

City News Notes

What's Doing

Tuesday
 Rotary luncheon at Osburn hotel (12 noon); club leaders meeting; H. club of commerce (7:30 p. m.); Eugene Gleemen meeting; chamber of commerce (7:45 p. m.).

What's to be Broadcast

Special western sheep and lamb report will be broadcast over radio station at the state capitol building each Tuesday at 10 p. m., according to announcement of the U. S. department of agriculture. A large number of county farmers who own sheep are regular listeners of the market reports from the college. This special sheep and lamb report will be an added feature.

Always Well Traveled

The new portion of the Willamette river bridge is being used. Heavy traffic these days, according to Blaine, Lowell, and others, was in Eugene Monday. The bridge crosses the river and comes to the highway. A large number of people drive over it on their trips.

Complimented

A letter from the Eugene office in a letter from the Eugene office, 1276 Haight street, is thanked for the quick reply in locating Harold Pulliam with whom he wished to communicate. He was able to find the young man, and Pulliam telephoned to him and he returned to the office at 10 o'clock on Monday.

Look for Holdups

The Eugene police Sunday night were asked to look for a trio of hold-up men who robbed a man of $1 at the Gold Springs camp two miles west of Salem Sunday evening. The man was accompanied by two young men and two small girls. The men appeared to be between the ages of 20 and 25 and were reported to the police.

With Talks Listed

The weekly health talk to be given at the Southern Willamette Dental clinic, Thursday morning, will be by Dr. E. E. Endicott on "The Hygienic Monday morning talk, given by Dr. A. F. Lantieri, president of the Eugene High School Medical Society, on "The Use of Radium in Medicine and Surgery." The talk will be given over KORE.

Clay Clover Seed

O. S. Fletcher, county agricultural agent, was at the farms of Howard and George English in the northern district Monday, helping them to complete the certification of Hardy Ohio red clover seed. This special strain brought here by state college and seed dealers to re-establish the clover seed industry in the Willamette valley.

ing to Portland

Rev. C. E. Palmer, pastor of the Congregational church, will be in Portland Tuesday to address a series of Congregational ministers' Portland and nearby vicinities. His subject will be "Prayer in a World of Sin."

as to State College

Miss Gladys Emery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Emery, of this city, has entered as a freshman at the state college at Corvallis. She graduated from Eugene high school this year. Miss Emery's father is an alumnus of the college.

Stroebel on Hunt

Ben Stroebel was the lone representative of the Schwaninger barber shop in the chase after deer when the men opened Sunday. He went into Fall creek territory and had not turned up to Monday noon.

reception Planned

A class of the First Baptist church is planning a fall reception for all young business men and women Tuesday evening, September 21, at 7:30 o'clock in the social hall. Young people of that age are welcome. It is announced.

ar Stolen

While J. J. Cramer of Harrisburg was in Eugene Sunday night some one stole his car which was left parked at Everett street, west between 10th and Willamette streets, he reported to the police. It is a Ford motor. Home number 25-077.

Visitors Visit Here

Mrs. Frank Cox, Jr., of San Francisco and Mrs. B. Lawrence of San Francisco, Cal., visited over Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Neil McCormack in Eugene.

Apple Crop Good

The apple crop in the Hood River valley is excellent this year and a fair price is expected, according to J. M. Sievers of Hood River, who was in Eugene Monday.

Moffitt at Roseburg

Among the Eugene people attending the soldiers' home celebration at Roseburg Saturday was William Moffitt, employed here by the Southern Pacific company. He is a former resident of that city.

I SAW

A rat caught in a trap. She showed she had been nursing little ones, so I set the traps again and caught 12 little rats—two of them in the same steel trap together. We didn't see any more rats for a week, and then one night we saw some, so I set three steel traps for them. Within an hour I had caught six, and there were three in one trap at the same time. I caught eight altogether during the night. That makes 21 rats in two weeks.—G. I. D., Rt. 2.

What Did You See?

Hotel Man Returns—J. E. Reynolds, manager of the Oregon hotel, has arrived home from Calgary, Alberta, Canada, where he had been for two weeks to look after affairs on his wheat ranch.

Fletcher Goes to Canby—O. S. Fletcher, county agricultural agent, expects to leave Monday evening for Canby where he will judge the farm crop and fruit exhibits at the Clackamas county fair.

