lodge.

Florence News

FLORENCE, May 23.—(Special)—Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Stanford came in Wednesday from Eugene for a week at the home of their son, George, who with his wife recently acquired the Munsell lake resort and its management.

Mrs. J. W. Farr and baby daughter, Margaret Ann, accompanied her brothers, Victor and Dr. J. L. Lynch, to Salem for a week's visit at their home. The Lynchs had been visiting here since Sunday.

W. S. Vallier has arrived from California to spend the summer with his brother, Thomas, of Black House. Mr. Vallier is accompanied by his wife, Mrs. D. Peters, of Petaluma, and his sons, Dr. and Mrs. Vernon Vallier, of San Francisco, both California cities, accompanied by W. S. Vallier, returning the following week.

Visitors from Springfield over the week-end at the various resorts here

down with the measles.

down with the measles.

down with the measles.

Veneta Locals

VENETA, May 23.—(Special)—Mrs. Archie Matlock and Mrs. Jack Reichle spent the day in Salem visiting Mrs. Matlock's father and Mrs. Reichle's mother.

Mrs. Lyons and baby daughter are reported to be doing nicely.

Mrs. Hazel Nelson is improving rapidly after quite a serious throat trouble.

Ellis Henderson was a visitor over the week-end in Veneta.

Dexter Boise of Salem is here visiting his sister, Mrs. Jack Reichle.

Mrs. J. J. Shaw and children, Bord, Jessie and Billy, spent Sunday at Notch visiting Mrs. Allen's daughter, Mrs. E. B. Smith and Mrs. C. E. Richardson. They attended church in the forenoon and the baptismal services in the afternoon.

Mrs. Leslie Ball has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Lola Bodker, of Summit, Monday. Bodker has been quite ill in bed.

Several Veneta people attended the P.T.A. meeting at Notch Thursday evening. They enjoyed the program immensely. Lunch was sold after wards for the benefit of the Notch Bible school.

James Alley has been in Cloverdale the past week on business.

Mrs. William Madala is home again after quite a long stay in Eugene where she has been taking care of her step-mother who just passed away.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Hannan and daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Alley, have just returned from Buxton where they attended a family reunion at Hannan's mother's home. There was about twenty-five present.

Mrs. A. M. Matlock and Mrs. R. E. Stevenson and daughter, Maxine, spent Saturday in Portland.

Mrs. Harold Spangler and children, Robert and Dolores, spent Mother's day in Toledo with Harold Spangler.

A number of Veneta people spent Mother's day at Cushman with William Smith, a former Veneta citizen.

Among them were his wife and children, Mrs. William Smith and Stanley and Clayton, Mrs. and Mrs. Hazelton and children, Doris and Bobby, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Smith and nephew, Johnny, Edward Stevens and Eileen Matlock.

Little Leola Jean Taylor is improving rapidly after her accident. She was injured when she fell from a moving car Sunday and Monday was gone at a rate of about thirty-five miles per hour. The accident happened in the Central district. Leola was rushed to a hospital quickly after the accident.

At Cottage Grove

COTTAGE GROVE, May 23.—(Special)—Bert Cline came down Thursday from Bohemia with word that all the snow which fell in Bohemia Sunday and Monday was gone.

F. E. Mendenhall and others of the chamber of commerce went to Delight Valley Friday morning to examine the alfalfa fields, beginning with the C. L. Mendenhall place.

C. L. Mendenhall was brought home from the Pacific Christian hospital Thursday, where he underwent an operation recently for appendicitis.

Leola, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Willis of Cottage Grove, is now in business in Klamath Falls.

Hall and Johnson sold the W. A. Spaulding ranch, six miles west of Cottage Grove on Silk creek containing 56 acres to Gerald B. Miller of southern California. The Miller family will take possession of the premises Sunday.

Mr. Spaulding will again locate near Yoncalla.

Past Noble Grand club of the Rebekahs gave a surprise party Friday afternoon for Mrs. Sam Ferguson, who will leave next week for Idaho, at the Ferguson home on Washington avenue and Eighth street.

A handbag was given Mrs. Ferguson who has been a resident of Cottage Grove for several years and who has made many friends while here.

Mrs. O. Kuntz and Mrs. Florence Mills, who recently came to Cottage Grove from Tennessee, celebrated their birthdays at the home of Mrs. Night with a fine chicken dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Whitlock entertained at dinner Thursday night for Mr. and Mrs. Glen Owens, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Hawkins, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Murphy, dean of the Bible school, preaching.

