

PHI BETA BENEFIT BRIDGE PARTY TO BE HELD THURSDAY; WEEKLY GOLF DAY SCHEDULED

Sweepstakes Meet To Be Held At Club

The new week will be quite active in society with several large affairs scheduled.

The weekly women's day at the country club will be held Wednesday with a sweepstakes tournament planned by Mrs. Waldo J. Adams, chairman of golf activities of the month. Participants will draw names to make up foursomes. Play will begin at nine o'clock in the morning and luncheon will be served at noon.

The major event for Thursday will be the benefit bridge party of Phi Beta, women's national professional fraternity of music and drama, at the Alpha Chi Omega sorority beginning at two o'clock.

Visitors continue to be the inspiration for much informal entertaining.

TO SEATTLE

Mrs. Katharine Maserud left Friday for Seattle to visit for a week.

FROM PORTLAND

Mrs. Bessie Morton of Portland is visiting here as guest of Dean and Mrs. John Straub.

IN CENTRAL OREGON

Judge and Mrs. G. F. Skipworth, Miss Helen Skipworth and Miss Gretchen Wintermeier are expected to return the first of the week from a trip to central and southern Oregon.

MRS. OSBURN FETED

Mrs. Wayne Osburn was honored at an informal party for which Mrs. C. A. Burden and Miss Elma Hendricks entertained Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Burden. Mrs. Osburn has been visiting in Eugene from her home in New York, as guest of Mrs. Addie Osburn. Guests for three tables of bridge were invited. Mrs. Ruby Goodrich assisted the hostess.

RETURN FRIDAY

Miss Minnie Reid and her niece Miss Noma Pearl Reid of Dearborn, Michigan, who is visiting here for several weeks, returned the latter part of the week from southern Oregon where they visited the Oregon caves and Crater lake.

AT JEFFERSON

Mrs. R. M. Day, Mrs. Thomas H. Bailey and Mrs. C. A. Horton went to Jefferson Friday to attend a picnic given by the missionary society of the Christian church.

BRIDGE LUNCHEON

Mrs. Donald Husband was hostess for a bridge luncheon Friday honoring her niece, Miss Evelyn Husband of Hildreth, Montana, who is visiting here for several weeks. Eight guests were invited for the affair.

DINNER FRIDAY

Mrs. Elizabeth Knowles, whose marriage to Wallace Hannah, of Bremerton, Washington, was an important event of Saturday, several informal affairs were planned the past week.

MRS. OSBURN LEAVES

Mrs. Wayne Osburn, who has been visiting in Eugene for three weeks as guest of her mother-in-law, Mrs. Addie Osburn, left Friday for her home.

TEA THURSDAY

Miss M. Ethel Taylor was hostess for an informal tea Thursday afternoon for members of the executive council of the Women's City club. About twelve were invited to call from three to five o'clock.

MISS DUKE LEAVES

Miss Bess Duke, who has been visiting here for two weeks as guest of her father, G. B. Duke, Sunday for her home in La Grande.

VISIT HERE

Mrs. Will Cochrane, daughter Miss Helen Cochrane, son Billy Cochrane, and Miss Bess Cochrane of Lincoln, Nebraska, are visiting here for several weeks and have taken an apartment at Bartle court. They are cousins of Mrs. C. A. McClain.

FROM GRAND FORKS

Mrs. K. Melby of Grand Forks, North Dakota, is spending the week-end in Eugene as guest of Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Hunt. She has been visiting in St. Helena, with her mother for several days.

PI LAMBDA THETA

Members of Pi Lambda Theta, national education honorary for women, will hold a meeting Thursday evening at seven-thirty o'clock in the men's room at Geringer hall. All members are invited to attend even though they are not enrolled in the summer session of the university.

SEWING ROOM

The service sewing room of the welfare league will be conducted on Thursday from nine o'clock in the morning to five o'clock in the afternoon. Mrs. John Stark Evans has been named the new chairman for the project.

EUGENE CAMP

The Eugene camp, Royal Neighbors of America will meet Tuesday evening at eight o'clock at the Moose hall. Officers are requested to be in uniform.

BE NATURAL CLUB

Mrs. E. T. Helms will be hostess for the meeting of the Be Natural club Thursday afternoon at her home with Mrs. J. P. Christie and Mrs. R. L. Collins assistant hostesses.

EAGLES AUXILIARY

The Eagles auxiliary will meet on Wednesday, August 10 at the Eagles hall at eight o'clock. Mrs. M. Ashton is chairman for the meeting.