On Annual Deer Hunt—Mayor H. E. Wilder and Arthur Henderson are on their annual deer hunt in the Siuslaw region. They left Saturday evening and expected to return Monday evening.

P. E. O. to Meet—Chapter A-1 of the P. E. O. Sisterhood will hold a special meeting with Mrs. John J. Rogers at 2187 University street at 1 p. m. Wednesday.

Student Arrives—Miss Nan Ruonala of Astoria arrived here Sunday to attend the University of Oregon.

Cresswell Man Here—William Holliston, prominent resident of Cresswell, was in Eugene on business Monday.

Oakridge Man Here—Charles F. Brazz, resident of Oakridge, was in the city over Sunday.

Here from McKenzie Bridge—Mrs. Peter Brude of McKenzie Bridge visited in Eugene over Sunday.

Here from Medford—Mrs. John Orth has arrived here from Medford with her daughter, Miss Dorothy Orth, the latter to enter the university.

Here from Florence—Ralph Bernhardt of Florence was a business caller at the office of County Agent Fletcher Saturday.

Marcola Man Here—Gay Smith, resident of Marcola, was a visitor in Eugene Saturday.

Name is Registered—The New York-Florence Highway

Mr. and Mrs. Neil McCormack in Eugene

Mr. and Mrs. Neil McCormack in Eugene.

Apple Crop Good

The apple crop in the Hood River valley is excellent this year and a fair price is expected, according to J. M. Sievers of Hood River, who was in Eugene Monday.

Moffitt at Roseburg

Among the Eugene people attending the soldiers' home celebration at Roseburg Saturday was William Moffitt, employed here by the Southern Pacific company. He is a former resident of that city.

I SAW

A rat caught in a trap. She showed she had been nursing little ones, so I set the traps again and caught 12 little rats—two of them in the same steel trap together. We didn't see any more rats for a week, and then one night we saw some, so I set three steel traps for them. Within an hour I had caught six, and there were three in one trap at the same time. I caught eight altogether during the night. That makes 21 rats in two weeks.—G. I. D., Rt. 2.

What Did You See?

Hotel Man Returns—J. E. Reynolds, manager of the Oregon hotel, has arrived home from Calgary, Alberta, Canada, where he had been for two weeks to look after affairs on his wheat ranch.

Fletcher Goes to Canby—O. S. Fletcher, county agricultural agent, expects to leave Monday evening for Canby where he will judge the farm crop and fruit exhibits at the Clackamas county fair.

On Annual Deer Hunt—Mayor H. E. Wilder and Arthur Henderson are on their annual deer hunt in the Siuslaw region. They left Saturday evening and expected to return Monday evening.

P. E. O. to Meet—Chapter A-1 of the P. E. O. Sisterhood will hold a special meeting with Mrs. John J. Rogers at 2187 University street at 1 p. m. Wednesday.

Student Arrives—Miss Nan Ruonala of Astoria arrived here Sunday to attend the University of Oregon.

Cresswell Man Here—William Holliston, prominent resident of Cresswell, was in Eugene on business Monday.

Oakridge Man Here—Charles F. Brazz, resident of Oakridge, was in the city over Sunday.

Here from McKenzie Bridge—Mrs. Peter Brude of McKenzie Bridge visited in Eugene over Sunday.

Here from Medford—Mrs. John Orth has arrived here from Medford with her daughter, Miss Dorothy Orth, the latter to enter the university.

Here from Florence—Ralph Bernhardt of Florence was a business caller at the office of County Agent Fletcher Saturday.

Marcola Man Here—Gay Smith, resident of Marcola, was a visitor in Eugene Saturday.

Name is Registered—The New York-Florence Highway

In Records

MARRIAGE LICENSES
 Sherman J. Moody and Lucy Isabel St. John, both of Eugene.
 John Madison Gibson of Medford and Mattie Sheridan of Cresswell.

DIVORCES GRANTED
 Bessie from Norman Hemenway.
 Addie M. from Fred Marshall.

TRAFFIC FINES
 L. G. Brizz, $4 for having four in the front seat of an automobile.
 Clarence Coddling, $2 for parking a car on the wrong side of the street.

