Obituaries

Mrs. W. J. Huggins
Mrs. W. J. Huggins, Twenty-second and Kincaid streets, died Sunday afternoon at two o'clock at the Pacific Christian hospital following a major operation.

Alfaretta E. Rorabach was born in Montana Aug. 2, 1885, later moving with her parents to Idaho, where she married Dr. William J. Huggins, a prominent dentist of Rupert. They made their home there for 25 years and three sons were born to them. Dr. Huggins' death occurred in March, 1930, shortly after which the family moved to Eugene to take advantage of the university.

Possessed of a charming personality she made many friends during her two years' residence hehre, but her outstanding characteristic was her untiring devotion to her family. She was a member of the P. E. O. Sisterhood and by faith an Episcopalian. She is survived by her three sons, Charles, Edward and Billy; a daughter-in-law, Margaret, and a little grandson Jean; and by a brother, Chas. H. Rorabach of Los Angeles.

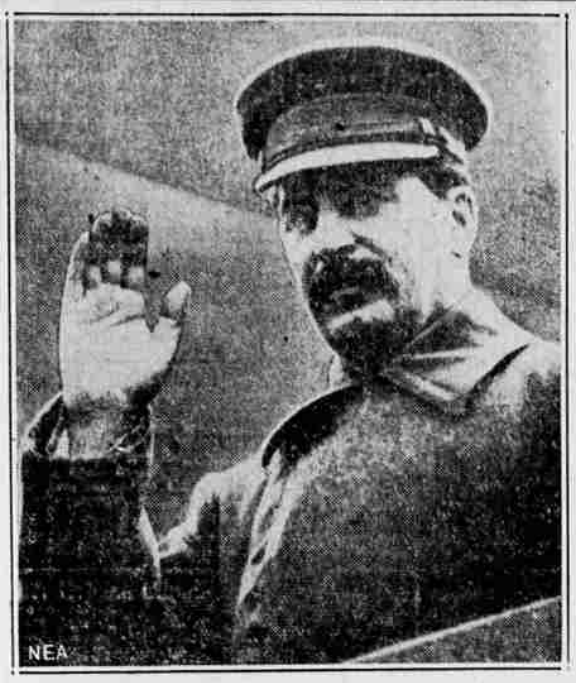
Funeral services will be from the Veatch Funeral home Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Samuel B. McCall
Samuel B. McCall died at his home 966 Jackson street, Sunday at the age of 69 years, after an illness of three years. He was born in Clarion county, Pennsylvania, Jan. 4, 1863 and lived there until 1890 when he moved to Kansas. He was married there in 1890 and shortly afterward went to Oklahoma, moving from there to Texas and later to Colorado. He come to Eugene nine years ago.

The deceased is survived by his widow, Anna, one son, Ralph McCall, of Myrtle Point; a daughter, Edith McCall, Denver; three brothers, C. B. McCall, San Francisco, W. E. McCall, and W. P. McCall, both of Oklahoma; and three sisters, Mrs. Jennie McMahan and Mrs. Della Pullman, both of Texas, and Mrs. Ada Hazen of Oklahoma.

The remains are at Poole-Gray-Bartholomew chapel where funeral services will be held upon the arrival of the daughter, Miss Edith McCall, of Denver.

SALUTE FROM THE SOVIET



While almost every other nation was preparing to take part in the Olympic Games, Russia held its own sports carnival in Moscow, where marching worker-athletes were reviewed by Dictator Joseph Stalin. Here is an excellent study of the Red leader, shown as he saluted the contestants.

Baptists Picnic Back of Butte

SPRINGFIELD, July 8.—(Special)—The Baptist Sunday school is host to the church membership and friends for a picnic Tuesday afternoon behind the butte in Eugene, at Riverview park.