WORK MEETING

The Fairmount Christian Aid will hold a work meeting Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Hattie Bowers on Moss street.

N. O. P. W.

Neighbors of Woodcraft will hold a business session Thursday evening at eight o'clock in the W. O. W. hall.

C. I. A. I. D.

Mrs. George Myrmo will be hostess

Kennell-Elis
Mrs. Wallace Hannah, (Melba Williams) daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Williams, who was married at an attractive garden ceremony Saturday at the home of her parents.

Miss Williams Is Wed At Garden Ceremony

MISS MELBA WILLIAMS, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Williams, was married to Wallace Hannah, of Bremerton, Washington, in a charming garden ceremony Saturday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents. The service was read at two-thirty o'clock by Rev. Frank Matthews of Corvallis, a relative of the bride.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Winsor Calkins (Doris Helen Patterson), harpist, and Miss Lora Tashert of Portland, cellist, played "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice." They also played softly during the service. Miss Evelyn Bristow sang "I Am Thy Harp," by Huntington Woodman, and "Deep in My Heart," a number composed by Mr. Hannah especially for the bride.

As the doors leading to the garden were opened by Howard Hall, Jr., and Winthrop Ware, little Miss Amy Lee Ware and Williams Hall entered, each carrying white satin pillows upon which the bride and bridegroom knelt before the altar.

The bride entered on the arm of her father. She wore a gown of blue chiffon with figured tulle on Grecian lines. She carried an arm bouquet of Ophelia roses, sweet peas and lilies of the valley.

A reception followed the ceremony for members of the family and a few intimate friends. Mrs. Frank Dunn, an aunt of the bride, cut the cake and Mrs. Frederic S. Dunn, also an aunt, poured.

Mrs. Hannah is a graduate of the University of Oregon and is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority, and of Mu Phi Epsilon, national honorary music society for women. She has been head of music in the Bremerton schools for the past two years.

Mr. Hannah is a professional musician from Chicago and is in charge of the band work in the schools of Bremerton and along the peninsula.

The couple left on a wedding trip to the coast following the reception and will be at home in Bremerton after the first of September.

Warren-Knowles Wedding Held Saturday

ONE of the larger weddings of the midsummer was that of Miss Elizabeth Knowles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Knowles, and Willis Warren of Madras, Oregon. The ceremony was held at four o'clock Saturday afternoon at the First Congregational church, Rev. Clay E. Palmer, pastor of the church, officiating. More than two hundred guests were invited to the ceremony.

The church was attractively decorated with summer flowers including asters and gladioli for the occasion. The altar was draped with smilax and flanked by tall palms in which were interspersed a profusion of garden flowers in tall baskets. A bouquet of asters with streamers of green foliage tied with a white ribbon was placed at the end of each pew.

Mrs. Patricia Edwards played the wedding music and Miss Evelyn Hollis sang "At Dawning" by Cadman. Mendelssohn's wedding march was used as both the processional and recessional and organ music was played softly throughout the ceremony.

The bride wore a becoming gown of white crepe trimmed in white lace and jacket of long lace sleeves. She wore a white turban and white crepe shoes and carried a shower bouquet of Johanna Hill roses.

Mrs. Bruce Galloway (Marjorie Gleason) of Portland was matron of honor. She wore a dress of orchid organza, trimmed with a pale green hair ribbon and with a white horse-hair ribbon and she wore pale green shoes. She carried pale pink roses.

Edwin Graham of Forest Grove was best man. Richard Givens and Barney Miller were ushers.

An informal reception followed the ceremony at the church and a supper was held later at the bride's home for members of the bridal party and family.

Mrs. Warren is a former student of Oregon State college, and Mr. Warren is a graduate of the University of Oregon. He is a member of Phi Sigma Kappa fraternity and Alpha Kappa Psi, national accounting honorary. The couple will make their home in Eugene.

Mrs. V. Hugh Moffitt, (Roberta Spicer) daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Spicer, whose wedding occurred Tuesday.

Melba Williams Is Feted At Many Affairs

AS a compliment to Miss Melba Williams, whose marriage to Wallace Hannah, of Bremerton, Washington, was an important event of Saturday, several informal affairs were planned the past week.

Miss Williams was the incentive for a party for which Mrs. Gaven C. Dwyer and her mother, Mrs. F. E. Dunn, entertained at their summer home on the McKenzie Tuesday. Members of the two families were invited.

