

City News Notes

WHAT'S DOING
Wednesday
Up to 8:30 p. m.—Rose show of ladies' auxiliary to chamber of commerce at chamber of commerce.
7:30 p. m.—Eugene Building Congress meeting, chamber of commerce.
8 p. m.—Crow Tax Equalization League meeting, community hall.
Thursday
12 noon—Weekly luncheon at Eugene Active club, Osburn hotel.
12 noon—Monthly luncheon and election of officers for Business and Professional Women's club, Osburn hotel.
At For Jam—
Club women and groups of Eugene who each year have contributed fruit, jam, preserves, etc., to the Doernbecher hospital for crippled children in Portland are reminded that strawberries are very cheap now and that jam is badly needed at the hospital. The jam at usual are in the basement of the Westminster house on the campus and can be obtained from there. Each year Eugene residents give generously as had need this year as jam is said.
Dolls Given—
A group of 15 high school and university students will be presented a piano recital Thursday evening, June 9, at 8 o'clock at the Eugene hotel by Reuben Charles Gottfried. The public is invited. On Tuesday evening, Donald Edwards and Dorothy Hayes, both pupils of Mr. Gottfried, were presented in recital at Junction City. They are to appear on the Thursday program. Wilda Hicks and Bobby Hicks, daughter and son of Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Hicks, were presented in recital at the McMoran and Washburne store on the past Saturday by Mr. Gottfried and again Tuesday evening in Junction City.
Evangelist Startles Audience—
A large audience at the evangelistic tent at the corner of Eighth street and Madison street Tuesday night was startled when Jack Wasset, the "cowboy preacher," made unusual statements in his message. Some in the audience thought he would not be able to prove his statements but seemingly did so to the satisfaction of the crowd. He is expected Wednesday evening, the title being "The Beginning When."
Visiting Here—
Miss Justine Ackerson, who has been teaching school at Harrington, Wash., has returned to spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ackerson, of Eugene. Louisa Shelton, who taught school in the same place, accompanied Miss Ackerson to Eugene where she will spend part of the summer.
To Give Addresses—
Rev. Francis P. Leipzig, pastor of St. Mary's Catholic church, will deliver the commencement address at Mt. Angel academy, Thursday, June 9. Father Leipzig returned to Eugene Tuesday evening from Corvallis where he delivered the invocation for the opening of the annual convention of the Oregon fire chiefs.
Big Scorpion Found—
H. C. Maxwell, motor route A, brought to the Register-Guard office this week a large scorpion which he caught while exploring a hole on south Willamette. Maxwell lifted up a rock and the scorpion, a particularly healthy specimen measuring about two inches, ran out.
Newlyweds Return—
Mr. and Mrs. Stanley J. Crouch have returned from their wedding trip through eastern Oregon and Washington. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Jennings and the groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Linn Crouch.
Examinations Begin—
Twenty-four applicants for teachers' certificates presented themselves at the court house Wednesday for the semi-annual examinations. Several more are expected by E. J. Moore, county superintendent, to appear on Thursday and Friday.
Farmers' Union Meets—
The Oregon Truck local of the Farmers' Union will meet in regular session June 10 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Brabham. A report of the state convention will be given and matters of interest are to come up. It is announced. Members are expected to bring lunch.
Mr. and Mrs. Baketell Here—
Irene A. Baketell, financial editor of the Oregonian, accompanied by Mrs. Baketell was here during the state bankers' convention. Mrs. Baketell is a former resident of Eugene, being Miss Mabel Stiles when she lived here.
Morse At Graduation—
P. M. Morse, county engineer, returned home Wednesday from Portland where he attended the graduation of his daughter, Miss Katherine Morse, from the Multnomah county hospital.
Report From Hospital—
E. D. Sherwood, Wendling, and E. H. Morris, Eugene, were listed among those admitted to the Eugene hospital in the report given on Wednesday morning, and Don Kelly, Lorane, was listed as dismissed.
Pasadena Folk Here—
Mr. and Mrs. Newton Shipley and daughter and Mrs. Shipley's mother, Mrs. L. W. Hatch, all of Pasadena, Cal., are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan E. Mitchell of College Crest.
Jay McCormick Here—
Jay McCormick has arrived from Salinas, Cal., on his annual fishing trip up Willamette slough. McCormick maintains his home in Eugene, but has a business at Salinas.
Society To Entertain—
The Active club is to have its regular meeting Thursday noon at the Osburn hotel. For the program, members of the Boy Scouts troop, No. 3, sponsored by the Active club, will put on the numbers.
Visit Mrs. Davenport—
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gillis and daughter, Glen of Oakland, Cal., called at the home of Mrs. Ella Davenport Tuesday. They were at Berkeley, Cal., during the recent earthquake.
H. E. Club To Meet—
The H. E. club of Irving will meet at the Eugene hall Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. All women requested to be present. A potluck lunch will be served.
Returns To Eugene—
Miss Helen, who has been teaching school in Powers, Oregon, has returned to Eugene to spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Guy E. Barton.

Visits Farm—
County Agent O. S. Fletcher was making farm visits along the Lorane highway Wednesday afternoon, giving special attention to rodent control and Ladino clover problems.

I SAW—
An item in a Coquille paper quoting a resident of that city as having seen the dirigible Akron as it was "moored 400 feet over Eugene, waiting for better weather to go on to Portland."—M. R.

