

Eugene Townies Meet Albany In Oregon State League Game Sunday

CITY CLUB TIED WITH THREE TEAMS FOR FIRST PLACE

The Eugene Townies, who were dropped into a four-way tie for first place in the Oregon state league when they lost to Salem last week, will attempt to stage a come-back when they meet the Albany Aces on the fair grounds here Sunday afternoon.

The state loop has developed into one of the greatest "horse races" in the history of the several leagues in which Eugene has participated, and the Townies, Westside, Pacific Outfitting and Salem are all in the tie for the leadership.

Westside will face with Salem at Salem and Pacific Outfitting will meet Bend Sunday and the best Eugene can hope for is to remain in the first place tie for another week at least. Pacific Outfitting will be favored to take Bend, while the Salem-Westside game will be a tossup.

Chappie King, manager of the Townies, will probably keep his youthful battery of Westside and Bishop at work Sunday. It is generally agreed that the Townies were "robbed" of victory by haphazard umpiring last week at Salem and the city players hope to recoup their lost fortunes against Albany.

The Aces will be no setup, however. Though they have lost four and won only two this season, they have been playing right in there every week and are primed to upset the erstwhile league leaders here.

Jack Van Duhn, Townie outfielder, is leading the club hitters with an average of .555. Van Duhn missed some games while away at national guard camp but has been at bat 18 times for a total of 43 hits. Dick Bishop, the Townie's youthful catcher, is next to Bishop with a percentage of .444. Here are the individual averages of the city players:

GOOD GAL!

Here's Texas' one-girl track team, Mildred "Babe" Didrickson, of Dallas, who captured her state's A. A. U. championship single handed and then went ahead to place in several Olympic events. She has the first one ever had in the 18 years of her life.

REAGAN GRANTED ANOTHER CHANCE AT WALTER ACHIU

Something different in the way of an opening event has been slated for Friday evening's mat card. Pat Reagan, Wyoming grappler, has requested as a special favor that he be allowed to wrestle Walter "Snooze" Achiu, Chinaman, in the 45 minute event and Herb Owen, promoter, has okayed the match.

The oriental Sonnenberger has agreed and the Reagan-Achiu match will be staged as a preliminary to the championship contest between Don Hill of Kansas and Wildcat Pete of Eugene.

Reagan has been out of condition for his recent matches and says he's back in shape now and faster than ever. Following the death of his father in Wyoming, Reagan did not do much wrestling and was in poor shape following his return to Eugene.

Says Walt Tough: "He has been working out every afternoon in the armory and appears to be in splendid condition. He turned in the request for the match with Achiu, he says, because Achiu is the toughest thrower he knows. He says he plans to throw Achiu and re-establish himself in public favor here."

Meanwhile, with plans for the card complete, the advance ticket sale is booming downtown. Though most of the ringside seats are gone, there are still plenty of bleacher seats available and Owen advises all who plan to attend the matches to buy their seats in advance as he anticipates a long line and considerable confusion at the box office. The reserved seats go for 40 cents, the price charged for general admission tickets.

Owen will have a staff of workmen on hand Friday afternoon to set up the ring and bleachers following the horse races on the fairgrounds. The card will open at 8:35 and will be preceded by a 10 minute entertainment.

THREE CHAMPS FALL IN OLYMPIC BOUTS

SAN FRANCISCO, July 21.—(AP)—Bowling over three champions, 28 hard fluted young men were ready today for semi-final bouts tonight in the trypouts for places on the United States boxing team to the Olympic games.

Ten of the 28 bouts on the first round card staged last night ended in technical knockouts. Ten thousand fans, all the auditorium would hold, witnessed the colorful six hours of leather pushing by America's best amateurs.

The biggest upset of the evening was the defeat by technical knockout of Dennis Flynn, Loyola university, New Orleans, intercollegiate middleweight champion. Referee Jack Demsey awarded the bout to Ray Bohanan, U. S. navy, Annapolis, in the second round after Flynn was floored for a count of nine.

Richard Carter, New York, A. A. U. featherweight champion, lost by decision to Holman Williams, Detroit. Williams clearly outboxed Carter throughout, punishing him with long lefts and rights.

Fred Lynch, Portland, Ore., scored a knockdown in the third round to win a furious bout with A. B. Wertheimer, New Orleans university, national intercollegiate champion.

