

NO CARS ALLOWED OVER NEW HIGHWAY

FLORENCE, Aug. 8.—(Special)—A number of persons have been attempting to drive cars from here to Mapleton over the new Sluade river highway, but now a ruling has just been made that no autos are to go over the section where construction is going on, for at least another week. As for going the entire distance to Mapleton from here it will not be possible for another month, warns R. J. Rice, foreman on the work in progress. A section of the new road parallels the railroad track. In going from Cushman to Beck the general public is advised to take the old and somewhat dangerous hill road to Wendon, as between these two points the new highway will not be available to any traveler for several weeks yet.

Graveling of the Coast highway from here to Gardiner is now in its finishing stage, only one mile remaining, that between the concrete bridge and the Lane-Douglas county line. This remains only for a top dressing. To the south trucks are now stacking up all the gravel material which will be used when paving gets under way next year. Five trucks at work on the Florence end of the sector will start this week on piling up the material on the northern end of the stretch for next year's filling.

With the time too far advanced for staging a fall fair appropriate to western Lane county, local business men and merchants in the project have unanimously agreed that an organization be perfected in the near future for an exposition benefiting the section. It is the plan to have every district in the county take to the organization to be formed. Public exhibitions of farm endeavor and other handwork were a regular fall occasion here 15 years ago.

Word was received Saturday that Mrs. A. C. Phipps, who was a visitor for a time here around mid-July, was instantly killed in a traffic accident in Los Angeles the night of Sunday, July 31. She was a young matron of Torrance, nearly suburban community, and accompanied Miss Genevieve Chandler and Carroll Morgan, local navy boy, from here.

Ira Treffrey is the latest to tell his friends about catching the big fish here. He has just landed a 20-pound Chinook salmon. Hauling in record size salmon has been quite a frequent occurrence here this season which has recorded the heaviest catch of this variety of fish in many a season. Two Junction City men have been attracted to the extent that they are making daily trips here and each day return to the valley with a full load of their Chinook catch. The men are Al Christensen and S. Michaelson. Trolling activity here has been greater than in several years past.

Mrs. Jennie Yates arrived home Saturday morning from Portland where she has been attending a woman's missionary meeting. Sixty-five autos from out of the state are now going through Florence for every hundred cars that Oregon license plates. On a recent day out of a total of 272 autos, 107 were from other states.

Repairing on somewhat of a large scale is under way at the warehouse of Dunham's store here, the principal part of the work being on the foundation. A. H. Benson is handling the tools.

Dr. William Tatum is reported quite sick at his home in the north-west end of town. He had not been down town for a week or more.

Professor and Mrs. C. C. Caldwell are home from Eugene where he has been attending the U. of O. summer school. Caldwell is principal in the Florence grade school.

Aron Merrill, who came here a year or so ago from California and established a service station, known as the Blue Bird, some distance north of town on the highway, has sold to F. W. Stratton, a Eugene man, and with Mrs. Merrill has returned to Ontario, Cal.

Judge Works Hard On Fire Lawsuit

PORTLAND, Aug. 8.—(AP)—His coat off and shirt sleeves rolled to his elbows, Circuit Judge Lusk today was going through 3,000 pages of transcript in the case of the Silver Falls Timber company against the Eastern & Western Lumber company. The plaintiff demands $1,025,908 for alleged negligence in allowing a forest fire to spread from the Eastern & Western holdings into the Silver Falls company land near Silverton. Judge Lusk had before him a defense motion for a non-suit based on the contention that the Silver Falls company had failed to show any evidence of negligence. The case opened June 20 and 58 witnesses have been called by the Silver Falls company to date. It has other witnesses on its list.

The transcript is one of the longest taken in a circuit court proceedings here.

First Plane Lands At Triangle Lake

BLAICHLY, Aug. 8.—(Special)—W. M. O'Neil of Fort Shaw, Mont., accompanied by John Manglich, dropped in on friends at Triangle Lake Sunday in an airplane, the first one ever to land here. The plane landed in Johnson's field and took off again without accident after spending four or five hours here. Mr. O'Neil had as passengers Miss Lillian O'Neil of Eugene and Miss Hazel Miller of Blachly. Mr. O'Neil in 1928 drove a model T Ford from his home in Montana to Blachly in seven days and he flew in his plane from Fort Shaw to Eugene in six and a half hours.

ALPINE FARMER'S BUILDINGS BURN

ALPINE, Aug. 8.—(Special)—Walter Larson lost a large barn, machine shed and hen house by fire August 5. The barns had been threshing oats, piling the straw near the barn and while the men were in the house eating dinner fire broke out in the straw. Neighbors responded to the call for help, but a strong wind was blowing and nothing that was near the barn could be saved. The barn was filled with hay.

One horse perished in the flames, also the farm flock of hens. The threshing machine and numerous other articles of farm machinery were destroyed, but it was possible to run the steam engine that had been used to furnish power for the threshing, out of danger.

