Obituaries
Alex J. Kaiser
JUNCTION CITY, Aug. 2.—(Special.)—The funeral of Alex J. Kaiser, who died Saturday night, was held from Miller's chapel on Tuesday at 2 p. m. The Christian Science church will have charge of services at the chapel and the I. O. O. F. lodge of Junction City will conduct graveside services with interment in the I. O. O. F. cemetery.
Mr. Kaiser, had he lived until December 11, would have been 59 years of age. He was born at Newark, N. J., and with his parents, who have both died, came to Junction City when only eight years old. He had lived here practically all of the time since. In 1900 he was married to Miss Arminia Earhart, who is his only survivor. For the past 30 years he had been engaged in the general merchandising business in Junction City and was well known to all of the residents of northern Lane county.
Funerals
Mrs. Joanna Baxter
Funeral services for Mrs. Joanna Baxter, who died Monday as a result of injuries received when she was struck by an automobile at Franklin and Walnut streets on July 21, will be held at the Brunstetter-Simon chapel Wednesday at 2:30. Rev. S. E. Childers of the Christian church will officiate. Interment will be in the Resthaven Memorial park. The date of Mrs. Baxter's birth was erroneously given in Monday's paper; she was born April 13, 1855.