The Community Liberal

Eleventh and Ferry, Ernest M. Whittemith, minister, church school, 10:15. Address to adult division at 10:30.

At Yoncalla

YONCALLA, May 23.—(Special)—Worth Woolman underwent an operation on his eye at Eugene this week.

Mrs. Alice Palmer and daughter, Alice Palmer, left Tuesday morning for eastern Oregon where they will spend the summer.

Mrs. Benj. Huntington, Sr., is quite ill. Mrs. McCurtain is taking care of her.

Among those attending the circus at Roseburg Tuesday were, Mesdames and Messrs. F. E. Merk, H. L. Stone.

Miss Mary Allen came up from Portland Friday to attend the funeral of Mrs. E. W. Zupka.

Many of the former students of Walker high school came Wednesday to join the annual "fox and hound" chase. They enjoyed a picnic at the Hohman place in Delight Valley and a dance in the gym in the evening.

Reverend Wackerbarth and wife from Florence were here conducting Sunday morning services. They returned to Florence Tuesday afternoon to prepare to deliver the baccalaureate sermon there that evening. Rev. Strange supplied the pulpit here at night.

A new concrete bridge is being built across the creek back of the I. O. O. F. building.

Mr. McEloughlin has returned from Portland and is again "at the wheel" on the Mapleton-Eugene bus.

Mrs. Louis and Mrs. Orla Rice left Tuesday for Corvallis. They were appointed as delegates from Mapleton lodge to attend the Rebekah assembly now in session there. George Johnson was the delegate from the Mapleton I. O. O. F. lodge to attend the Grand Lodge.

The grand lecture conference for western lands was held at Cushman Tuesday, May 21. The session lasted from 10:30 in the morning until 4 in the afternoon. There was a good representation present and a most enjoyable and profitable time was spent for everyone did justice to the good basket dinner.

Mrs. Hollenback, who has lived here for many years, was married Monday to Mr. Good. Her friends desired Thursday night that such an important event justified a musical demonstration.

Deerhorn News

DEERHORN, May 23.—(Special)—Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Rauch are in Portland visiting their sons and family and also taking the opportunity to visit the sanitarium. Mr. Rauch had a bad fall a few weeks ago causing a broken finger and a shaking up.

Mrs. William Hanks fell and is nursing a badly sprained ankle from the effects of it for two weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Hanks went to Fall Creek Sunday.

Visitors from Springfield over the week-end at the various resorts here

down with the measles.

down with the measles.

down with the measles.

down with the measles.

At The Churches Sunday

Special Meeting of Patriotic Orders in Memorial Days Theme Services at First Christian Church. Interesting Topics at All Churches. Communities Have Good Services

First Baptist

Morning worship at 11 o'clock. Sermon by the pastor, "Good Roads and Detours." Special music will include an anthem, "Lift Up Your Heads," and a cantata solo, "The Blind Pilgrimage" (Lurie), sung by Miss Minnie Barton. Evening worship at 7:30 opening with an organ recital played by Miss Daisy Belle Barker. The quartet will sing "This So Sweet to Trust in Jesus." The pastor will preach on the subject, "David's Old Oak Tree." Preliminary topic, "What Is the Distinction Between Sabbath, Sunday and the Lord's Day?"

First Christian

S. Earl Childers, pastor. Bible school, 9:45. Morning service, 11 o'clock; subject, "Let Us Forget." Members of the G. A. R., Women's Relief Corps, D. A. R., of U. Veterans, Spanish War veterans, and other patriotic orders will attend in a body. Christian Endeavor 6:15. Evening service, 7:30 o'clock. Reading, "The Day of Pentecost." Wilbur Goff, talks, "The Meaning of Pentecost." Prof. V. E. Hoven, sermon, "A Day of Beginnings," the pastor.

Fairmount Presbyterian

Fifteenth and Villard. Rev. Ralph E. Clark, pastor. Morning service, 11 o'clock; subject, "The Days of Old." A sermon for Memorial day. Special music by the young people's choir under direction of Victor Bryant. Evening service, 8 o'clock. Baccalaureate service for the high school graduating class, Rev. Clark preaching. Sunday school, 9:45 a. m. D. B. Thompson, superintendent. Young people's meetings, Junior C. E. at 6, Senior C. E. at 7.