

Tony Freitas Gets Out Of Jail To Hurl Sacs To 5-3 Win Over Reds

JAILED PITCHER RELEASED TO WIN GAME FOR SENATORS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
From out of Novato, Cal., last night there came the man who brought a 5 to 3 victory for Sacramento over the Mission Reds. It was Tony Freitas, Senator pitcher. His feet got too heavy on the throttle and the judge said he must spend five days in jail.

Sacramento, however, needed a victory so a deputy sheriff escorted Freitas to the game and returned him to the bastille afterwards. Los Angeles defeated Portland 14 to 7, making just twice as many runs, hits and errors as the Reds. A quarter of the Portland pitchers took the mound but none of them was able to stop the Angel hitting spree.

San Francisco Seals went scoreless for eight innings, then put on a six-run rally to defeat Seattle 9 to 3 in the tenth inning.

Another extra inning game brought the Hollywood Stars a 6 to 5 win over Oakland in the last ball of the eleventh inning. The Stars had matters all their own way until the ninth when the Oaks tore loose with a five-run spurge to tie the score. Yesterday's results:

McLarnin Is Easy Victor Over Petrolle

By ALAN GOULD
(Associated Press Sports Editor)
NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—(AP)—The clan of McLarnin can rest easy today so far as the threat of battle-scarred little Billy Petrolle, the one-time faro express, is concerned.

This was McLarnin's second straight triumph over Petrolle. It was by the more decisive of the two and altogether wiped out the stigma attached to the McLarnin scuttler by the fact that Jimmy whopped and battered Petrolle so decisively, in ten rounds, that it became quite monotonous before the formality of raising the gloves by the referee.

Before receiving the unanimous decision, McLarnin did everything but put Billy on the floor. Petrolle managed this himself, on one occasion in the fifth round when he fell flat from the force of a wild swing that completely missed.

McLarnin was much too strong, fast and clever for Petrolle. Jimmy had a seven-pound pull in the weights, scaling 148 to Billy's 130, and used it to good advantage.

LOS ANGELES.—Howard Jones, head man of football at the University of Southern California, begins his seventh year as head coach of the Trojans and his 20th season as an active coach when the 1931 season opens in September. He will be 46 years old next month.

Jones began his coaching career at Syracuse in 1908 and since then has been in charge of football at Yale, Ohio State, Iowa, Duke and Southern California. He came to Southern California in 1925 and in 1928 signed a five-year contract which will carry him through the season of 1933.

Trojan elevens under Jones have won 54 contests, lost one and tied two for a six-year average of .831.

JAKE KILRAIN, 75, STILL HALE AND HEARTY!

PHYSICIAN ADVISES SCHMELING TO REST

BERLIN, Aug. 21.—(AP)—On the advice of his physicians, Max Schmeling, world's heavyweight champion, will do no boxing until November, his manager, Joe Jacobs, said today.

After some preliminary gymnasium work, the champion will appear in exhibitions in London and Paris. Jacobs said, he felt confident Dempsey would make a determined effort to get in shape in an attempt to regain the title.

SWIMMING COURSE AT LEABURG OVER

LEABURG, Aug. 21.—(Special)—Those who took swimming the past two weeks at Leaburg under the direction of Miss Hamilton were Bruce Currie, Robert Currie, Mrs. Marian Elston and son Orman, Mrs. Ira Elston, Mrs. Francis Elston and children, Alvin and Dorothy, Doris Elston, Fern Vance, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gray, Henry Solvick and Dale Carter, Mrs. C. C. Smith and children, Pauline, Harold and Patricia, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Swafford and children, Kelly and Jane, Mrs. A. Johnston, Marguerite and Merle Slaven, Bill Harold and Gordon Frazee, John Isham, Minnie and Ellen Thomas, Mrs. Ray Dikeman, Wayne, Bill and Fennis Goff, Melvin Carter, Naomi, Carl and Lansbery, Warren Reed, Hugh, Mae and Mrs. Godard.

On August 18th, the last day of the classes from 8:15 to 8:30 was a water carnival of racing, diving, stunts and life saving. Following was a picnic supper. After supper the swimmers received their buttons. In the early evening, an all-around bon fire and ate marshmallows and sang old familiar songs.