On Wednesday Mrs. E. R. Bryson was hostess for a luncheon given for Miss Williams. Nine guests were asked for the afternoon.

Mrs. Lynn S. McCready entertained at an informal tea Thursday afternoon at her home to honor Miss Williams.

A no host dinner was held Friday evening at the Anchorage for members of the Hannah-Williams families.

Lodges To Picnic At Lost Creek

The Odd Fellow and Rebekah lodges of central Oregon and the Willamette valley will hold a picnic today at Lost Creek ranch on the McKenzie highway. The affair is sponsored by the encampment of Redmond and Spencer Butte lodge of Eugene.

The program will begin at ten-thirty o'clock in the morning and R. H. Jones, of Prineville, guest master of Oregon, will be guest speaker. The L. O. O. F. band of Eugene will give a concert and dedication of the grounds will follow. Dinner will be served at noon and Mr. Jones' address will follow. The Odd Fellows' quartet and other musical numbers are planned for.

Wisconsin Picnic Is Event Of Today

The Wisconsin club will hold a picnic today at Riverbank park behind the butte for members and all former residents of the state.

A dinner is planned for one o'clock and each family is to bring a covered dish, sandwiches and cream. The club to furnish coffee and sugar. A program and games will follow the luncheon.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Cooper and Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Hecker are the committee arranging for the affair.

M. E. Aid Groups To Meet Tuesday

Four divisions of the Ladies Aid society of the Methodist Episcopal church are meeting Tuesday. Division two will hold a potluck dinner at six-thirty o'clock at the home of Mrs. A. E. Edholm for members and families. Divisions four and nine are to have a picnic at the summer home of Mrs. B. F. Goodpasture on the McKenzie, near Vida.

Division ten is meeting at the home of Mrs. William Johnson, 1391 Emerald street.

Auxiliary Meeting

The Spanish American War Veterans auxiliary will hold a business session Tuesday evening at eight o'clock in the post room of the armory. Reports of the delegates to the state convention at Newport in July will be heard from Mr. R. C. Faust and Mrs. R. E. Pearce.

Patriotic Group Will Hold Picnic

Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War will hold their annual picnic Wednesday, August 10, at Riverbank park, behind the butte. Dinner is planned for six o'clock and each family is to bring its basket dinner.

The affair is for comrades and their wives and widows, Sons of Union Veterans and their families. Daughters and their families. A program is to be presented and games and swimming will be diversions.

The committee in charge includes Mrs. Lois McHoes, Miss Cora Kramer, Mrs. Charles Emery and Miss Antonia Kinnell.

Mrs. Bartow Given Party Thursday

Mrs. Nell Bartow was hostess at a party given Thursday at the home of Mrs. Mary C. Wilson, for a group of friends. As a surprise feature of the affair, announcement of the engagement of Mrs. Wilson to Fred L. Johnson of Portland, was made. The wedding is planned for the near future.

Guests at the party were Mrs. Bartow, Mrs. Olivia Maserud, Mrs. Nettie Lyon, Mrs. Alice Taylor, Mrs. Frieda Truelsen, Mrs. Maud Gorgina, Mrs. Edith Rood, Mrs. Agnes Leann, Mrs. Marguerita Adrian, Mrs. Edith Kilo, Mrs. Ellen McDowell, Mrs. Lena Coburn, Mrs. Nellie Gates, Mrs. Marie Register and the hostess.

Monday Club Picnic

The Monday club will hold a picnic Monday afternoon and evening at the home of Mrs. Albert McLurphy, 1010 Lexington street. The affair is to honor Mrs. McLurphy and Mrs. Nellie Moore, members of the group who are leaving in September for Los Angeles to spend the winter.

SEAL JELLY QUICKLY

Jelly should be sealed as quickly as it is poured into a glass. A layer of hot paraffin, one-eighth inch thick, makes the best covering.

Miss Roberta Spicer Weds Tuesday

Miss Roberta S. Spicer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Spicer, was married to V. Hugh Moffitt, son of Willis F. Moffitt of Harrisburg, at a quiet service Tuesday evening at the Methodist Episcopal parsonage. Rev. Cecil F. Ristow, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony.

Miss Barbara Hansen and Lloyd Sneyk attended the couple. Mr. and Mrs. Moffitt left on a wedding trip to the coast and will be at Florence where he is in business.

Mrs. Moffitt is prominent in town and campus musical circles, being a well known cellist. She attended the University of Oregon and is a member of Phi Beta, women's national music and drama society.

