

ELKS ELECT NEW OFFICERS; BANDS PLAY FOR TITLE

SEATTLE, July 8.—(Special)—Most of their business having been completed during grand lodge sessions yesterday, delegates attending the 67th national convention of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks faced a variety of entertainment today.

Although short business meetings were scheduled, most of the day was given over to play, starting with a breakfast in the civic auditorium and ending with dances, boxing contest, carnival celebration and illuminated boat parade.

Boat trips, automobile tours, inspection trips to the navy yard at Bremerton, band concerts and theater parties were on the program.

During the business session yesterday, the Elks elected John R. Coen of Sterling, Colo., grand exalted ruler, and chose Birmingham, Ala., as the site for their 1932 convention.

Leading tripartite teams of Elkdom staged a competitive exhibition and first honors were won by the Sacramento lodge No. 6, with San Francisco lodge No. 3 second, Huntington Park, Cal. lodge No. 1215 third, and Detroit lodge No. 34 fourth.

Los Angeles "90" band carried off all honors in class A in a contest for bands of 35 or more pieces, and the Everett, Wash. band won first in class B, with Medford, Ore., second.

Butte won first prize in a contest for drum and bugle corps, Vancouver, Wash., was second; Anacortes, Mont., third, and Rochester, N. Y., fourth.

The 67th convention will be concluded late tomorrow with a parade in which almost every state in the union will be represented.

Reserve Corps to Send Planes Here

A group of 10 or 12 planes from the reserve corps at Seattle will be in Eugene over Saturday night and Sunday, stopping at the local airport, according to Melton Sweet, chairman of the chamber of commerce aviation committee.

A bomber, a number of pursuit planes, and P. T. planes will be on the trip.

Springfield Group Opposes Rate Jump

SPRINGFIELD, July 8.—(Special)—The Springfield chamber of commerce endorsed the stand taken by C. M. Thomas, public utilities commissioner of Oregon, in opposing the proposed freight rate increase at the regular chamber meeting Tuesday night. A letter from Mr. Thomas explaining his position was read at the meeting.

The proposed site for the Soldiers' Home east of the city limits on the McKenna highway was explained by H. E. Maxey and blueprints of the site shown at the meeting.

Church Votes Not To Buy Parsonage

In special meeting Tuesday evening, members of the Congregational church voted not to buy a parsonage now.

Members expressed the feeling that it was better to save their money, looking to future developments for enlargement of the present church building. They thought it better to spend the money on the church, looking to the time when the Sunday school department and the auditorium would have to be enlarged.

Reddick Convicted In Morals Charge

Elmer Reddick, 33, was convicted by a circuit court jury Wednesday morning of a morals charge involving a 14-year-old girl.

Reddick will be sentenced Friday morning at 9:30 o'clock. The penalty for his offense is from 1 to 20 years in state's prison.

Chinese Professor To Speak Thursday

Dr. Kiang Kung-Hu, professor of Chinese studies at McGill university, Canada, and a member of the University of Oregon's summer session faculty, will speak on "Some Problems of a Modernized China" at the next all-campus assembly, to be held Thursday of this week in Villard hall at 11 o'clock. Townspeople are invited to attend.

Born of a Mandarin family, Dr. Kiang Kung-Hu later became a professor at the Peking Imperial university and the holder of a high Chinese degree through competitive examinations. He was also affiliated with the Nanjing government university.

PROSECUTOR MOVES HAYES' DISMISSAL

Robert Hayes was free Wednesday after he had been brought from Missouri to stand trial.

When Hayes' trial began, in circuit court his attorney, W. W. Harcombe, obtained a dismissal in circuit court when he pointed out that the case was in the jurisdiction of the justice rather than the circuit court, in view of the act the case was pending in justice court when Hayes jumped bond.

Hayes, however, had been indicted in circuit court in order to obtain his extradition from Missouri. When his case came up in justice court, the district attorney moved for a dismissal as complications would have arisen again because of the circuit court indictment. Hayes had been in jail 33 days in Missouri.

Hayes' bondsmen paid the expenses of returning him to Lane county from Missouri.

WASHINGTON MAN CHAMBER SPEAKER

A. C. Wilson, professor of political science in the University of Washington, will be the principal speaker at the meeting of the Lane county chamber of commerce Saturday at Heceta Beach. It was announced Wednesday.

His subject will be "Planning For the Economic Cycle." The program will start at 1:30 p. m.

Plans Ready For Recreational Fete

Plans are practically completed for the recreational festival to be held Monday night at the 4-H building at the fair grounds, according to Gertrude L. Skow, home demonstration agent.

The festival is sponsored by the Recreational and Dramatic association of the county. Each organization will present a playlet.