BORN
OBENSEN—At the Eugene hospital, Saturday, September 19, 1931, to Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Oblsen, 742 Tenth avenue west, a daughter.

HARGAN—Saturday, September 19, 1931, to Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Hargan, Ada, a daughter.

CREWS—At the Pacific Christian hospital, Saturday, September 19, 1931, to Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Crews, 1936 Fifteenth avenue east, a daughter.

Obituaries

Mrs. Sarah F. Wells
 Mrs. Sarah F. Wells, member of a prominent Willamette valley family, and resident of Halsey for many years, died in the Albany General hospital early Monday morning after a major operation. She was the wife of ex-county judge W. L. Wells of Polk county and was the daughter of Henderson Murphy, an early pioneer of Oregon, also a member of the Murphy-Henderson clan that holds a big reunion each year. Mrs. Albert Murphy of Eugene is a relative.

Besides her widower, Mrs. Wells is survived by the following children: Elbert Wells of Mexicali, Tex.; Goldie Wells, a missionary in Africa; Mrs. Gladys Helseth of Puyallup, Wash.; Roy Wells at home; Rex, Lawrence Wells of Vancouver, Wash.; Mrs. Glenn Kendall of Albany; and seven grandchildren.

Mrs. Wells was a member of the

Association through its secretary

George Melvin Miller, announces the selection of section 10, township 17 south, range 12 west, as its Pacific terminal. The site, adjacent to Heceta Beach, has been given the name "Terminal," which has been registered in Lane county records.

Church Men to Meet

The men of Central Presbyterian church are to meet at the church tonight at 7:30 and go together to the home of their president, Professor W. G. Heatie, 1840 Orxy street, where the first meeting of the fall will be held. Men who are friends of the congregation as well as members are cordially invited. F. S. Appelmann will be the leader for tonight.

From Seattle

F. W. and E. F. Pollock of Seattle are in Eugene on a visit with their brother, Charles Pollock, circuit court judge. The brothers are considering locating in Eugene.

P. H. Club to Meet

The Pleasant Hill community club will meet Wednesday at the home of Mrs. J. W. Jameson. There will be an election of officers.

At Beau Monde

Miss Lila Lee, formerly of the Model Beauty shoppe, is now associated with the Beau Monde Beauty parlor.

Goshen Resident Here

George A. Brown, resident of the Goshen district, transacted business in Eugene Monday.

Eph Mathews in City

Eph Mathews, pioneer farmer of the district between Pleasant Hill and Jasper, was in Eugene Monday.

Park Owner in City

A. C. Dille, owner of Riverside park, on the Coast Fork between Pleasant Hill, was in Eugene Monday.

Mr. Wilson Heads Ministers' Group

Rev. Bryant Wilson, pastor of the First Baptist church, was elected president of the Eugene Ministerial Union for the coming year at the monthly meeting of the group Monday morning in the Methodist Episcopal church. He succeeds Dr. S. E. Childers, pastor of the First Christian church.

Other officers named were Rev. C. S. Bergstrom, pastor of the Bethany Evangelical church, vice-president; Merle Scott, Y. M. C. A. secretary.

The group passed a resolution favoring the meetings of the Allied Forces of Prohibition here Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. The union's next meeting is to be held on the first Monday of October.

Speakers Listed at Prohibition Meet

The order of speakers for the three-day session of the Allied Forces of Prohibition opening here Wednesday has been announced. The meetings will be held in the Rex theater, sponsored by the local churches, dry organizations, and other groups.

On Wednesday, Hon. Grant Madison, former congressman, and Dr. Ira Landreth are to speak. On Thursday afternoon and evening, Miss Norma C. Brown and Col. Raymond Robins will be the speakers. Dr. Daniel A. Poling and Hon. Oliver W. Stewart are to be the speakers for Friday.

The young peoples' banquet to be held on the opening night of the series of meetings will be held at the First Baptist church. Robert C. Hoop, national chairman of Allied Youth, a unit of the Allied Forces for Prohibition, is to be the speaker at the banquet.

Oregon Electric Man Is Promoted

J. H. Brady, who has been traveling freight agent in the Willamette valley for the Oregon Electric, Oregon Trunk, Spokane, Portland and Seattle railways, has been appointed general agent in San Francisco, it is announced by F. S. Appelmann, local agent of the Oregon Electric.