What Did You See?

Eugene Man Arrested—
Stanley Richardson of Eugene was arrested at Roseburg Tuesday night charged with possession of liquor. Sheriff Jackson, who made the arrest, said Richardson had 12 gallons of liquor in a Roseburg camp ground cabin.

Stolen Car Found—
Residents of the neighborhood reported two men pushing an automobile near Seventh and Polk Wednesday morning. On investigation, Officer Quinn of the Eugene police found an abandoned model T Ford belonging to Dowdy Francis of Crow, Ore.

Hurd Up McKenzie—
Clinton Hurd, county commissioner, was in the upper McKenzie valley Wednesday, conferring with county road supervisors regarding work in their several districts.

Woodmen To Give Dance—
The Woodmen of the World are planning a dance at the Woodmen hall Wednesday evening in honor of their queen candidate, Marguerite Cottrill.

Moves From Roseburg—
G. Heminger, second-hand dealer of Roseburg, has closed his shop there and moved to Eugene where he has accepted employment.

Cottage Grove Couple Here—
Mr. and Mrs. George McQueen of Cottage Grove were in Eugene Tuesday, visiting Mr. and Mrs. George H. Jennings.

Visit At Tyson Home—
Mr. and Mrs. Walter Vassal of Dallas visited Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Tyson while Mr. Vassal attended the state bankers' convention.

Dexter Sparks Here—
Dexter Sparks of the Sparks ranch at Blue river was a business visitor in Eugene Wednesday.

Bicycle Stolen—
Jack Rowland, 1670 Olive, reported his bicycle stolen Tuesday night from near the Rex theater.

Mrs. Kinnaird Returns—
Mrs. J. H. Kinnaird returned to Mapleton Wednesday after a visit of a few days in Eugene.

Mrs. Withrum Here—
Mrs. W. Withrum resident of the Blachly section, was a visitor in Eugene Tuesday.

Here From Westfir—
Mrs. E. W. McNamar of Westfir was a visitor in Eugene Wednesday.

FRENCH CUTS-LOOSE
GIVING AWAY 284 NEW GARMENTS
DRESSES

It Starts Tomorrow, Early, at 8:30 THURSDAY
Beginning the Second Big Week of Our
CLOSE-OUT SALE
Selling Out Everything-Closing Up Until This Fall

Every New Color

Our Very Finest Grade
TRIPLE SHEER
$24.30 SILK
DRESSES FREE

Exactly 81 exclusive models, no two alike in model or color combinations. Washable Chalk Crepes, New Prints, Waistline and Jacket effects, an infinite variety, sizes 14 to 20—and a Dress Free with any one of them.

A Gay Color
Variety of $16.75
SILK
Dresses FREE

White and colored trimmed whites, the favored colors in pastel, exquisite silks, heavy, rich weaves that hold their drape. And they all have that exclusive look of higher priced things. Sizes run up to 20 and 38's. Take two for what the first one costs.

Every New Weave

Our Very Finest Grade
TRIPLE SHEER
$24.30 SILK
DRESSES FREE

Quite a few lace insert, triple Canton, two-piece and party or function dresses of the gown type in staid and "always good" black and gayer, younger colors, all with that different charm of the better designers, sizes to 20—and a dress wrapped with each—Free.

A Wide Selection from this Big Group of
$14.20 SILK
New All Occasion
DRESSES FREE

Variety girls' things with plenty of pep—Business girls' dresses for Service—and colorful things you'll see at every resort and beach this summer, made for sizes to 20 and 38—and another dress—with each dress Free.

And—To Complete Your Sports Wardrobe
$9.95
Leather Jackets FREE

Made for us for U. of O. and Oregon wear, the right colors and the right linings for golf, beach, or the mountain cabin this summer—You have the option of a Suit or Dress with each one Free—for 3 days.

Greater Values Than Ever!

Greater Savings Here

Sensational Savings On These Spiffy White and Pastel Coats

New White SWAGGER

Diagonal Weaves—Honeycombs, narrow collars, no belts, push pockets, and three-quarter length, milled bell sleeves and milled raglan sleeves—style features you'll want in a white coat to be in style.

$10.70

Sizes 14 to 20

Our Entire Stock of New Spring COATS

Formerly Priced at $16.75—$19.75 and $28.75

1/2 off

Final Sale Prices Now 8.37 - 9.90 - 14.35

Mixed $1 and $1.25 SILK HOSE

Service and chiffon, this summer's colors by 3 makers whose names we are not supposed to advertise, about 73 pairs of 8 1/2—9—9 1/2 and 10's.

49c Pair

EVERY RACK Re-Grouped For This Great Event Thursday Friday Saturday

All Our FINEST NEWEST
1932 MODES
INCLUDED!
NONE RESERVED!
NONE HELD BACK!
NONE WITHDRAWN!

Every New Fabric

Every New Style

More Real Savings Than Comparative Sale Prices

With so many cut price sales in Eugene—you'd probably doubt our word if we said "Half Price"—so we'll prove it beyond all doubt—a Dress Free with a Dress—double value in concrete form that you just can't deny is a saving. There's bound to be a rush—so better come down EARLY THURSDAY!

The FRENCH SHOPPE
SELLING OUT—CLOSING UP TILL FALL
MINER BUILDING ANNEX ON EAST BROADWAY, EUGENE