On Sunday from 2 to 8 were the juniors and seniors life saving exercises. The juniors who participated were Junior, Kelly and Jane Swafford and Buss Avers; seniors were Harry Moore and Harold Frazee. More will take examination later.

Bend Has Big Stick Artists

When the Bend baseball club invades Eugene Sunday for a game with the Townies on the Lane county fairgrounds, it will be with a team loaded for slaughter. The Lava Bears take fresh blood again last Sunday when they whipped Klamath Falls for the third time this season, and their batting average is well over .300, though possibly not quite up to Eugene's high mark of .341.

Bend and Eugene played earlier in the season, and a pick-up Townie team won the track and field meet with a score of 20 to 19. Evidently hit that day. In the lower altitude here, however, the pitchers will be given a better chance and will probably hold the hits within reason.

Russell, Bend pitcher, has been there several years and is always good for a dangerous game. Ray Eulanks, the catcher, manages the team on the field. He is an old leaguer and in 1929 captained the Bend Eagles, one of the best semi-pro clubs ever developed in Oregon. A number of ex-leaguers were on the club and they won the championship of the Willamette Valley league that year.

Golf is the "medicine" administered to many patients at Lassel, Miss. sanatorium. A club has been formed. Dave Boykin, former Alabama football star, will coach football at a high school at Scottsboro, Ala., this year.

Man Who Fought John L. Still Punchin' Em

By PAUL HARRISON
(NEA Service Writer)
QUINCY, Mass.—The same fist that once battered the jaw of John L. Sullivan pounded for emphasis on the knees of old Jake Kilrain. "I may have as good men today as we had in my time, but ye haven't any better and ye can lay to that. Fightin's different now, and it's hard to make comparisons. But I'd feel sorry for any one trained in the old days who was in the ring for a battle of the nineteenth century."

Jake was a little breathless with the heat of his words. He'll tell you with a chuckle that he's going strong on his seventy-fifth round with Father Time, but admits that the work of a night watchman doesn't give a feller much time to keep in training.

Still keen at 75
However, the warrior who went 100 rounds with Jim Smith for the championship of England, who whipped George Godfrey in 44 rounds, who fought 75 rounds, bare-knuckled, with John L. Sullivan in what perhaps was the all-time epic of pugilism—this veteran still keen-eyed and smiling, is still hoarse.

"In fact," growled Jake, "I'll probably be news to some people that I'm alive at all. Alive? why, I'm still makin' my livin' by punchin'—even if it's on a time-clock."

"We're poor, Ma and me, but we're happy. I wouldn't trade my memories for all the money that your fly-fingered champion has, did you say? The Kilrain lives in a homey, neat little two-family house on River street in Quincy. They have been there 18 years, ever since Jake had to quit the ten-day vandeville act to which he had declined after his triumphal four-year tour with John L. himself. For awhile, Jake was able to teach boxing to classes at Harvard and the Institute of Technology. The old for that, he became caretaker of a Boston playground. The pay was only $2 a day, but the idolatry of the kids made up for it.

"There were good and bad days after that," he recalled. "There were the days when I had Kilrain's Hotel in my pocket and was countin' money. The hotel burned down."

NEW YORK GIANTS INCREASE THEIR LEAD ON CHICAGO

By L. S. CAMERON
(United Press Sports Editor)
NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—(AP)—The New York Giants increased their lead over Chicago by a 3 to 1 triumph over Cincinnati while Chicago was losing a 4 to 1 verdict to Brooklyn. Carl Hubbell outpitched Larry Benton for the Giants victory, allowing only 7 hits.

Strong relief pitching by the veteran Jack Quinn beat Chicago, William Watson Clark weakened in the ninth after shutting out the Cubs with three hits in eight innings.

Pittsburgh and Boston divided a doubleheader the Braves winning the first, 2 to 1 in 10 innings, and Pittsburgh taking the second, 5 to 4. Ed Brandt chalked up his 16th victory of the season in holding Pittsburgh to four hits in the opener. Heinie Miller pitched a shutout in the second game but won when his mates broke a tie with a two-run rally in the seventh.

