

LETTER CARRIERS TO GO TO ROSEBURG

Eugene branch No. 916 of the National Letter Carriers' association will send three delegates to the Oregon state convention of the association at Roseburg, Saturday, July 9. The delegates are Orval A. Richardson, Cecil C. Henderson and C. N. Allen.

The national organization will be represented by Dan R. Sullivan of San Francisco, who is a member of the national executive board.

The women's auxiliary also has its state convention at this time and the local auxiliary will be represented by Mrs. Hazel Hantke and Mrs. Fern Henderson. About 25 persons are planning to attend from Eugene.

JUNCTION CITY NEWS ITEMS

JUNCTION CITY, July 8.—(Special)—Mrs. George Armstrong of Portland spent the holiday week-end at the home of Mrs. John Davidson. Mr. and Mrs. Al Swartz and Mrs. Swartz' son, W. Gragor, and wife and son drove to Sisters Sunday and visited relatives there until Wednesday. Mr. Swartz says there was a heavy frost there each night. Mr. and Mrs. Gragor remained at Sisters where Mr. Gragor will work in a mill. Mrs. Clarence Harpole had as her week-end guest her sister, Mrs. E. McCallum and son from Washington. On the fourth Mr. and Mrs. Harpole and their guests and Mrs. Nancy Harpole and Mr. Taylor spent the day at the Frank Hubbs home at Franklin. Mr. and Mrs. Will Crowley of South Dakota called on Mrs. Bell Goodrich Tuesday. The two families were friends and neighbors many years ago in the middle west and had not met for 25 or 30 years. The Crowleys were making a tour of the west and were en route to California. Word has been received here of the death of Mrs. Charles Schenck in Arizona recently. Mrs. Schenck had many friends in Junction City.

she lived with her family for several years, going from here to Eugene. She had been in the south for several years and her husband died three years ago and she had since made her home with her sons. Mrs. Schenck died undergoing an operation. Leale Moore and family have moved into Mrs. Tracer's house on Kalina street between Ninth and Tenth. Mr. Moore has been employed at the mill but it is not running now. Mr. and Mrs. Tony Jensen and family spent Sunday and Monday at Oregon City and Portland. Mrs. Sarah Adams returned home days with her sister in Eugene. Dr. W. W. Hicks and Mrs. Hicks will have for company for a few days Mr. and Mrs. William Swank of Deer Lodge, Mont. They arrived from the south Wednesday evening. Mr. Swank is a cousin of Mrs. Hicks.

was $15,000. Officials of the Jacobson-Jensen company announced Friday that grading work would be started early next week. Lane county officials have been busy obtaining right-of-way for this section of the road and everything is completed and in readiness for the contractors to start work. Clinton Hurd, county commissioner, said Friday. Start of work on this section will give employment to many Lane county men, county officials stated.

COMMANDER KILLED
RIVERSIDE, Cal., July 8.—(UP)—

Lieut. Hugh C. Minter, commander of the 73rd pursuit squadron, Marine Corps, was seriously injured when two army planes collided at an altitude of 2500 feet over the town of Perris, near here.

Vets Hear Plans For Big Conclaves

Final reports of committees in charge of arrangements for the annual state convention of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, to be held here this month, were presented at the meeting of the local post at the armory Thursday night. The committees reported everything in readiness for the convention. This is the last meeting of the local post prior to the convention July 21, 22, 23. Three new members were taken into the post at this meeting.
