

Eugene Juniors Will Battle For State Title At Portland Sunday

LOCAL BOYS BEAT THE DALLES, 11-8; LINCOLN IS VICTOR

PORTLAND, Aug. 6.—(Special)—Eugene's American Legion Juniors played the best ball they have shown this year here Saturday afternoon, and gained the final in the State championship tournament by drubbing The Dalles 11 to 8 in a spectacular game. Ray Murray's University City nine will meet the Lincoln Cards, winners over Vancouver by 10 to 2 count, Sunday afternoon at 2:30 for the State Title.

Murray used all three of his ace pitchers, starting Guthrie then putting in Michaels, with Mercer finishing the line. None of them worked hard enough to tire them for Sunday's game. Green started for The Dalles, but yielded to Kramer when the Eugeneans began to find his offerings for base hits.

Eugene showed themselves to have one of the strongest offensive clubs in the tournament, blasting out 12 safeties, including doubles by Johnson, Wright and Kelley. Wright led the hitters, with 3 out of 4, Johnson, with 3 out of 5 and Michaels with 2 out of 4, trailing him closely.

Christensen, Eugene second sacker, contributed the most spectacular fielding play of the day nabbing a terrific hit in the last of the ninth with 2 runners on bases. The blow looked like a certain double, but the slender Eugenean got it, retiring the side.

Good Chance Sunday

Eugene will be the "home club" Sunday, meaning that they get their last bats. The winners of Saturday's title drew for the honor, and Eugene got the break. Murray's boys have a good chance against the powerful Lincoln tossers in Sunday's game. "If they play like they did today," he said after the game, "they should give the Cards a hard time. The boys were hitting hard and their fielding was the best it has been this year. They looked like a different ball club from the one that lost to the Post-office club last Tuesday."

The Dalles started like a winner against Eugene by finding Guthrie of Eugene for three runs in the first, but Eugene came back in her half of the second to bring The Dalles' lead down to 1 run, and in the second inning Eugene collected four more, and from then on was never headed. The Eugene run-making—tallying 11 runs, ended in the fifth inning, Kramer, who relieved Greene for The Dalles, holding his opponents scoreless.

The Dalles gave Eugene a ninth-inning scare with three runs, but Christensen's leaping catch of Miller's line drive with the tying runs packed on the bases won Eugene the game. The score: R. H. E. Eugene.....11 12 2 The Dalles.....8 11 1 Batteries: Eugene, Guthrie, Michaels, Mercer and Kelley. The Dalles, Green, Kramer and Ford.

LINCOLN WINS PORTLAND, Aug. 6.—(Special)—The Portland Lincoln Cardinals, Junior American Legion baseball team of Portland defeated the Woodburn boys team 10 to 2 here today in the first game of the semi-final.

The Cardinals held the Woodburn boys to only three hits for the eight innings Jubb pitched. The Cardinals assumed the lead from the start. Lincoln found the scoring much harder, however, when Jubb relieved Laffer in the third inning.

Woodburn.....2 3 7 Lincoln.....10 14 3 Laffer, Landsem and Voigt; Jubb, Takamaki and Eastman.

HEILIG PRESENTS 'MISS PINKERTON'

Joan Blondell, popular blue-eyed blonde featured player of numerous screen successes, comes to the Heilig theatre Sunday in her first starring role, that of the sleuthing "Miss Pinkerton."

The story of "Miss Pinkerton" concerns a bored nurse suddenly set down in a house of mystery at the request of the police inspector assigned to investigate a death in the house. "Miss Pinkerton" finds her work doubly interesting because she is nursing the dead man's aged aunt and "sleuthing" at the same time. A series of weird incidents upset her calm and by the time the mystery is solved she is ready to fall into the arms of the handsome inspector of police, played by Brent.

The large supporting cast includes George Brent, increasingly popular as a leading man, whose work in "So Big," opposite Barbara Stanwyck, and in "The Rich Are Always With Us," opposite Ruth Chatterton, marked him for future stardom and made him a new favorite of millions of fans.

The story of "Miss Pinkerton" concerns a bored nurse suddenly set down in a house of mystery at the request of the police inspector assigned to investigate a death in the house. "Miss Pinkerton" finds her work doubly interesting because she is nursing the dead man's aged aunt and "sleuthing" at the same time. A series of weird incidents upset her calm and by the time the mystery is solved she is ready to fall into the arms of the handsome inspector of police, played by Brent.

