Forces This Big Wholesale House to the Wall

The depression which is general through the land has left its mark on one of Portland's leading wholesale houses. Many merchants who had bought heavily from this wholesale house were forced to the wall, inflicting heavy losses upon this establishment. They tried to weather the storm with no avail. All that was left to do was to assign their stock to the Adjustment Bureau, who in turn sold to the highest bidder and turned the proceeds to their Creditors.

"It's an ill wind that doesn't blow somebody some good," is an old truism verified in this great wholesale disaster. The Army and Navy Goods Stores buy the entire stock at their own price and fill their stores for this mighty sale. Men's Shoes, Furnishings, Blankets, Work and Dress Clothes of every description are now here for you at the lowest prices ever known. Past history unfolds no similar action in point of value giving, nor could it be done in this case were it not for this terrific failure of business involving thousands of dollars worth of wanted merchandise. The doors of this great sale open to the public Thursday, at 9:30 A. M. Be on hand and share in this Great Money Saving Opportunity!

This Great Selling Event Starts Thursday 9:30 A.M.
