Eggs To Drop Friday; Wall Street Is Quiet

WHOLESALE AND BUYING CUT IS TO TAKE EFFECT

Eggs are due to take a two-cent cut wholesale here Friday morning on top grades, making them the lowest price ever quoted here, wholesale, at this season of the year.

The Pacific Cooperative Poultry Producers' association will be listing them at 16 cents on extras and 14 cents on mediums. Whether or not lower grades will be down here was uncertain. Thursday, because they are already so low here, Ralph Ferry, local manager of the Co-op, said. The changes here follow similar ones in Portland. Prices quoted in the market list here today are those for Friday.

Reports from Portland say New York eggs likewise are to tumble two cents, bringing them to new low levels, too. George Seidel, manager of the local Swift and company plant, said he expected the change to take effect here because the New York eggs market is very weak. If the two-cent cut comes, it will bring extras down to 14 cents here and standards to 12 cents, while mediums would be down to 10 cents.

With the drops in wholesale and buying prices, store buying prices and the public market retail prices are expected to take similar declines Friday.

Some small cash buyers here already were quoting varied prices of from 11 to 13 cents on the standards and 8 to 12 cents on mediums, Thursday. It is doubtful if these prices will be any lower Friday because that is about what they would be on a two cent drop.

Poultry Down

The forecast drop in poultry came Thursday with heavy hens down a cent to 13 cents, the mediums to 10 cents and the light to 8 cents. All other poultry remained unchanged.

Turkeys are unchanged. Swift and company started receiving Thursday for a shipment east and will continue Friday and Saturday.

BRIGHT SPOTS

(By United Press)

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—(U.P.)—Chemical Bank and Trust company reported earnings for 1931 of $6,410,864, compared with $4,528,515 in 1930.

LOS ANGELES.—More than 200,000 persons visited the 19th annual Los Angeles automobile show, a gain of 25 per cent over 1931 attendance.

JAMESTOWN, N. Y.—Automatic Voting Machine corporation was awarded an order for 800 voting machines for Phialdelphia.

PHILADELPHIA. — Revenue freight loadings of the Pennsylvania railroad for the week ending Jan. 16 totaled 91,261 cars, compared with 89,319 cars in the preceding week.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. — Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance company increased insurance in force by about $61,000,000 during 1931.

EGGS HIT RECORD LOW AT PORTLAND

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 21.—(U.P.)—Lowest price ever named for eggs in the local market during the current month are now being quoted here as a result of complete demoralization of the eastern trade. At the reductions, the local market is still on a higher basis than the eastern market, cost of getting supplies to the Atlantic considered.

The cutting of 2c off the price of extras to 16c with standard 15c and medium 14c is confirmed by Manager Dixon of the local co-ops, effective Friday morning. New York dropped to 23c for extras and 19c for mediums, which means 14c here for extras and 10c for mediums. Some of the cash buyers have reduced their buying price to 8 to 10c dozen country.

Decreasing make of butter continues to be reflected in the local trade. Much similar situation is shown at practically all Pacific slope points. Some late decreases in eastern churning is indicated.

Demand for butter continues to gain and is now reported at fully a third more than it was previous to the late cut in the price. Two bit butter in some of the leading retail shops appears a very popular move and has forced a considerable surplus into consuming channels.

Very small supplies of live chickens are reaching the local trade but practically none appear wanted at the moment. Prices continue weak all around with killers determined to clean up their batteries before buying more.

There is a good local demand for turkeys but little change is shown in prices. Buyers are generally offering 19 to 20c lb. for fancy birds. Home demand for immediate consumption is good at the low price.

Columbia river smelt schools are badly scattered. The high water and drift wood are blamed. The fish are said to be swimming mostly in the brush along the shore. Priced nominally a nickel a pound.

Run of steelhead salmon spears about over in the Columbia and the coast streams are closed. Fresh Alaska kings are arriving and selling 25c lb. with head on. Crabs are scarce with orders unfilled.

Limited sales of onions are reported at Willamette valley points. Business in carload lots continues $3.50 sack net to growers. Most growers are still unwilling to accept price tenders.

On account of superior quality, the movement of local hothouse rhubarb is better than the summer stock on the Portland market. Price cutting has practically eliminated profits of handlers.

Lettuce market is down another quarter, and weaker.

Tomatoes are very slow for Mexicans on account of the price. Hothouse stock is slow but apparently steady.

Slow demand showing for hothouse cucumbers. Prices nominal.

Artichokes are steady to a trifle easier at a spread of 90c to $1.20 according to size.

Veal market appears a trifle easier in spots but general prices are unchanged. Hogs steady and lambs firm.

Cheese remains weak with intermountain stock underselling coast offerings.

Prominent Men to Speak Over Radio On Insurance Day

Three men of national renown will give radio addresses upon life insurance during national life insurance day, January 21.

Senator Robert F. Wagner, of New York, spoke over the Columbia Broadcasting System in the forenoon, at 11:45, E. S. T., and Senator Arthur Capper, of Kansas, spoke over the National Broadcasting System in the afternoon, at 2:30, E. S. T. Mr. Merle Thorp, famous editor of the Nation's Business, will speak in the evening for fifteen minutes, beginning at 7:45, E. S. T.

These addresses will express "outsiders'" views of life insurance as a service to individuals and as a part of the social system of to-day.

WOOL PRICES FIRM

BOSTON, Jan. 21.—(AP)—Volume of sales on 58-60's and 64's and finer western grown wools is fairly large prices are very firm on 58-60's territory wools and steady on finer grades. On 64's and finer territory wools average and short French combing staple is receiving the largest call. Graded French combing 64's and finer wools sell at 82 to 85c scoured basis, while original bag lines bringing 80 to 83 cents depending upon length of staple.

Chicago Grains Are Fairly Firm

CHICAGO, Jan. 21.—(AP)—Late rallies in wheat prices today largely overcame the effect of heavy selling ascribed to a bit speculative holder.

Reactions due to this selling were simultaneous with assertions that theoretically at present the United States could import wheat from Great Britain if it were not for the American protective tariff.

Bulls generally made much of the fact the new finance corporation bill would permit the corporation to finance United States export acceptance over a long period, whereas at present the federal reserve banks would discount acceptances for only 90 days.

Wheat closed nervous at the same as yesterday's finish to ¼ off, corn 1-8 to 3-8 down, oats unchanged to 1-8 higher, and provisions unchanged to a shade lower.

COTTAGE GROVE NEWS ITEMS

COTTAGE GROVE, Jan. 21.—(Special)—The vesper services at the Methodist church are increasing in favor with the people of the church and community. At a meeting of the official board Monday night, it was voted to continue them through February and March. Next Sunday evening Rev. Duncan P. Cameron, pastor of the Presbyterian church, will speak on "The Religion of Bobby Burns." The special music will be furnished by John Beardsley, of Eugene, and others.

The Gleaners Sunday School class of the Methodist Sunday school held a covered dish dinner and social hour at the church Monday night in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Barber, who are leaving this week for Ashland. Following the dinner, poetic expressions of appreciation of Mr. and Mrs. Barber were given by various members of the class; following this, games were played.