AT NEW YORK—Ebbets Field—Primo Carnera, 288, Italy, stopped Jack Gross, 206, Philadelphia (7); Jack Rodman, 195, South Bend, Ind., knocked out Eddie Benson, 185, Brooklyn (7).

AT MEDFORD, Ore.—Leo Lomski, Portland, Ore., heavyweight, knocked out Jack McCarthy, San Francisco, in the fourth round of a scheduled ten round bout. Red Howe, Marshfield, Ore., heavyweight, knocked out Roy Sullivan, Tacoma, Wash. (3). Bob Christie, Medford welterweight, knocked out Charley Benton, Portland (3).

HIGH CLIMBER Looks 'em over

By ROY CRAFT

If you like dogs, and especially if you like little ones, drop out to the Eugene riding academy some afternoon. Diana, Irish setter, known to her many friends as "Red," is the mother of 12 (twelve) little sons and daughters. They arrived Sunday night and though their eyes aren't open yet, they are already showing plenty of pep and enthusiasm.

J. A. McLain, Red's owner, is very proud of the youngsters and welcomes visitors. There are eight little girls and four little boys in the lot and they all look alike. They usually wander away from their mother but when they get hungry, they put their noses to the floor and track their way back like bloodhounds.

The dogs are eligible for registration but McLain has not registered them yet. They come from a fine strain of field dogs and already show their proud breeding.

Although it seems early in the year to consider a high school football, a good deal of interest has been aroused over the high school race this fall, featuring Fritz Kramer's Purple Horde and the Golden Tide of University High. It will be remembered that the senior East Side team upset the highly touted Kramerians last fall by a close 7 to 6 score, and local fans are beginning to wonder what the outcome of the game will be this year.

Although no official announcement has been made, it is understood that Choppie Parke, Oregon ace halfback, will lead the Golden Tide through the 1932 season. Parke will be greeted by a turnout conspicuous for its absence of veterans. Chuck Hansen, ace center, Stew Milligan, triple threat man and great individual star, Fred Mountain, tough blocking half, all graduated. Jerry Denslow, quarterback, is also gone.

PORTLAND TAKES SECOND STRAIGHT FROM HOLLYWOOD

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

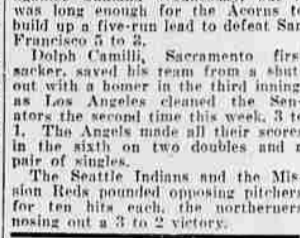

For the second time in a row Portland's Beavers demonstrated why they lead the league, as Pitcher John Prudhomme blanked the second-place Hollywood Stars 4 to 0 last night.

The victory put Portland three games ahead of the clubbers. Prudhomme allowed but four hits, while the Ducks gathered eight off Turner.

Ken Douglas pitched only three and one-third innings for the Seals against Oakland Wednesday, but it was long enough for the Aces to build up a five-run lead to defeat San Francisco 5 to 2.

Dolph Camilli, Sacramento first sacker, saved his team from a shut-out with a homer in the third inning, as Los Angeles cleaned the Seals. He returns the second time this week, 3 to 1. The Angels made all their scores in the sixth on two doubles and a pair of singles.

The Seattle Indians and the Mission Reds opposed pitchers for ten hits each, the northerners nosing out a 3 to 2 victory.

NEW YORK, July 21.—(AP)—Don't think I am not just as patriotic as the next guy. It will warm the cockles of my heart if America's flag goes up on the central masthead after every event. And I have just as many cockles as anybody.

On the other hand, I'd like to ask these professional sports patriots who are grousing about with tears in their eyes because they're afraid Ben Eastman may not run the 800-meter, and therefore we may (alas and two or three blacks) not win this specialty, what in the hell are the Olympics, anyway?

Are they merely something to "prove" a lot of athletic supremacy, to show that the U. S., or Estonia, or Senegambia has a race of supermen? Or are they for sports—the improvement of racial understanding and the improvement of international and human friendship?

Furthermore, now that I'm in the question-banding business, how about bandying a few questions on this so-called "inter-sectional rivalry" that is bringing bowls from the professional sports.

Inter-sectional rivalries plus the man-against-man competition emphasized, is exactly, completely, entirely, and wholly, (to put the matter briefly) the sort of thing that has stimulated sport and created champions.