Resignation of J. G. Travers

The resignation of J. G. Travers, who has been acting general agent of these railways at Spokane, has caused several changes to be made in general agencies and traveling positions. The vacancy at Spokane is permanently filled by the appointment of H. W. Shields as general agent, who is transferred from the general agency in San Francisco.

L. S. Davis, traveling freight and passenger agent in central Oregon is transferred to the Willamette valley district to succeed Mr. Brady.

G. C. Pendergast, traveling freight and passenger agent, Astoria, is transferred to central Oregon district to succeed Mr. Davis.

Ice Cream Melons Have Single Stem

A pair of ice cream melons doing a Siamese twin act were shown Monday morning at the Register-Guard office by Jess Harper of route 2, Junction City.

The two melons were attached to a common stem and had a common growth of about two inches diameter linking them together. The melons were of unusual size, one being about eight inches in diameter and the other about six inches.

Mrs. Ross to Give Talk on Governor

Mrs. Nellie Taylor Ross, former governor of Wyoming and at present the national vice-chairman of the democratic committee, is to address women of Eugene and vicinity on the "Governor's Job from a Woman's Viewpoint," at the luncheon to be given in her honor the coming Thursday at the Osburn hotel by the Eugene women's city club.

All women of Eugene and Lane county interested are invited to the luncheon as it is open. Reservations should be phoned in the hotel.

Mrs. Ross will be guest of the Eugene Breakfast club Thursday morning and will talk to that group.

Women Arrested By Eugene Police

Mrs. Jane Doe Spodgrass and Peggy Smith, charged with being drunk, and Mina Backabee and Bonnie Martin, accused of disorderly conduct, were arrested by the Eugene police Sunday night and all gave bail for their appearance in police court later. They had not appeared up to early Monday afternoon.

Jesse L. Edmiston was fined $25 by Police Judge Bryson Monday for being drunk on the streets. He failed to pay the fine and was committed to jail.

Trent Man Hurt in Collision of Cars

G. J. Ferguson, 50, of Trent was slightly injured when his car and one driven by Michael Mitchell of San Francisco collided at the intersection of Eleventh avenue east and High street at 9:20 a. m. Monday.

Both men reported the accident to the police and each declares the other was to blame. Ferguson says that Mitchell and another man in Mitchell's car were engaged in conversation and did not see his car coming and Mitchell says his car had the right of way.

New Store Building Will Be Erected

A frame store building 20 by 24 feet will be built at 502 Fifteenth avenue east by Simon Ohmart, according to a permit issued at the office of the city building inspector Monday. The cost is given at $450.

Bob Fleming is the builder.

C. B. Donahue took out a permit Monday to build a garage at 1573 Jefferson street at a cost of $50.

Association through its secretary

George Melvin Miller, announces the selection of section 10, township 17 south, range 12 west, as its Pacific terminal. The site, adjacent to Heceta Beach, has been given the name "Terminal," which has been registered in Lane county records.

Church Men to Meet

The men of Central Presbyterian church are to meet at the church tonight at 7:30 and go together to the home of their president, Professor W. G. Heatie, 1840 Orxy street, where the first meeting of the fall will be held. Men who are friends of the congregation as well as members are cordially invited. F. S. Appelmann will be the leader for tonight.

From Seattle

F. W. and E. F. Pollock of Seattle are in Eugene on a visit with their brother, Charles Pollock, circuit court judge. The brothers are considering locating in Eugene.

P. H. Club to Meet

The Pleasant Hill community club will meet Wednesday at the home of Mrs. J. W. Jameson. There will be an election of officers.

At Beau Monde

Miss Lila Lee, formerly of the Model Beauty shoppe, is now associated with the Beau Monde Beauty parlor.

Goshen Resident Here

George A. Brown, resident of the Goshen district, transacted business in Eugene Monday.

Eph Mathews in City

Eph Mathews, pioneer farmer of the district between Pleasant Hill and Jasper, was in Eugene Monday.

Park Owner in City

A. C. Dille, owner of Riverside park, on the Coast Fork between Pleasant Hill, was in Eugene Monday.

Mr. Wilson Heads Ministers' Group

Rev. Bryant Wilson, pastor of the First Baptist church, was elected president of the Eugene Ministerial Union for the coming year at the monthly meeting of the group Monday morning in the Methodist Episcopal church. He succeeds Dr. S. E. Childers, pastor of the First Christian church.