After winning 11 straight contests, Norval May's Heilig theatre baseballers were drubbed 19 to 8 Friday afternoon on Reinhart field by the Corvallis Chicks. The game was even more rained than the American Legion junior tilt Tuesday, Corvallis booting four chances and the locals marking up eight at-bats.

Eugene outbatted the invaders 12 to 9, but the numerous errors contributed to their defeat. Eugene's three chucks gave out 11 free passes.

Batteries: Eugene—Palmer, Murray, Iman, Murray and Woodie, Spec Murray; Corvallis—Woodard and Razon. Umpire: Marshall Shields.

FREE SPORTS OFFERED

The ring and bleachers at Williams park have been equipped and every Sunday afternoon at 2:30 there will be several matches put on. The talent in the Eugene territory, and the participants are putting on these bouts simply to stimulate an interest in these athletic contests. The Williams park furnishes the facilities freely to the boys, and the public is invited to witness the show without cost. After the games there will be fancy diving.

CARR PROVES SUPREMACY OVER BIG BEN EASTMAN!

Although an international event, the final of the Olympic 400 meter dash turned into another duel between Bill Carr and Ben Eastman—Carr emerging the victor. Running faster than ever before in his life, Carr beat his rival to the tape and in so doing set a new world record of 46.2 seconds, 8-10 of a second faster than the previous record. It was the third time this year that Eastman was forced to follow Carr to the tape. Photo shows Carr crossing the line, with Eastman right on his heels and Alexander Wilson of Canada following them for third place.

BROOKLYN SWEEPS PITTSBURGH SERIES CUBS RAP PHILLIES

National

BROOKLYN, Aug. 6.—(AP)—The Dodgers swept the three game series with Pittsburgh by winning today 2 to 1. Vaughn's error in the third let in both Dodger runs.

Pittsburgh.....1 5 1 Brooklyn.....2 0 0 Batteries: Meine, Harris, Malone and Grace, Padden; Helmach and Lopez.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 6.—(AP)—Chicago took two games from the Phillies today, winning the first, 10 to 5, and the second 10 to 8 in 11 innings.

First game. R. H. E. Chicago.....10 15 4 Philadelphia.....5 10 2 Batteries: Grimes, Timmer, Bush, Hermann, May and Taylor; Hartnett, Collins, Rhein, J. Elliott and Todd, V. Davis.

Second game. R. H. E. Chicago.....10 15 4 Philadelphia.....5 10 2 Batteries: Grimes, Timmer, Bush, Hermann, May and Taylor; Hartnett, Collins, Rhein, J. Elliott and Todd, V. Davis.

BOSTON, Aug. 6.—(AP)—The Braves and Reds split a double-header today, the Braves taking the opener with a four run rally in the ninth to win 4 to 3, but dropping the second, 3 to 0.

First game. R. H. E. Cincinnati.....3 7 1 Boston.....4 7 0 Batteries: Benton and Spohrer; Brown, Frankhouse and Spohrer.

Second game. R. H. E. Cincinnati.....3 9 0 Boston.....0 8 0 Batteries: Kolp and Asby; Pruett and Hartgrave.

NEW YORK, Aug. 6.—(AP)—The Cardinals ended the Giants' winning streak at six games by pounding out 21 hits and a 10 to 2 victory in the second game of today's double header after New York had won the first game, 5 to 1.

First game. R. H. E. St. Louis.....1 5 4 New York.....5 9 0 Batteries: Caelen, Stout and Wilson; Goussais; Mooney and Hogan.

Second game. R. H. E. St. Louis.....10 21 1 New York.....2 7 2 Batteries: Dean and Mancuso; Lucque, Gibson, Schumacher and Hogan, O'Farrell.

CHICAGO, Aug. 6.—(AP)—Johnny Allen held Chicago to four hits in the second game today and Ben Chapman, homer with two on in the ninth gave the Yankees a 4 to 1 victory. The Sox won the first game, 10 to 5.

First game. R. H. E. New York.....5 8 0 Chicago.....10 13 0 Batteries: Allen and Dickey; Faber, Frasier and Berg.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 6.—(AP)—Al Simmons' home run scoring Bishop helped the Athletics to defeat the Browns today 4 to 2.