I've read half a dozen dispatches from Los Angeles, and each went and mourned over Dink Templeton's insistence that Eastman take another crack at Carr, his conqueror the last two times they met over the 400-meter route. I say hurray for Templeton and hurray for Eastman. What difference does it make if England or France or Switzerland or Bulgaria does win the 800-meter? We'll all get the next day just the same. If Genune and Hornbostel and Turner can't win the 800, then I say let some other nation have it.

"Babe" Didrickson Is Whole Track Team In One Person

By WILLIAM WEEKES (Associated Press Sports Writer)

DYCHE STADIUM, Evanston, Ill., July 21.—(AP)—Miss Mildred Didrickson, of Dallas, Texas, who prefers to be called Babe, will lead the American women's Olympic track and field team, and such assistance as she may need against the foreign invasion will be provided by 14 other young ladies.

The babe, a wiry 19-year-old lass who works as a clerk in an insurance office in Dallas last week, did just what she declared she would do—won the national A. A. U. track and field championship single handed and reserved for herself three places on the Olympic squad.

Incidental to her big day's work in which she raced from one event to another, changing shoes between times, were five first places, a tie for another and a fourth. One world record went to her credit, and she shared another.

Miss Didrickson piled up 50 points for the Employers Casualty club. The Illinois Women's Athletic club of Chicago finished second with 22, the

Steele Wins Nod Over Ralph Chong

SEATTLE, July 21.—(AP)—Freddie Steele, featherweight champion of the northwest, beat a terrific tattoo on the body of Ralph Chong, New Orleans Chinese, to easily win the six round main event of a boxing program here last night.

In the semi-final event, Jimmy Britt, welterweight from Tacoma, won a decision over Vibenco Alcantara, Manila, in six rounds. Paul Delaney, Seattle middleweight, plastered "Wild Man" O'Hanigan, from one post to another to win a clean decision. Ros Dumaguila, featherweight from Manila, defeated Johnnie Snell of Portland in a hard fight.

Booth to Play in Olympic Grid Game

LOS ANGELES, July 21.—(AP)—Albie Booth, Yale's great halfback, has passed up the motion pictures for the demonstration football game which will be staged here on the night of Aug. 8 as part of the Xth Olympiad.

The pocket-size ball carrier who flashed across the eastern gridirons for three years made this decision today. At the same time, Johnny Baker, University of Southern California guard whose field goal in the last few minutes of play beat Notre Dame last fall, announced that he would pass up the game to take a brief fling in the pictures.

Booth will play on the eastern team composed of senior stars of Yale, Harvard and Princeton. Baker will have been a member of the western team from Stanford, California and Southern California.

Kid McCoy Leaves Prison Thursday

SAN QUENTIN PRISON, July 21.—(AP)—"Kid" McCoy, past master of boxing, packed his belongings here today in preparation for a return to the world after seven years and three months in prison.

The former claimant to the middleweight championship of the world arrived from a prison road camp last night, unguarded. He was to leave the prison at 9 a. m. for a short trip to the office of State Parole Agent Ed Whyte in San Francisco. There he was to meet two sisters from Los

Reynold's Wife Gives First Aid

WASHINGTON, July 21.—(AP)—Carl Reynolds, outfielder for the Washington Nationals, has his wife to thank for saving him from an embarrassing and threatening situation.

Since July 4 Reynolds' upper and lower teeth have been wired together to hasten the knitting of his jawbone, cracked when he was slugged by Bill Dickey, New York Yankee catcher, in a now historic encounter.

Riding in a cab with his wife, Reynolds became ill and choked. Stopping the cab under a street light, Mrs. Reynolds quickly cut the restraining wires with a pair of manicure scissors, and Carl could breathe again.

Old Indian Wants To See Olympics

ALBANY, Ore., July 21.—(AP)—Albany athletic fans were using a fund today with which to send a year old Indian who claims to be Chief Tewanna, famed Carlisle ball star, to the Olympic games.

The aged Indian ran out of town here. He said an automobile accident in Montana exhausted his funds.

Chief Tewanna was a star of 1904 Olympic games.

16-Year Old Boy Leads Public Meet

LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 21.—(AP)—Thirty-two survivors of the two qualifying rounds teed off today on the first 18 holes of match play in the national public links golf championship over the Shawnee club course.

Nichols was runner-up last year to Charles Ferrara of San Francisco, defending champion.