FLOWERS FOR THE TABLE

Low levels of flowers are much more suitable for dining tables than tall flowers. They not only permit the diners to talk directly to each other, instead of around the roses or whatever is being used, but they lend an "all's at ease" note that is more comfortable when a few people are dining together than a formal tone.

NORGE

Rollator Refrigerator
Priced from $149.50 to $425.00
General Radio Headquarters

GLASS

EUGENE MIRROR & GLASS CO.
FOR STATIONERY

Co's

Nebraska Visitors Feted At Parties

Mrs. Will Cochrane and her daughter, Miss Bess Cochrane, of Lincoln, Nebraska, who have been visiting in Eugene for several weeks, were the incentive for several informal affairs the past week. The women are cousins of Mrs. C. A. McClain. On Thursday afternoon Mrs. McClain entertained at an informal tea for Mrs. Cochrane and her daughter. D. L. Lewis assisted her mother.

Mrs. J. B. Gierhart entertained for a bridge party in their home Friday evening, asking guests to three tables of cards. Those invited to the affair were Mrs. Cochrane, Mrs. Beeson, Mrs. C. A. McClain, Mrs. Charles Hastings, Mrs. D. Lewis, Mrs. Frances, Mrs. W. Moore, Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. A. Reid, Miss Minnie Reid, Mrs. F. Schmidt.

Luncheon Is Given To Honor Guest

Mrs. Otto Olson entertained at a luncheon at her home Thursday in honor of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Charles Granberg, who is visiting here from Charleston, North Dakota. Misses Margaret and Alice Olson and Yvonne Stevens assisted in serving.

Invited to the affair were the honor guest Mrs. Granberg, Mrs. Dan Driscoll and daughter, Lois, Mrs. Harry Thompson, Mrs. Jennie Blodgett, Mrs. Clay Stone, Mrs. Ben Wechsler, Mrs. Louis Jensen, Mrs. Paul Zinkler and daughter, Gladys, Mrs. Robert Bertsch, Miss Lila McMillan and the following out-of-town guests: Mrs. H. Olson, Mrs. Arthur Olson and Mrs. Cora Olson.

State Picnic To Be Held At Corvallis

The ninth annual Nebraska picnic will be an event of today at Corvallis. In the city park on the edge of town on the highway, the picnic is for all former Nebraska residents and last year attracted more than fourteen hundred people, from far south as Ashland, and The Dalles on the north and east respectively. Seventy of the ninety counties of Nebraska were represented in Corvallis picnic last year. Dr. L. Gunn, Corvallis, formerly of Cook, is president of the Nebraska picnic association and has plans for many interesting features at event.

Enter the ROLLATOR REFRIGERATION CROSS WORD PUZZLE CONTEST

$25,000 IN CASH PRIZES

Montag Circulators

Now is a good time to choose your Montag Circulator for this coming Fall and Winter.

We have all the sizes at various prices.

The Montag is handsomely finished, easy to clean and will radiate heat to a maximum degree.

See our beautiful Montag ranges too.

SPECIAL PRICES NOW ON ALL Living Room Furniture SEE OUR LARGE SELECTION

Johnson Furniture Co.

625 Willamette

General Radio Headquarters

WILLIS D. LINK
47 EAST 7th

PHONE 431

Mid-Summer Clearance Sale
Aug. 8-13—Six Days Only
20-25-50 Percent Off
The Oriental Art Shop
Eugene Hotel—232 E. Broadway
—Advance Showing of Christmas Cards—

Opening Tonight Night! Dr. Stanford Kingsley Claunch

Eminent Food Scientist, Psychologist and Philosopher

Brings to the people of Eugene the most inspiring message of health and happiness ever brought to your city.

Why suffer any longer from constipation, indigestion, catarrh, kidney trouble or any other chronic disease? Dr. Claunch says you can get well—and means it!

Step out from the crowd of sufferers and plodders and be a winner in the game of life. You can do it—when you know how!

Hear Dr. Claunch in Six Inspiring

LECTURES

—On—
"THE ART OF SCIENTIFIC LIVING"
EUGENE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE ASSEMBLY ROOM
AUGUST 7, 8, 9, 10, 11 8:15 P. M.
Do not fail to come early and hear LUCIE BRUCH, Internationally famous violinist—7:45 to 8:15 P. M.
ADMISSION FREE . . . COLLECTION
BRING YOUR FRIENDS