Other officers named were Rev. C. S. Bergstrom, pastor of the Bethany Evangelical church, vice-president; Merle Scott, Y. M. C. A. secretary.

The group passed a resolution favoring the meetings of the Allied Forces of Prohibition here Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. The union's next meeting is to be held on the first Monday of October.

Speakers Listed at Prohibition Meet

The order of speakers for the three-day session of the Allied Forces of Prohibition opening here Wednesday has been announced. The meetings will be held in the Rex theater, sponsored by the local churches, dry organizations, and other groups.

On Wednesday, Hon. Grant Madison, former congressman, and Dr. Ira Landreth are to speak. On Thursday afternoon and evening, Miss Norma C. Brown and Col. Raymond Robins will be the speakers. Dr. Daniel A. Poling and Hon. Oliver W. Stewart are to be the speakers for Friday.

The young peoples' banquet to be held on the opening night of the series of meetings will be held at the First Baptist church. Robert C. Hoop, national chairman of Allied Youth, a unit of the Allied Forces for Prohibition, is to be the speaker at the banquet.

Women Arrested By Eugene Police

Mrs. Jane Doe Spodgrass and Peggy Smith, charged with being drunk, and Mina Backabee and Bonnie Martin, accused of disorderly conduct, were arrested by the Eugene police Sunday night and all gave bail for their appearance in police court later. They had not appeared up to early Monday afternoon.

Jesse L. Edmiston was fined $25 by Police Judge Bryson Monday for being drunk on the streets. He failed to pay the fine and was committed to jail.

Trent Man Hurt in Collision of Cars

G. J. Ferguson, 50, of Trent was slightly injured when his car and one driven by Michael Mitchell of San Francisco collided at the intersection of Eleventh avenue east and High street at 9:20 a. m. Monday.

Both men reported the accident to the police and each declares the other was to blame. Ferguson says that Mitchell and another man in Mitchell's car were engaged in conversation and did not see his car coming and Mitchell says his car had the right of way.

New Store Building Will Be Erected

A frame store building 20 by 24 feet will be built at 502 Fifteenth avenue east by Simon Ohmart, according to a permit issued at the office of the city building inspector Monday. The cost is given at $450.

Bob Fleming is the builder.

C. B. Donahue took out a permit Monday to build a garage at 1573 Jefferson street at a cost of $50.

Association through its secretary

George Melvin Miller, announces the selection of section 10, township 17 south, range 12 west, as its Pacific terminal. The site, adjacent to Heceta Beach, has been given the name "Terminal," which has been registered in Lane county records.

Church Men to Meet

The men of Central Presbyterian church are to meet at the church tonight at 7:30 and go together to the home of their president, Professor W. G. Heatie, 1840 Orxy street, where the first meeting of the fall will be held. Men who are friends of the congregation as well as members are cordially invited. F. S. Appelmann will be the leader for tonight.

From Seattle

F. W. and E. F. Pollock of Seattle are in Eugene on a visit with their brother, Charles Pollock, circuit court judge. The brothers are considering locating in Eugene.

P. H. Club to Meet

The Pleasant Hill community club will meet Wednesday at the home of Mrs. J. W. Jameson. There will be an election of officers.

At Beau Monde

Miss Lila Lee, formerly of the Model Beauty shoppe, is now associated with the Beau Monde Beauty parlor.

Goshen Resident Here

George A. Brown, resident of the Goshen district, transacted business in Eugene Monday.

Eph Mathews in City

Eph Mathews, pioneer farmer of the district between Pleasant Hill and Jasper, was in Eugene Monday.

Park Owner in City

A. C. Dille, owner of Riverside park, on the Coast Fork between Pleasant Hill, was in Eugene Monday.

Mr. Wilson Heads Ministers' Group

Rev. Bryant Wilson, pastor of the First Baptist church, was elected president of the Eugene Ministerial Union for the coming year at the monthly meeting of the group Monday morning in the Methodist Episcopal church. He succeeds Dr. S. E. Childers, pastor of the First Christian church.

Other officers named were Rev. C. S. Bergstrom, pastor of the Bethany Evangelical church, vice-president; Merle Scott, Y. M. C. A. secretary.

