

230 CHILDREN ARE ENROLLED IN BIBLE SCHOOL FIRST DAY

Registration on the first day in the vacation Bible school sponsored by the Council of Religious Education was 230. It was announced Monday noon by Miss Dorothy Nisland, director of the school, after the first forenoon session.

The registration by departments follows: Kindergarten, 34; primary, 65; junior, 70; junior high, 53; and senior high, 12. The attendance the first day was very encouraging, Miss Nisland said, and it is expected that more will enroll later.

Miss Nisland is assisted by a corps of experienced teachers in the various departments, each handling one of the groups, and besides there are additional workers to handle various other details of the work.

Mrs. Casper Wood, who has been at the head of the daily vacation Bible school in the public schools for a number of years past, has charge of the stories department, Miss Clara Beitel directs the primary and junior worship section, Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Adams the junior and senior high school worship, Mrs. J. D. Bryant, the drama department, Miss Frances Baker the playgroups, Mrs. Henry Howard the kindergarten department, Miss Delilian Olson the primary, Mrs. F. B. Travis the junior, Miss Betty Hughes the junior high, Bill Kidwell the senior high and Harry Wilson the manual training.

All classes of the Bible school are held in the First Baptist church building, various rooms being utilized for that purpose, and the Washington school playgrounds, only two blocks away are used for playground activities.

THEY'RE YOUNG VOYAGERS!

Charles N. and Wallace Bowles, above, brothers of Seattle, Wash., went all the way across the continent to New York, then sailed for Europe on the Mauretania. They're on the high seas now. The picture was snapped on board the big liner before she sailed.

FIREWORKS STOLEN BY TWO SMALL BOYS

Two small boys nine or ten years old, evidently planned to celebrate July 4 on an extensive scale but their plans went awry when their cache of stolen fireworks was discovered. Caswell's variety store at 56 West Broadway was entered some time Sunday and $15 worth of firecrackers and other pyrotechnics were stolen. Three knives were also taken.

Wilbur Cluer, who lives at 1168 Olive street, Sunday evening saw two boys enter a building on the rear end of the lot where he lives and going out to investigate, found the fireworks. He said he saw the boys and gave a description of them but did not know their names. The police were notified and the stolen goods were recovered.

The store probably was entered about 5 o'clock Sunday evening as it was at that time that a resident of one of the apartments above the place heard the noise of breaking glass. The thieves entered the store by breaking a rear window.

Mrs. E. S. Collins, Springfield, Dies

Mrs. Julia H. Collins, resident of the Springfield district since 1890, died at her home there Sunday.

Mrs. Collins was born in Illinois in 1848, and came to Oregon in 1880. She was a member of the Baptist church of Springfield.

Survivors include her husband, E. S. Collins; two sons, Edgar W. Collins, Springfield, and H. Frank Collins, Los Angeles; one sister, Laura Young, of Illinois; and six grandchildren.

Pair Arrested for Possession of Beer

Wayne E. Harbut and Francis Witham of Blachly were arrested Saturday night by deputy sheriffs at a highway dance hall on a charge of possession of beer.

The pair was released Sunday with a $500 bond.

The total net income in 1930 of 1397 American corporations was $2,398,000,000, or 24 per cent less than in 1929.

SPRINGFIELD BANK STORY of the liquidation. Others there Monday were Mr. Schramm, Mr. Vogel and Sidney Kromer, of the Salem office.

Doors Closed

They could not estimate how long it would be before the work would be completed. Mr. Schramm posted a notice at the door of the bank Monday, stating that in order to push the program as rapidly as possible the doors would remain closed for several days. Mr. Schramm indicated he would have further statement to make within a day or two.

The Commercial State bank of Springfield was organized on October 11, 1911, by O. B. Kessey and C. E. Harrison. A. J. Perkins was first president, and Mr. Kessey served as president later, continuing in office until his death in September, 1925. Mr. Stevens then became president, and Mr. Egginan is now vice-president. It was about two years after Mr. Kessey's death that the bank, coming from Idaho, he was cashier as well as director.

The Commercial State bank was capitalized for $300,000, and on March 4, 1925, had deposits totaling $1,224,000 and total assets at $1,095,561. A later report on deposits and assets was to be prepared by the state banking department.

People Stunned

The people of Springfield were stunned by the turn in the affairs of the bank, which had been regarded as a sound institution, and the shock of the death of Mr. Kenyon added to the disturbance of mind which prevailed in the town.

Mr. Kenyon, it was understood, told his wife he was going to take a bath about 2:30 p. m. Sunday. After he had been in the bathroom an unusually long time, Mrs. Kenyon became alarmed and went to learn what was detaining him. She found him lying in the bathtub, his throat slashed and two deep gashes in his arms.

She immediately called for help, and neighbors rushed in. A Springfield physician was called, and after giving first aid had the banker moved to the Pacific Christian hospital. There a blood transfusion was given and Mr. Kenyon revived slightly. He was so badly weakened, however, that his condition grew worse and he died at 8:40 p. m.

Born in Kansas

Mr. Kenyon was born December 14, 1885, in Kansas. He came to Oregon when a youth of 19, and located first in Burns.

On June 2, 1897, Mr. Kenyon married Miss Margaret Luckey of Eugene, the marriage taking place in this city. They returned to Burns to make their home.

They lived in several cities later, and in 1927 came to Springfield from Weiser, Ida., where he became cashier of the Commercial State bank in the Lane county city.

Mr. Kenyon is survived by Mrs. Margaret Kenyon, one son, Charles E. Kenyon, Jr.; one brother, Sam Kenyon, Portland; one sister, Mrs. Emma Hall, Burns.

Mr. Kenyon was active in civic affairs at Springfield. He was vice-president of the Lions club, was a member of the Masonic lodge, and a patron of the Eastern Star. He was active in the Springfield chamber of commerce.

Funeral arrangements are in charge of the Walker-Pooler chapel in Springfield. They have not been completed, awaiting word from the son in New York.

mission declared, extra legal examinations were made of suspected persons unadvised as to their rights. A legal examination before a magistrate was proposed in order that prosecutions as well as suspects may have protection.

The Wickerman group recommended better provision for the selection and tenure of prosecutors in the states, and an organization of the legal profession in each state to insure competency, character, and discipline among those engaged in the criminal courts.

FUNERAL ANNOUNCED

The funeral of Mrs. Sarah H. Ellis will be held at the Brantner chapel Tuesday at 2:30 p. m. with interment in the new I. O. O. F. cemetery. Rev. Frances P. Leipzig will conduct the services.