Mr. Steele Said To Be Improving

"Still improving" was the statement Wednesday afternoon from attending physicians regarding the condition of A. F. S. Steele, secretary of the Eugene chamber of commerce, who underwent a serious operation Monday. Mr. Steele spent a favorable night and he is improving slowly, it was said.

"Tiny" Page Buys Grocery Store Here

C. C. "Tiny" Page, for a number of years associated with Lang and company, Eugene, and later as secretary of the Eugene Growers' association, has purchased the grocery store at Thirteenth and Willamette streets and will operate the concern with meat and fruit and vegetable departments.

2 Small Lumber Mills to Operate

Two small Lane county mills will resume operations the first of next week, according to word received here. Shutting down of larger operations had a tendency to influence the small mills to start up, it is reported.

ELK CHAMP NAMED

SEATTLE, July 8.—(Special)—Jack S. Gaines of Glendale, Cal., today ranked as the champion Elk golfer after he had won a 54-hole tournament at the Ingelwood country club with a low medal score of 222. The tournament, conducted in connection with the 47th national Elk's convention, drew a big field of contestants. In the national Elk's trapshooting contest, Harry Quick of Chehalis won the championship by scoring 90, nosing out Frank Troch of Portland, who shot 88.

COITAGE GROVE EVENTS

COITAGE GROVE, July 8.—(Special)—Born Monday night, to Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Colner, a 6 1/2 pound son, L. W. Colner is the engineer of Cottage Grove. The child was born in the Pacific Christian hospital in Eugene.

HARRISBURG QUIET

HARRISBURG, July 8.—(Special)—Harrisburg residents spent the Fourth of July nearly everywhere except at home. Some of them went to Idylwood park, some to Cascade, and a large number to Newport and Yachats. The day was quiet here, with no accidents and no fire alarms. Even the firecracker was absent.

CROPS NOT GOOD

HARRISBURG, July 8.—(Special)—Crop conditions here are not encouraging as harvest approaches, although some fields are up to the average. The early rains will be short and both the red spider and the mildew are to be seen in some of the fields. The June rains aided the spring grain but sowed much loss. Binders are at work now on the winter grain.

NEW MACHINE MADE

HARRISBURG, July 8.—(Special)—One of the machine shops here is making an attachment to save seed threshed from the field by combines. In former years much of the seed has been wasted by shattering as the straw was picked up from windows and carried up to the separator. A number of the machines will be tried this harvest. It is claimed that they will save from $3 to $12 an acre.

HANSEN BARN IS BURNED TUESDAY

JUNCTION CITY, July 8.—(Special)—Fire, about 1 o'clock Tuesday, destroyed a barn, and chicken house on the P. G. Hansen farm about six miles west of Junction City on the High Pass road.

The cause of the fire was thought to be spontaneous combustion from heated hay in the barn. In addition to the buildings and hay a considerable amount of farm machinery stored in a lean-to shed was destroyed with a total loss not far from $1500.

The Junction City fire boys went out with the chemical truck. The Hansen family was not at home.

Fulton Completes Oil Marine Scene

C. J. Fulton, well known Eugene artist, did an oil painting of a marine scene this week-end. With E. W. Ellis of the Kennel-Ellis studios he went to Crescent City over the week-end, the two returning Monday evening.

The painting by Mr. Fulton is of a scene just north of Crescent City and is a beautiful study of the surf and rocks. Mr. Ellis took many photographs of the scene along the coast.

Stanford Man to Talk For Active

Charles N. Reynolds, member of the Stanford university faculty who is here for the summer session at the University of Oregon, will be the speaker for the weekly meeting and luncheon of the Eugene Active club Thursday noon at the Eugene hotel.

The cheap labor situation on the Pacific coast will be discussed by Mr. Reynolds in his talk. Donald Husband, president of the club, will announce committees for the coming year.

Portland Wholesale House On Rocks! Stock Sold by Assignee $42,000 FAILURE Forces This Big Wholesale House to the Wall!!!

The depression which is general through the land has left its mark on one of Portland's leading wholesale houses. Many merchants who had bought heavily from this wholesale house were forced to the wall, inflating heavy losses upon this establishment. They tried to weather the storm with no avail. All that was left to do was to assign their stock to the Adjustment Bureau who in turn sold to the highest bidder and turned the proceeds to their creditors. We all have our troubles and misfortunes and we do not wish to stress upon the misfortune of this big wholesale house, but if it were not for this catastrophe it would be impossible to quote these give-away prices—

SOLD BY ASSIGNEE For the Benefit of the Creditors Starting Thursday Morning At 9

—and daily thereafter until further notice—disregarding all former prices and valuations, this entire stock will be forced out for whatever can be realized in a hasty transaction of this particular character in order to liquidate all assets in as short a time as it is within human possibility of doing.