The group passed a resolution favoring the meetings of the Allied Forces of Prohibition here Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. The union's next meeting is to be held on the first Monday of October.

Speakers Listed at Prohibition Meet

The order of speakers for the three-day session of the Allied Forces of Prohibition opening here Wednesday has been announced. The meetings will be held in the Rex theater, sponsored by the local churches, dry organizations, and other groups.

On Wednesday, Hon. Grant Madison, former congressman, and Dr. Ira Landreth are to speak. On Thursday afternoon and evening, Miss Norma C. Brown and Col. Raymond Robins will be the speakers. Dr. Daniel A. Poling and Hon. Oliver W. Stewart are to be the speakers for Friday.

The young peoples' banquet to be held on the opening night of the series of meetings will be held at the First Baptist church. Robert C. Hoop, national chairman of Allied Youth, a unit of the Allied Forces for Prohibition, is to be the speaker at the banquet.

Women Arrested By Eugene Police

Mrs. Jane Doe Spodgrass and Peggy Smith, charged with being drunk, and Mina Backabee and Bonnie Martin, accused of disorderly conduct, were arrested by the Eugene police Sunday night and all gave bail for their appearance in police court later. They had not appeared up to early Monday afternoon.

Jesse L. Edmiston was fined $25 by Police Judge Bryson Monday for being drunk on the streets. He failed to pay the fine and was committed to jail.

Trent Man Hurt in Collision of Cars

G. J. Ferguson, 50, of Trent was slightly injured when his car and one driven by Michael Mitchell of San Francisco collided at the intersection of Eleventh avenue east and High street at 9:20 a. m. Monday.

Both men reported the accident to the police and each declares the other was to blame. Ferguson says that Mitchell and another man in Mitchell's car were engaged in conversation and did not see his car coming and Mitchell says his car had the right of way.

New Store Building Will Be Erected

A frame store building 20 by 24 feet will be built at 502 Fifteenth avenue east by Simon Ohmart, according to a permit issued at the office of the city building inspector Monday. The cost is given at $450.

Bob Fleming is the builder.

C. B. Donahue took out a permit Monday to build a garage at 1573 Jefferson street at a cost of $50.

Association through its secretary

George Melvin Miller, announces the selection of section 10, township 17 south, range 12 west, as its Pacific terminal. The site, adjacent to Heceta Beach, has been given the name "Terminal," which has been registered in Lane county records.

Church Men to Meet

The men of Central Presbyterian church are to meet at the church tonight at 7:30 and go together to the home of their president, Professor W. G. Heatie, 1840 Orxy street, where the first meeting of the fall will be held. Men who are friends of the congregation as well as members are cordially invited. F. S. Appelmann will be the leader for tonight.

From Seattle

F. W. and E. F. Pollock of Seattle are in Eugene on a visit with their brother, Charles Pollock, circuit court judge. The brothers are considering locating in Eugene.

P. H. Club to Meet

The Pleasant Hill community club will meet Wednesday at the home of Mrs. J. W. Jameson. There will be an election of officers.

At Beau Monde

Miss Lila Lee, formerly of the Model Beauty shoppe, is now associated with the Beau Monde Beauty parlor.

Goshen Resident Here

George A. Brown, resident of the Goshen district, transacted business in Eugene Monday.

Eph Mathews in City

Eph Mathews, pioneer farmer of the district between Pleasant Hill and Jasper, was in Eugene Monday.

Park Owner in City

A. C. Dille, owner of Riverside park, on the Coast Fork between Pleasant Hill, was in Eugene Monday.

Mr. Wilson Heads Ministers' Group

Rev. Bryant Wilson, pastor of the First Baptist church, was elected president of the Eugene Ministerial Union for the coming year at the monthly meeting of the group Monday morning in the Methodist Episcopal church. He succeeds Dr. S. E. Childers, pastor of the First Christian church.

Other officers named were Rev. C. S. Bergstrom, pastor of the Bethany Evangelical church, vice-president; Merle Scott, Y. M. C. A. secretary.

The group passed a resolution favoring the meetings of the Allied Forces of Prohibition here Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. The union's next meeting is to be held on the first Monday of October.

Speakers Listed at Prohibition Meet