Philadelphia.....4 5 0 St. Louis.....2 7 0 Batteries: Walberg and Cochran; Blaholder and Ferrell.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 6.—(AP)—Wes Ferrell allowed the Red Sox only one hit—a single by Dale Alexander in the fourth—to win his 18th victory of the season as Cleveland defeated Boston, 3 to 0, today.

Boston.....0 1 2 Cleveland.....3 7 0 Batteries: Rhoads and Tate; Ferrell and Sewell.

DETROIT, Aug. 6.—(AP)—Washington's bugged run scoring Bishop helped the Athletics to defeat the Browns today 4 to 2.

Philadelphia.....4 5 0 St. Louis.....2 7 0 Batteries: Walberg and Cochran; Blaholder and Ferrell.

"BAD BOY" BOLTS PARTY NEWBURYPORT, Mass., Aug. 6.—(AP)—Andrew J. "Bossy" Gillis, city's former "bad boy" mayor, has decided to leave the republican ranks long enough to seek the democratic nomination for state representative. He said he wanted "to help Roosevelt win."

Ralph Hill Acclaimed As Champion Of Champions

By GEORGE H. BEALE United Press Staff Correspondent

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 6.—(AP)—Ralph Hill, a 24-year-old lad from an Oregon farm, was the toast of the Olympic games today—a champion among champions.

He gained that distinction by the manner in which he lost an important race. Obviously fouled in the 5,000 meter run by Lauri Lehtinen, Lehtinen, of Finland, he lost to Lehtinen and had no word of protest to offer.

In fact he spent his time offering excuses for Lehtinen, world's champion at 5,000 meters, rather than advancing his own claims.

The United Press talked to 14 sports experts, including those of rival press associations and newsmen of New York, Chicago, Los Angeles and Buenos Aires. Of the group 13 expressed the opinion Lehtinen's foul was deliberate. The 14th thought Hill had been fouled but that Hill, himself, was the calmest man in the stadium as everyone waited for the judges' decision.

"Fouled?" he said to the United ence, decided against accepting an offer to run the steeplechase over again at the regulation distance. It would have to be run off tomorrow, since the track and field championships have only one more day to go, and they felt it would be too soon to attempt another such grueling test.

McCluskey's sportsmanship, under the circumstances, in accepting third place when he might well have been the runner-up, was accorded a big ovation.

The American relay teams, without being extended in either race, turned in smashing performances and indicated they would take additional chunks out of the world records tomorrow, if sufficiently pressed.

The 400 meter team, consisting of Bob Kiesel, Emmett Toppino, Hector Dyer and Frank Wyckoff, clicked together beautifully and was timed in 40.6 seconds, wiping out the world mark of 40.8, shared jointly by a German team and the University of Southern California. They also beat the Olympic record of 41 seconds flat, set by the U. S. A. in 1924 and equalled by the Americans in 1928.

With the main battle to be concluded tomorrow with the classic Marathon, the biggest total they have gained in three Olympics under the present scoring system. Finland was in second place with 62, Great Britain third with 41 and Japan fourth, with 28.

Modern realism, infinitely more subtle than in the days of the silent pictures, has supplanted the extravagant attempts to capture foreign atmosphere, which formerly brought acid criticism on the movies. This thought was driven home by a visit to the set of the Columbia studio during the making of "War Correspondent," a dramatic film with Cecil De Mille as the Chinese agent in charge of the Chinese section.

The types were just what one would expect to find in metropolitan Shanghai—diplomatic representatives, military and naval officers, wealthy men and their wives, with here and there a beautiful woman of the adventures type.

The realism of the types of "extra" was a tribute to the skill of the casting director, who had the cooperation of Tom Gubbins, in charge of the Chinese section. The types were just what one would expect to find in metropolitan Shanghai—diplomatic representatives, military and naval officers, wealthy men and their wives, with here and there a beautiful woman of the adventures type.

The realism of the types of "extra" was a tribute to the skill of the casting director, who had the cooperation of Tom Gubbins, in charge of the Chinese section. The types were just what one would expect to find in metropolitan Shanghai—diplomatic representatives, military and naval officers, wealthy men and their wives, with here and there a beautiful woman of the adventures type.