The damage runs up to several thousand dollars and is partly covered by insurance.

About six weeks ago Mr. Larson lost a milkhouse, cream separator and other small tools by fire.

The women of the Alpine community club met for a picnic dinner on the banks of a creek a mile west of Alpine Thursday, August 4. Davidson and small daughter Virginia, Muriel Mill, Georgia Davidson, Eugene Davidson, Myrtle Ferris, Helen and Louise Davidson. The next meeting to be Aug. 18 at Mrs. Seigley's home.

TOWNIES WILL PLAY BEARDED BALL CLUB

The greatest traveling baseball attraction in America, the bearded ball club from the House of David in Benton, Harlow, Michigan, will play the Eugene Townies Thursday afternoon at 4:45 at the fair grounds. The House of David team is just returning from the Denver Post Semi-Pro tournament where they placed well up, besides playing to the largest crowd ever to see a baseball game in Denver.

More than 10,000 people watched the House of David team pin the Oklahoma Indians, whom they beat, and 3,000 were turned away the next afternoon for the following tilt.

The Benton Harbor outfit received more publicity in the Post than ever before recorded a semi-pro team, and they are famous from coast to coast, not only for their beards, but the brand of ball they play.

The game will undoubtedly be the greatest baseball attraction to show in Eugene this year, and the biggest crowd in Eugene baseball history is expected.

Hollywood Sophisticates And $18 Photos Found—Amusing

Los Angeles, Calif., August 4, 1932
You'll probably know the results by the time you read this. Incidentally, Ralph is one of the American athletes in the present Olympic Games who can look forward with some degree of hope to the Eleventh Olympiad to be held in Berlin, Germany, in 1936. Most of the spectators, jumpers and vaulters will be washed up by that time but the distance men can carry on over a four-year period and get stronger all the time. If Ralph takes care of himself during the next four years, he may be even stronger in the 5,000 meter run than now. Some of the Finns are pretty old when they start the distances. Nurmali is an outstanding example.

You'd get a laugh out of Hollywood. I've been here six days now and feel like an old veteran already. Everybody in this town is out to show off and many a Rolls Royce conceals an empty pocket. Incidentally, I saw a Rolls Royce in a used car lot for $400. It was an old timer but seemed sound of wind and limb and somebody will probably pick it up at that figure and pretend it's been in the family for years.

The people here try to be sophisticated but they're probably more conscious of big names than any other group in the world. They boast of their acquaintanceship with stars of the movie world and every soda clerk and shoe shiner knows somebody who knows the stars their fine homes and who cars as everyone figures that sooner or later he'll be in the same boat himself.

I walked down Hollywood Boulevard yesterday in search of some interesting paper. I've been sending these letters via air mail and the government soaked me 21 cents yesterday. 8 cents for the first ounce and 13 cents for the second ounce. Seems like a funny way to run a business.

PLANE DUSTS BEAN FIELD AT COBURG
COBURG, Aug. 8.—(Special)—Last Friday morning, Aug. 5, an airplane from the Oregon State college dropped down on the bean field owned by George Beck and dusted the plants with a quantity of O. S. C. and was occasioned by the Western Air Division. The spraying was to kill the spotted blight which has been in the field since the beginning of the season. Mr. Seifert reports that the results are showing up. The blight has been killed in the past seven times during the season. It made its landing in the north of the bean field, but dust which was brought from Coburg is in a car.

Rare Wines Would Pay Debt To U. S.

PARIS, Aug. 8.—(AP)—If the United States goes wet again this country will be prepared to pay off its war debt to America in rarest wines. Its 100,000,000 bottles of champagne lying unused in wine-merchants' caves are enough to supply a pint to every American. France could ship enough of this wine alone in a few weeks to pay the equivalent of the $50,000,000 owed annually to the United States.

Former Minister of Finance Pierre Etienne Flandin, in a recent speech pleaded for United States acceptance of French goods to clear war debts. All other French goods except wine, however, are competitive with American goods.

Redsides Smother Yoncalla Sunday

The McKeanie Redsides smothered Yoncalla 17 to 5 three Sunday. Redsides found Applegate, Yoncalla, for 17 safeties, while Yoncalla worked for 7 safe hits. With 2 out of 3 and Stenshoel 4 out of 4, was the leading batter for Yoncalla. The box score: Redsides . . . . . 17
Yoncalla . . . . . 5
Stenshoel and Stenshoel Applegate and Wise.

One Smoker tells ANOTHER

WHEREVER you buy CHESTERFIELDS on land or on sea, you get them just as fresh as if you came by our factory door—have one if you will. I think you will find that they are milder—that they taste better.

I have noticed that CHESTERFIELDS are made right—not hard and soft; no flabby cigarettes—each one well-filled. They are the right size to smoke cool and comfortable.
