Pruning Work Arranged
 All plans having been made for the pruning demonstration to be held on F. M. Stockton's farm at Eula on the upper Willamette river Wednesday, according to O. S. Fletcher, county agricultural agent. Mr. Fletcher will be accompanied by O. T. McWhorter, extension horticultural specialist at the state college. The farmers will gather at 10 a. m. and Mr. McWhorter will demonstrate the best way to prune young walnut trees and peach trees. At 1:30 p. m. on the same day a meeting will be held at the farm of C. F. May, at Signal, not far from Eula, for the discussion of farm crop problems. The county agent will talk on Ladino clover for pasture, alfalfa production and now and improved varieties of cereals.

Potatoes to Be Inspected
 E. R. Jackman, farm crop specialist at the state college, and O. S. Fletcher, county agricultural agent, plan to visit H. C. Bushnell's farm near Junction City Tuesday forenoon to make a bin inspection of their potatoes for seed certification. Two field inspections were made of each crop and both passed the tests satisfactorily, according to Mr. Fletcher.