The realism of the types of "extra" was a tribute to the skill of the casting director, who had the cooperation of Tom Gubbins, in charge of the Chinese section. The types were just what one would expect to find in metropolitan Shanghai—diplomatic representatives, military and naval officers, wealthy men and their wives, with here and there a beautiful woman of the adventures type.

The realism of the types of "extra" was a tribute to the skill of the casting director, who had the cooperation of Tom Gubbins, in charge of the Chinese section. The types were just what one would expect to find in metropolitan Shanghai—diplomatic representatives, military and naval officers, wealthy men and their wives, with here and there a beautiful woman of the adventures type.

The realism of the types of "extra" was a tribute to the skill of the casting director, who had the cooperation of Tom Gubbins, in charge of the Chinese section. The types were just what one would expect to find in metropolitan Shanghai—diplomatic representatives, military and naval officers, wealthy men and their wives, with here and there a beautiful woman of the adventures type.

The realism of the types of "extra" was a tribute to the skill of the casting director, who had the cooperation of Tom Gubbins, in charge of the Chinese section. The types were just what one would expect to find in metropolitan Shanghai—diplomatic representatives, military and naval officers, wealthy men and their wives, with here and there a beautiful woman of the adventures type.

The realism of the types of "extra" was a tribute to the skill of the casting director, who had the cooperation of Tom Gubbins, in charge of the Chinese section. The types were just what one would expect to find in metropolitan Shanghai—diplomatic representatives, military and naval officers, wealthy men and their wives, with here and there a beautiful woman of the adventures type.

The realism of the types of "extra" was a tribute to the skill of the casting director, who had the cooperation of Tom Gubbins, in charge of the Chinese section. The types were just what one would expect to find in metropolitan Shanghai—diplomatic representatives, military and naval officers, wealthy men and their wives, with here and there a beautiful woman of the adventures type.

The realism of the types of "extra" was a tribute to the skill of the casting director, who had the cooperation of Tom Gubbins, in charge of the Chinese section. The types were just what one would expect to find in metropolitan Shanghai—diplomatic representatives, military and naval officers, wealthy men and their wives, with here and there a beautiful woman of the adventures type.

The realism of the types of "extra" was a tribute to the skill of the casting director, who had the cooperation of Tom Gubbins, in charge of the Chinese section. The types were just what one would expect to find in metropolitan Shanghai—diplomatic representatives, military and naval officers, wealthy men and their wives, with here and there a beautiful woman of the adventures type.

MERMAIDS SPLASH NEW 100 METERS RECORDS 3 TIMES

By PAUL ZIMMERMAN Associated Press Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 6.—(AP)—Driven on to greater speed by record shattering performances of competitors in previous heats, three mermaids in successive races broke the Olympic 100 meter free style marks today, and eclipsed the accepted world's performances.

It was a fitting way to start off the aquatic championships of the tenth Olympiad with Mrs. Eleanor Garatti Sayville, United States entry, who competed in the 1928 games, racing the distance of the pool before 5000 persons in 1 minute 8.5 seconds.

Margaret Cooper of Great Britain had started the proceedings by submerging the Olympic and world's marks in the second heat by navigating the course in 1:00 flat.

Then came Helene Madison, U. S. A. applicant for a whole plunge full of marks who swam the distance in 1:08.9.

In all, four Olympic records were left at the bottom of the plunge. The first to fall was the 200 meter breast stroke mark in the first heats this morning when 19 year old Clare Denison of Sydney, Australia, won over Margaret Hoffman, Uncle Sam's lead.

By hope, by more than six seconds taking the distance in 3 minutes 8.2 seconds compared with the former Olympic mark of 3:11.4 set in 1928 by H. Schrader, Germany.

As a result of the comparative times Neville Bull, Australia, earned and thirteen place in semi-finals of 100 meters free style women.

Stephen Baranyi, Hungary, beat fourth in men's free style 100 meters for seventh place in finals.

War Correspondent Coming to Heilig

Modern realism, infinitely more subtle than in the days of the silent pictures, has supplanted the extravagant attempts to capture foreign atmosphere, which formerly brought acid criticism on the movies. This thought was driven home by a visit to the set of the Columbia studio during the making of "War Correspondent," a dramatic film with Cecil De Mille as the Chinese agent in charge of the Chinese section.