St. Louis' scheduled game with Philadelphia postponed because of threatening weather. Philadelphia and Washington, the American league leader and runner-up, suffered defeat, Chicago defeating Philadelphia, 11 to 6, with a six-run attack on Hoyt in the fifth clinching the contest.

Cleveland came from behind with a four-run rally in the fifth and again won a five-run rally in the seventh to defeat Washington, 10 to 5.

Home runs by Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig and Joe Sewell gave the New York Yankees a 7 to 3 victory over St. Louis. Ruth's homer in the seventh, loaded in the ninth clinched the contest.

Arthur Herring pitched Detroit to a 2 triumph over Boston, allowing only nine scattered hits.

AMERICAN PLAYERS WIN NEWPORT CLASH

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 21.—(AP)—The most promising tennis players in England and the United States, Perry and Ellsworth, won the Newport Casino tournament by upsetting members of American Davis cup forces.

Perry, champion of the United States of New York for the third time this season, wore that blond stylized down to such an extent that he suffered a severe cramp in his left leg just when the Briton had match point in the twelfth game of the fifth set.

Perry had a 40-30 lead against service when Wood's leg folded under him. Sidney was given first aid, but it failed to help matters. He wanted to play out the match, but officials defeated him. Perry's scores for the completed sets were 6-3, 7-2, 6-1. Vines also was carried to five sets before eliminating stubborn Johnny Van Ryn, 6-3, 7-9, 3-6, 6-2, and 6-1.

Johnny Doeg and George Lott, national doubles champions, played three matches to qualify for the semi-final. They were in grave danger from Berkeley Bell and Gregory Manzig, but staided just in time to overcome a two set lead for 1-6, 6-8, 6-4, 6-3, and 6-2 victory.

Vines and Gilchrist, the Californians that he dropped, but one match off for this season, that to Van Ryn and Wilmer Allison at Sableight, won two matches to qualify for the last four. Van Ryn and Allison were eliminated by Jack Tidball and Lester Stoeffel of Los Angeles 7-5, 2-6, 3-6, 6-4, and 6-4.

New Orleans and Stockton Advance

COLORADO SPRINGS, Aug. 21.—(AP)—Stockton, Cal., and New Orleans advanced through the first round of the all-western American Legion junior baseball championship tournament which started here yesterday.

The Stockton boys eliminated Albuquerque, 6 to 0, while New Orleans won in the seventh for a 6 to 5 victory over Milwaukee.

Owen McDowell and Laverne Rodman, Columbia university athletes, spent their summer vacations working with a bridge gang in Dallas, Tex.

HIGHCLIMBER looks pm over

By ROY CHAFF
Thursday was moving day at the University of Oregon. All the Associated Students departments are now under one roof at McArthur court.

Hugh Rosson and his assistant, Doc Robnett, have moved into spacious, although not pretentious quarters in the east end of the court.

This writer, along with all the other campus sports correspondents, has moved into a new building, and typewriter for Journalism to an office at McArthur court, adjoining Frank Callison's and Bill Hayward's. Bill Reinhart, Tom Stoddard, assistant graduate manager, Doc Spears, Miss Rundlett, the secretary, and Sammy Wilderman, the publicity man, all have as before, adjoining ours. It is a good omen. It is a forerunner of more news about the Oregon athletic teams.

Not only the Associated Students and coaches offices are now in one building, but also the offices of the Emerald and Oregon editors and business managers, as well as that of the president of the student body and all the other student officials. McArthur court, usually a lonely place in the summer time, was humming with gamely, while the typewriters clicked many tunes about the coming football season.

The mail man, loaded with some 12,000 or 15,000 applications for football tickets, had a busy day. We missed Virgil Earl, for the last seven or eight years director of athletics, whose office is now occupied by Wilderman. Earl has been promoted to dean of men, but all-around many problems are with the men on the campus.

The publicity department resembles an art studio more than it does a sports news bureau. Sammy Wilderman is an unusual publicity man and the unusual, of course, can be expected. Unlike any other conference publicity man, Sammy has his own artist in his own office, arranging the line pictures, which, when slung together and properly captioned, make the pictures one sees in the daily papers.

