Obituaries
Mrs. Anna Frisbee
HAILEY, July 6.—(Special).—Anna Frisbee, 67, died at her home, 1417 1/2, Sunday night, July 3, 1934, where she had made her home for a little over one year.
Mrs. Frisbee grew to womanhood in Cumberland and attended the local school there. On May 30, 1892, she was united in marriage to Otto B. Frisbee, also of Cumberland. To this union were born three daughters, Mrs. Esther Frisbee Bond of Halsey, Mrs. Lucile Frisbee Curtice of Jackson, Michigan, and Miss Evelyn Frisbee of Halsey, all of whom survive. Two grandchildren, Wellington Bond and Marilyn Joanne Bond, also survive as well as a brother, William Covert, of Cumberland, Ohio; and three sisters, Mrs. Josie Millhorne of Seneca, Ohio, Mrs. Clara Philpot of St. Louis, Mo., and Miss Cora Covert of Jackson, Michigan. Her parents and one sister preceded her in death.
Mrs. Frisbee united with the Cumberland Presbyterian church early in life and since coming to Halsey transferred her membership to the Halsey Methodist Episcopal church.
Funeral arrangements are not complete but they will probably be held Wednesday afternoon at the local Methodist Episcopal church, with Rev. Omar Ide, pastor of the church, officiating, and Dana C. Rossman, local undertaker, in charge. Services will be at 2 p. m. with interment in the Alford cemetery south of Halsey.

The locals had difficulty in getting a team together on account of the Fourth of July week-end, and augmented its lineup with players from Eugene, Corvallis and Roseburg, and even had one player from Topeka, Kansas. FILM HELD OVER
A special aquatic picture, "Splash," will be held over from Tuesday night and run as part of the program on Wednesday night. It was announced today by the management. The picture shows world champions such as Buster Crabbe, Mickey and Johnny O'Reilly, Georgia Coleman and number of others in swimming and diving exhibitions. The picture will show Wednesday night only, as part of the bill with "Miracle Man."

Bim Johnson, Helig theater manager, seems to have a habit of booking pictures which, in spite of the lack of "big names" and million dollar budgets, sparkle with so much originality and humor as to make them outstanding. Such a picture was "The Strange Case of Anna Louvain." Such a picture was "The Office Girl." And such a picture is "Steady Company," with June Clyde, Norman Foster and Zasu Pitts which opened Wednesday at the Helig.
The story is crammed with humor. This screen story has the trouble start when beautiful June Clyde loses the heel of one of her slippers and succumbs to the offer of a good looking truck driver to take her to her destination. Thrills and joyous love follows as the smitten truck-driver determines to win fame for his lady love by way of the roped-arena.
The young man's choice of profession proves to be wrong as far as the girl is concerned, and as fortune arrives for the erstwhile auto pilot "love flies out the window."
A kindly friend of both, an Italian shoemaker, played superbly by Henry Armetta—comes to the rescue and furnishes some of the most delicious movie comedy in months in so doing. You'll enjoy this picture.—R. C.
