Obituaries

Clifford H. Caldwell
Clifford H. Caldwell, 44, died at the soldiers' state home in Roseburg, Tuesday, Jan. 19, following a long illness.
He was born near Farmington, Wash. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Bell Caldwell of Irrigon, Ore.; six brothers, Fred, Clyde, and George, all of Irrigon, Carl and Walter of Umatilla, Ore., and Earl of Pasadena, Cal.; and three sisters, Mrs. Lulu Campbell and Mrs. Jessie Smith of Eugene and Mrs. Pearl Potts of Seaside, Cal.
Funeral services are to be held Saturday afternoon at the Veatch chapel at 2 o'clock, Dr. E. V. Stivers officiating. Interment will be in the new I. O. O. F. cemetery.

James Daniel Campbell
James Daniel Campbell, 61, of Alvadore, died Wednesday night at the Eugene hospital. Mr. Campbell was born in Red Oak, Iowa, on Dec. 24, 1871. At the age of 14 he moved to Smith county, Kansas, with his parents. He came to Oregon in 1914 and on June 28, 1915, was married to Miss Etta Owen of Eugene. In 1918 the Campbells went to Kansas, spending six years on a farm before returning to Oregon in 1924. Mr. Campbell conducted a store at Lancaster for three years, then spent several months in California, returning to Oregon again to conduct a store at Alvadore for the past three years. He was well-known in the community. Besides his widow, he is survived by a brother, John A. L. Campbell of Lincoln, Nebr.; three sisters, Mrs. Gertie McNealy of Yakima, Wash., Mrs. Alice Clemens of Franklin, Nebr., and Mrs. Ollie Thurman of Alvadore. Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Poole-Gray-Bartholomew chapel, with Rev. E. M. Whitesmith officiating. Interment will be in the new I. O. O. F. cemetery.

P. T. Carter
Pleasant T. Carter died at his home Wednesday afternoon after an illness of three weeks.
Mr. Carter was born near Leavenworth, Kansas, Jan. 16, 1859. He came to Oregon as a young man, settling near Jasper with his brother. He was married in Fall Creek, Aug. 31, 1881.
He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Elizabeth Carter; two children, Mrs. Frank Moore, 513 east Broadway, Eugene, and Kenneth R. Carter, 768 Fourth avenue west; two brothers, Marion Carter of Bend, and Harry Carter of Leaburg; one sister, Mrs. Mary Frazier, Yakima, Wash.
Funeral services are to be held Friday morning at 10 o'clock at the Poole-Gray-Bartholomew chapel, Rev. C. S. Bergstresser of the Bethany Evangelical church officiating. Interment will be in the Leaburg cemetery.

EDITOR'S MEET STORY

papers." These talks are expected to set the keynote of discussion for the conference—that of economies in newspaper production.
At noon Friday special luncheons are being planned for members of the United and Associated Press organizations to be held at the Anchorage. Sigma Delta Chi, journalism fraternity, and Alpha Delta Sigma, advertising fraternity are staging a no-host luncheon at the same time for members of the conference not attending either of the two other functions. Roger Alton Pfaff, member of the University of Oregon's Pacific Basin Good-will debate team, will speak at this luncheon.

Sections to Meet
The afternoon's program will be divided into two sections; one for the publishers of weekly newspapers, the other for publishers of daily newspapers.
In the daily division, William M. Tugman, managing editor of the Eugene Register-Guard, will tell of the reader interest survey recently completed by senior members of the University school of journalism. One of the members of the class conducting the survey will follow with a detailed account of the actual operation of collecting the data of the investigation.
Sheldon F. Sackett, co-publisher of the Oregon Statesman, will present a forecast of the future of the newspaper industry. E. A. Brown, advertising manager of the Salem Capital Journal, will discuss the desirability and success of newspaper cooking schools.

Weeklies Program
The program for the weekly division of the conference is as follows:
2:00 p. m.—"Merchandising the Newspaper"—Max Schafer, publisher of the Seaside Signal.
2:45 p. m.—"Specialty Printing and Supplies as Sources of Revenue"—Lawrence E. Spraker, publisher of the Condon Globe-Times.
3:15 p. m.—"Circulation Audits for Weekly Newspapers"—Jack Bladine, editor of the McMinnville Telephone-Register.
3:45 p. m.—"Group Buying of Newsprint and Paper"—Hugh McGilvra, publisher of the Forest Grove News-Times.
4:15 p. m.—"Editorials of Oregon Weeklies, Reviewed by a Weekly Editor"—Giles L. French, editor of the Sherman County Journal.
A banquet, to be held at the Osburn hotel, at which the Eugene chamber of commerce will act as host to the visiting editors, will take up the evening, Friday. Quincy Scott, cartoonist for the Portland Oregonian, will tell of the work of a newspaper cartoonist. T. O. Russell, president of the Eugene chamber will extend an official welcome to the delegates.
For the first time in the history of the annual banquet the program will be broadcast over KORE. Announcement of the winner of the "Best Weekly" contest sponsored by Sigma Delta Chi, will also be made at the gathering at the hotel.
The banquet is open to townspeople as well as University students and faculty. Tickets are on sale at the chamber of commerce and at the school of journalism on the campus.
Saturday's program will consist of a business meeting in the morning and a luncheon at the men's dormitory at noon.