The types were just what one would expect to find in metropolitan Shanghai—diplomatic representatives, military and naval officers, wealthy men and their wives, with here and there a beautiful woman of the adventures type.

The realism of the types of "extra" was a tribute to the skill of the casting director, who had the cooperation of Tom Gubbins, in charge of the Chinese section. The types were just what one would expect to find in metropolitan Shanghai—diplomatic representatives, military and naval officers, wealthy men and their wives, with here and there a beautiful woman of the adventures type.

The realism of the types of "extra" was a tribute to the skill of the casting director, who had the cooperation of Tom Gubbins, in charge of the Chinese section. The types were just what one would expect to find in metropolitan Shanghai—diplomatic representatives, military and naval officers, wealthy men and their wives, with here and there a beautiful woman of the adventures type.

The realism of the types of "extra" was a tribute to the skill of the casting director, who had the cooperation of Tom Gubbins, in charge of the Chinese section. The types were just what one would expect to find in metropolitan Shanghai—diplomatic representatives, military and naval officers, wealthy men and their wives, with here and there a beautiful woman of the adventures type.

The realism of the types of "extra" was a tribute to the skill of the casting director, who had the cooperation of Tom Gubbins, in charge of the Chinese section. The types were just what one would expect to find in metropolitan Shanghai—diplomatic representatives, military and naval officers, wealthy men and their wives, with here and there a beautiful woman of the adventures type.

The realism of the types of "extra" was a tribute to the skill of the casting director, who had the cooperation of Tom Gubbins, in charge of the Chinese section. The types were just what one would expect to find in metropolitan Shanghai—diplomatic representatives, military and naval officers, wealthy men and their wives, with here and there a beautiful woman of the adventures type.

The realism of the types of "extra" was a tribute to the skill of the casting director, who had the cooperation of Tom Gubbins, in charge of the Chinese section. The types were just what one would expect to find in metropolitan Shanghai—diplomatic representatives, military and naval officers, wealthy men and their wives, with here and there a beautiful woman of the adventures type.

The realism of the types of "extra" was a tribute to the skill of the casting director, who had the cooperation of Tom Gubbins, in charge of the Chinese section. The types were just what one would expect to find in metropolitan Shanghai—diplomatic representatives, military and naval officers, wealthy men and their wives, with here and there a beautiful woman of the adventures type.

The realism of the types of "extra" was a tribute to the skill of the casting director, who had the cooperation of Tom Gubbins, in charge of the Chinese section. The types were just what one would expect to find in metropolitan Shanghai—diplomatic representatives, military and naval officers, wealthy men and their wives, with here and there a beautiful woman of the adventures type.

The realism of the types of "extra" was a tribute to the skill of the casting director, who had the cooperation of Tom Gubbins, in charge of the Chinese section. The types were just what one would expect to find in metropolitan Shanghai—diplomatic representatives, military and naval officers, wealthy men and their wives, with here and there a beautiful woman of the adventures type.

The realism of the types of "extra" was a tribute to the skill of the casting director, who had the cooperation of Tom Gubbins, in charge of the Chinese section. The types were just what one would expect to find in metropolitan Shanghai—diplomatic representatives, military and naval officers, wealthy men and their wives, with here and there a beautiful woman of the adventures type.

SUNDAY CLASH TO COUNT HEAVILY IN FINAL STANDINGS

The Eugene Townies, official Eugene baseball club, will play the West Side Babes of Portland, Oregon State League leaders, at the fairgrounds today at 2:30 in a tilt in which the league lead is at stake.

The Babes are one full game ahead of the Townies, and it is the locals' big chance to pull up even. If the Eugeneans lose, it will virtually eliminate all chance at the league pennant.

Although the Townies' batting average has dropped to .272, they are still smacking the ball, and but for circus catches by the opposition in the last two tilts, their average would be near the .300 mark. Five men are batting better than .300.

Libby, Gould, Van Dug, Bishop and J. King making up the heavy hitting quintet.

Bob Wiltshire, slender right-handed ace, will probably start in the box for Eugene. Dick Bishop, who was injured in the Gilbreth Colored Giant game, has recovered and is expected to be in his old position behind the bat. Bishop is probably the best catcher in the league, possessing a bullet throw to second, and an ability to "hold up" the pitcher in the pinches. Should he be unable to throw, Libby will be brought in from the field.