Sammy, we are told, is fussy. He doesn't seem to know what to do as do the other publicity men. He has it under his thumb, where he can direct the work. He doesn't give the artist much opportunity to use his ingenuity. Sammy arranges the art work himself and tells the artist to put on the finishing touches.

This is August, and the first game is about six weeks away. Yet Sammy and his assistants already are getting their publicity out for the coming football campaign. The mats, which are transported into the field pictures, you see in the newspapers, are put into thousands of envelopes, all properly arranged, with the dates each is to be mailed.

They are not only for the homecoming game with Oregon State at Eugene, but also for the North Dakota game at Grand Forks, the New York university game at New York, the St. Mary's game at San Francisco, the two contests with U. C. L. A. and U. S. C. at Los Angeles, the Idaho mat at Portland, and last but not the least, the Washington game at Seattle.

The state of Oregon will receive thousands of dollars' worth of free publicity from the Oregon State team this year. Readers at North Dakota, at Washington and way points will know all about Oregon this year because they will all going to get loads-full of publicity on the Oregon team. It is the kind of publicity that costs little to the school, but means much to the state. It is free publicity, and yet desirable, because it is NEWS. It must be NEWS or the papers wouldn't publish it, and Sammy will see to it that it is NEWS.

These publicity lads are men of mystery. Nobody seems to know what they do. You see them about town at almost any hour of the day. But the papers are full of their stuff, for at the wee hours of the morning, when most people are dozing away preparing for another day of toil, these boys are pounding their typewriters.

Their success is judged by their friends. These friends are the product of years of acquaintance. One can not be a successful press agent unless he has a host of friends. If you see columns upon columns of Oregon stuff in the Portland papers, it is because Sammy has many friends.

JIMMY JOHNSTON GETS NO. 1 RANK IN NATIONAL MEET

By ALAN GOULD
(Associated Press Sports Editor)
NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—The "seeding" list for the United States amateur golf championship, in effect an advance national ranking of stars for 1931, has elevated Harrison R. Johnston to No. 1 man and, consequently, the official favorite for the title tournament at the Berkeley Country Club, Chicago, starting Aug. 31.

With Bobby Jones and George Von Elm no longer in the amateur ranks, Johnston received the top position on the strength of being the latest of the available ex-champions. He held the amateur crown in 1929 but failed by a stroke to qualify for the defense of his title at Merion last year.

First Ten
Here are the "first ten" as ranked by the U. S. G. A. for the purpose of "seeding" the draw for the match play at Beverly:

- 1—Harrison R. Johnston, St. Paul, Minn.
- 2—Eugene V. Homans, Enfield, N. J.
- 3—P. Phillip Perkins, New York.
- 4—John Goodman, Omaha, Neb.
- 5—Charles Seiver, Los Angeles.
- 6—Francis Ouimet, Boston.
- 7—Maurice J. McCarthy, Jr., New York.
- 8—George J. Vogt, New York.
- 9—Dr. Oscar Willing, Portland, Ore.
- 10—George T. Dunlap, Jr., New York.

Only eight players will be seeded for the first round of match play. If it is necessary to go outside the seeded list to fill vacancies, caused by withdrawals or qualifying failures, the following "second ten" will be subjected to seeding, by lot:

- 11—Felix Coleman, Culver City, Calif.
- 12—John De Forest, England; Frank Dolp, Portland, Ore.; Charles Evans, Jr., Chicago; Jesse P. Guilford, Boston; John E. Lehman, Chicago; William Lawson Little, Jr., San Francisco; Max R. Maston, Philadelphia; Roland MacKenzie, Wilmington, Del.; and Ross Somerville, the Canadian amateur champion.

Woman Claims New Breast Stroke Mark

LEIPZIG, Germany, Aug. 21.—(AP)—A new women's world record for the 500 meter breast stroke swim was claimed for Herta Wunder, when she covered the distance in eight minutes, 32 seconds today. The former record, according to authorities here, was 8:33 2-10.

The A. A. U. athletic almanac lists no world's record meter breast stroke record for women nor does it recognize any American record for that distance in the breast stroke style.
