

Berries Plentiful Still; Stock Market See-Saws

FINE QUALITY ON MARKETS NOW; ALL PRODUCE IS STEADY

Monday brought out a large display of strawberries, due to the double picking over Sunday. Prices continued to hold at levels of the latter part of the week, going generally in the retail trade at 70 cents a crate and at 6 and 7 boxes for 25 cents. Some fine canning ones are coming in now, being more firm than those that went through the rain.

A few shifts in vegetable prices were reported for Monday. Beets and carrots are down to 30 cents a dozen bunches, buying prices. New potatoes are down to 3 cents and new peas are listed at 5 cents, buying price. There is a big supply of the home grown peas on the market now.

All produce, eggs, poultry, butter, buttermilk, as usual for a Monday were unchanged, awaiting returns from Portland during the day.

No changes in grains and hay were reported.

Following were the prices for the day here:

BUTTER DECREASES ON PORTLAND MART

PORTLAND, Ore., June 13.—(AP)—There is real decrease in the current of butter in Portland today according to the latest survey while trade conditions are considered fully steady. Butterfat is unchanged.

Sluggish trade trend is continued in the market for fancy quality country milked calves is strong with prices steady. Hogs are steady as are top lambs but cows and bulls are weak with a carryover.

Further boom in tomato prices has been caused here by the hot weather which created an abnormal demand which the trade is unable to take care of. Sales 18-22 1-4c lb.

Market for both old and new crop potatoes appears about steady in the local territory; no change of consequence being reflected in values. Recent local demand for old stock has been increased. New crop steady.

General betterment in the trade is reflected in cantaloupes with higher prices the rule here. Good quality stock is moving but poor stuff is dragging.

Lemons are advancing with the hot weather and smaller crop.

Oranges and grapefruit are unchanged.

Watermelons are moving better with prices held.

Strawberries are steady to a fraction better.

Apricots are dragging with lugs down to 75c top.

Market for salmon is showing liberal increase in supplies.

Halibut is moving out well into the Chubbis.

There remains a surplus of crabs although demand is good.

East Side Market

First string beans out of the Oregon country are offered during the Monday session of the East Side Farmers' market. They were from the Dalles and were of the yellow variety.

WOOL MARKET

BOSTON, June 13.—(AP)—Quoted domestic wool values appear somewhat firmer as many wool men feel that the recent movement of wool, though limited, rested from an increase in sale of wool. There is a tendency of wool prices and prospects for some improvement in the goods market led some buyers of semi-manufactured products of wool to give more attention to future needs in raw materials. The receipts of domestic wool at Boston during the week ending June 11, estimated by the Boston grain and flour exchange amounted to 4,450,890 pounds, as compared with 3,254,500 pounds during the previous week.

Loss Shown Again In Wheat Futures

PORTLAND, Ore., June 13.—(AP)—Further fractional loss of 1/4c bu. was shown in wheat futures today with prices set down without offerers losing any money. There were no sales.

As in recent days the bear forces controlling the merchants' exchange, sent cash down more than futures, a loss of 1/4c bu. being shown for Monday.

Small lots of new alfalfa hay are reaching Portland at 13.50 at 14.50 ton. Small supply of old vetch is quoted $13 and eastern Oregon timothy $18 ton.

HAMMERS BANG PRELUDE TO CONVENTION!

To the din of hammers, saws and riveting machines, Chicago's block-square stadium is being decked out for the Republican National convention which will open Tuesday, June 14. The above photo shows the work in progress. Shirts of the 48 states and the territories will be hung against a background of flags and bunting. Fifteen hundred flags will be used, two of them 18 feet long, to be suspended from beams in the center of the stadium. Tri-colored pendants 20 feet long will flank the flags and a gold-encircled canopy made of 88 squares of bunting, each 15 by 21 feet, will form the ceiling. Construction, including platforms and booths, is costing Republicans $31,000. Most of the renovations and decorations will serve the Democratic convention as well.

small fractions of the lows for the season. Lack of support was the chief factor but the weakness at Kansas City and scattered liquidation kept the market on the downward trend from the outset with few rallies, the decline being checked by buying against bids. Business at Liverpool was also a factor. Corn was relatively stronger than wheat and finished uneven. Oats were extremely dull, easing toward the last. Rye kept pace with wheat, showing weakness.

At the close wheat was 1 1-8 to 1-4 lower, corn was 1-8c lower to 1-4c higher, oats were 1-8 to 1-4c lower and rye was 5-8 to 3-4c lower. Provisions were dull and easier.