Don Husband will be on first, either Russell or Jimmy King will play the keystone sack, Kern Stevens will handle short, and Charlie King will hold down the hot corner. Libby, Gould and Van Dug will probably form the outer garden patrol.

Ray Brooks, Balto manager, has not announced his starters, but it is likely that Herb Fould will pitch for the visitors. Fould set down the locals 7 to 0 some weeks ago, and will be anxious to repeat. The West Siders are made up of the cream of Portland high school talent, and are generally considered the greatest aggregation of young stars ever gathered together in Portland.

Lehtinen Gives Medal To Hill

OLYMPIC STADIUM, Los Angeles, Aug. 6.—(AP)—As an aftermath of their hotly disputed 5000 meter finish, Lauri Lehtinen, of Finland, the winner, pinned a Finnish medal on Ralph Hill, American star, as they participated in the formal Olympic victory ceremony this afternoon.

Lehtinen also sought, unsuccessfully, to persuade Hill to stand on the top of victor's pedestal with him while the Finnish national anthem was being played.

There was a spurring applause for Lehtinen but the crowd of about 40,000 avoided Hill, the runner-up, a terrific ovation. The proceedings, however, were marked by no booing such as greeted Lehtinen's interference with Hill in the stretch yesterday.

Lehtinen but the crowd of about 40,000 avoided Hill, the runner-up, a terrific ovation. The proceedings, however, were marked by no booing such as greeted Lehtinen's interference with Hill in the stretch yesterday.

Lehtinen but the crowd of about 40,000 avoided Hill, the runner-up, a terrific ovation. The proceedings, however, were marked by no booing such as greeted Lehtinen's interference with Hill in the stretch yesterday.

Lehtinen but the crowd of about 40,000 avoided Hill, the runner-up, a terrific ovation. The proceedings, however, were marked by no booing such as greeted Lehtinen's interference with Hill in the stretch yesterday.

Lehtinen but the crowd of about 40,000 avoided Hill, the runner-up, a terrific ovation. The proceedings, however, were marked by no booing such as greeted Lehtinen's interference with Hill in the stretch yesterday.

Lehtinen but the crowd of about 40,000 avoided Hill, the runner-up, a terrific ovation. The proceedings, however, were marked by no booing such as greeted Lehtinen's interference with Hill in the stretch yesterday.

Lehtinen but the crowd of about 40,000 avoided Hill, the runner-up, a terrific ovation. The proceedings, however, were marked by no booing such as greeted Lehtinen's interference with Hill in the stretch yesterday.

Lehtinen but the crowd of about 40,000 avoided Hill, the runner-up, a terrific ovation. The proceedings, however, were marked by no booing such as greeted Lehtinen's interference with Hill in the stretch yesterday.

Lehtinen but the crowd of about 40,000 avoided Hill, the runner-up, a terrific ovation. The proceedings, however, were marked by no booing such as greeted Lehtinen's interference with Hill in the stretch yesterday.

Lehtinen but the crowd of about 40,000 avoided Hill, the runner-up, a terrific ovation. The proceedings, however, were marked by no booing such as greeted Lehtinen's interference with Hill in the stretch yesterday.

Lehtinen but the crowd of about 40,000 avoided Hill, the runner-up, a terrific ovation. The proceedings, however, were marked by no booing such as greeted Lehtinen's interference with Hill in the stretch yesterday.

Lehtinen but the crowd of about 40,000 avoided Hill, the runner-up, a terrific ovation. The proceedings, however, were marked by no booing such as greeted Lehtinen's interference with Hill in the stretch yesterday.

Lehtinen but the crowd of about 40,000 avoided Hill, the runner-up, a terrific ovation. The proceedings, however, were marked by no booing such as greeted Lehtinen's interference with Hill in the stretch yesterday.

Lehtinen but the crowd of about 40,000 avoided Hill, the runner-up, a terrific ovation. The proceedings, however, were marked by no booing such as greeted Lehtinen's interference with Hill in the stretch yesterday.

Lehtinen but the crowd of about 40,000 avoided Hill, the runner-up, a terrific ovation. The proceedings, however, were marked by no booing such as greeted Lehtinen's interference with Hill in the stretch yesterday.

Lehtinen but the crowd of about 40,000 avoided Hill, the runner-up, a terrific ovation. The proceedings, however, were marked by no booing such as greeted Lehtinen's interference with Hill in the stretch yesterday.

