

CHURCHES UNITE FOR BIG MEETING

VENETA, July 27.—(Special).—The churches of Veneta have united for a big meeting on Sunday night, July 31, for a religious and missionary demonstration and call to duty. The churches of Veneta, including the Lutheran, Methodist, Baptist, Presbyterian, and others, are all invited to take part in the evening service. The feature of the evening will be a presentation of the "The Cross of the World," a play written by Lois Gardiner, which is being presented by the Veneta High School. The play is a story of a young man who is called to duty and who sacrifices himself for his country. The play is being presented by the Veneta High School and is a very fine production. The churches of Veneta are all invited to take part in the evening service and to bring with them a contribution to the Veneta High School. The churches of Veneta are all invited to take part in the evening service and to bring with them a contribution to the Veneta High School.