Lehtinen but the crowd of about 40,000 avoided Hill, the runner-up, a terrific ovation. The proceedings, however, were marked by no booing such as greeted Lehtinen's interference with Hill in the stretch yesterday.

Lehtinen but the crowd of about 40,000 avoided Hill, the runner-up, a terrific ovation. The proceedings, however, were marked by no booing such as greeted Lehtinen's interference with Hill in the stretch yesterday.

Lehtinen but the crowd of about 40,000 avoided Hill, the runner-up, a terrific ovation. The proceedings, however, were marked by no booing such as greeted Lehtinen's interference with Hill in the stretch yesterday.

HIGHCLIMBER Looks em over

By ROY CRAFT

More than twenty centuries elapsed after the first Olympic Games before women found a place in them. Not only were women of ancient Greece barred from competition, but they were not even permitted to witness the historic contests.

Today, according to the official Olympic program, there are approximately 175 members of the fair sex entered in the Games of the Tenth Olympiad. Women appeared for the first time in competition for medals in 1912 at the Stockholm Games, participating in tennis and short running events.

Prior to that, a few women athletes gave exhibitions in connection with Games, notably in 1906 during an unofficial celebration at Athens, Greece, of the tenth anniversary of the revival of the ancient Grecian Games.

At this time a group of Danish girls gymnasts gave exhibitions that so impressed the King of Greece that he invited the entire team to be his dinner guests.

The publicity incident to this honor was instrumental in bringing the question of women's participation squarely before the International Olympic committee. In the 1905 Games, in London, women competed in archery contests.

In 1928 at Amsterdam, there were thirteen events in three different sports in which women competed. This was the first time the United States placed a women's track and field team in competition.

As a means of discouraging women from attending Olympic Games in the ancient days, officials decreed that all athletes appear in the nude. Of course, the reason for this was supposed to be primarily for the beneficial effects of the sun's rays on the bodies of participants, but it seems likely that the rule was made to act as a deterrent on efforts of women to crash the games, since the order went into effect immediately after a disguised, but demonstrative, mother invaded the Games to witness the prowess of her son.

A Grecian woman, Pherecrates, had a son, Pheidon, who was famous in the annals of the ancient Games. Wishing to see him win some of his victories, she disguised herself as an old peasant man and thus gained admittance to the stadium. True to form, the boy won and the mother, forgetting discretion, rushed on to the field and showered her affections on her son, thus revealing her identity.

The International committee for the Games of the Tenth Olympiad has designated fourteen events in four sports in which women will compete. These events include javelin throwing, 100-meter race, discus throwing, high jump, 80-meter hurdles, 4 by 100-meter relay race, foil, 200-meter breast stroke swim, 100-meter freestyle swim, 100-meter back stroke swim, 4 by 100-meter relay swim, 400-meter free style swim, fancy springboard diving and high diving.

Just as women have found equality in other walks of life in recent years, so have they come to the fore in athletics as typified in Olympic Games.

Refreshments were served by Edna Carpenter, Mrs. Addie McEwen, Mrs. Clara Pierson and Mrs. Annie Walden.

Refreshments were served by Edna Carpenter, Mrs. Addie McEwen, Mrs. Clara Pierson and Mrs. Annie Walden.

Refreshments were served by Edna Carpenter, Mrs. Addie McEwen, Mrs. Clara Pierson and Mrs. Annie Walden.

Refreshments were served by Edna Carpenter, Mrs. Addie McEwen, Mrs. Clara Pierson and Mrs. Annie Walden.

Refreshments were served by Edna Carpenter, Mrs. Addie McEwen, Mrs. Clara Pierson and Mrs. Annie Walden.

Refreshments were served by Edna Carpenter, Mrs. Addie McEwen, Mrs. Clara Pierson and Mrs. Annie Walden.

Refreshments were served by Edna Carpenter, Mrs. Addie McEwen, Mrs. Clara Pierson and Mrs. Annie Walden.

Refreshments were served by Edna Carpenter, Mrs. Addie McEwen, Mrs. Clara Pierson and Mrs. Annie Walden.

Refreshments were served by Edna Carpenter, Mrs. Addie McEwen, Mrs. Clara Pierson and Mrs. Annie Walden.

Refreshments