ANGELO VICTOR IN MARATHON WITH NEW OLYMPIC MARK

By ALAN GOULD
(Associated Press Sports Editor)
LOS ANGELES, Aug. 8.—(AP)—To the swarthy black-haired son of the Argentine, Juan Carlos Zabala, winner of the classic Olympic marathon with a record-breaking performance, and to the sweeping triumphs of America's fast-stepping, high-flying boys and girls, the chief honors of the Olympic track and field championships today.

While the forces of the United States were crowning their team triumph yesterday with a amazing flashes of relay speed, adding four new world records to the dizzy whirl in the Olympic stadium, Zabala was plodding the city streets, wearing down his rivals with machine-like strides that carried him strongly to the finish in the new Olympic record time of 2 hours, 31 minutes, 36 seconds for the route of 26 miles, 385 yards.

The sensational victory of the 20-year-old Argentine, whose swift pace broke the hearts of a half-dozen favorites, carrying him home 200 yards ahead of Sam Ferris, British veteran, with a Finland, another Briton, two Japanese and an American next at the line of finish, capped the climax of eight days of athletic competition unparalleled in world history.

There is many an Olympic battle still to be fought along a rapidly widening front, with California's crew engaged in the defense of American eight-oared honors, the Yankee boxers facing brisk skirmishes and U. S. swimmers challenged already by Japan's sensational young aquatic stars, but it will be a long time before the thrills, the astounding records, the arguments and the official "boners" of the track and field championships are forgotten.

There has never been a combined athletic show for men and women like this. They thought much of the "kick" was extracted when the peerless Paavo Nurmi was banished from the games, two days before they started, but performances from the outset not only were so startling as to make about 400,000 spectators forget all about the great Finn during the week but sufficiently good as well to knock the last of Nurmi's Olympic marks from the record lists. What Paavo might have done yesterday in the marathon is something of a subject that may be used for further debate, but Nurmi at his very best would have had his hands full trying to head off Zabala.

Nurmi triumphed the week at the stands while his native Finland's stars were being handed their biggest setbacks in Olympic competition since the war, watching a Poleander, Kuosken, take away the 10,000 meter honors, seeing "Herring Jim" Bunney, an American, surpass Finland's favored all-around stars in a world record decathlon performance, and an Italian, Becalli, out Finland's champion and the rest of the world's milers to rout in the classic 1500.

Finland won only three individual championships while the United States celebrated its comeback on home soil and the triumph of all Olympic tracks by romping off with 11 of the 23 men's championships, in addition to five of the six women's title events, for the best all-around Olympic showing the U. S. A. has known in 20 years. The Americans won the men's team championships with the aggregate of 218 points, to Finland's second place 72. The margin was even wider in the feminine division, where the American girls rolled up 78½ points to 10½ for Germany, in second place.

All told, Olympic records were wiped out completely in 25 of the 29 events for men and women. The only events that escaped the record-smashing process were the world's three mile, 10 mile and 20 mile runs, the 50,000 meter walk, a new event, for which the time must stand at least as a new Olympic standard. World records were surpassed in 15 events, including all six of the women's contests, and equaled in three others. All of which makes quite a tune on anybody's record.

Fourth flight—Ted Nickel beat N. Taylor (Tied qualified with a 97, which is about his game and then astonished everybody by shooting a 78 to defeat Ted).

In the championship flight the defeat of Moyer by DeMott was in the nature of an upset, the dope running the other way.

Don Moe Entered To Defend Title

ROCKFORD, Ill., Aug. 8.—(AP)—Don Moe of Portland, Ore., defending champion, and Dick Evans, Chicago, former national amateur champion, head the list of entries already received for the western amateur golf championship at the Rockford Country Club Aug. 22-27.

Officials estimate that between 150 and 175 of the country's leading amateur golfers will participate in the qualifying round.

TOWNIES LOSE TO WEST SIDE BABES IN SUNDAY GAME

The seemingly unbeatable West Side Babes of Portland routed the Eugene Townies 7 to 4 Sunday at the fairgrounds, eliminating Eugene from the pennant race. The tilt entered the ninth inning at 4 all, but an error by Jimmie King and 4 hits gave the invaders the winning margin.

It looked like the Townies' game in the first inning, after Whitshire had retired the visitors one, two, three, J. King walked, Stevens fanned, but Van Duren poled off a nice double to left field. Gould singled to center, scoring two runs. Libby was hit by a pitched ball, and Russell forced Gould to third. Husband hit to right for two bases, scoring Libby, with Bishop grounding out to end the inning. In the second the West Side Babes again retired in order. J. Gordon walked, and Koch sacrificed on Garretson's long fly to left. Warren grounded to J. King, who batted R. Charles, singled to score J. Gordon, and Eatch also hit for one base to bring in Warren. Sutton fanned to end the inning with the score tied at 3 all.

West Side added another hit in the fourth inning, Schaffle getting a single, J. Gordon walking, and Koch sacrificing on Garretson's long fly to left. Warren grounded to J. King, who batted R. Charles, singled to score J. Gordon, and Eatch also hit for one base to bring in Warren. Sutton fanned to end the inning with the score tied at 3 all.

Maybe Ralph Might Drive FIRST ROUNDS AT LAURELWOOD END

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 8.—(AP)—Joseph T. England, chairman of the United States Olympic track and field committee, today advised Ralph Hill not to accept an automobile from Klamath Falls, Ore., admirers as a token of esteem for his Olympic achievements.

"I would suggest that Hill should not accept such a gift," England said. "He indicated, however, that Hill's family might accept the gift of an automobile for 'raising such a fine boy' without endangering Hill's amateur standing."

Sports Parade

By HENRY McEMORE

NEW YORK, Aug. 8.—(AP)—The National league race has reached a state of such magnificent goodness that anyone bold enough to name a winner, even with the season two-thirds run, is liable to be thrown into a hoosgow on a variety of charges, not the least of which would be weakness in the top floor.

Even so, the Brooklyn Robins will out-gallon the field down the stretch. Why the Robins? Well, this is a goofy race, a very goofy race. And the Robins are a goofy lot, a very goofy lot. Besides, who else would you pick? Outside of the Giants and Cards, who are destined to get nowhere at a very rugged pace, all the other clubs have had their chance and blown it.

For a while it looked as if the Braves and Reds might make a run for the flag, but soon as the going got a little tough they folded up like a contentionship with cramps. Then the Cubs went out in front, but they too went into a nose dive. At this point the Pirates, who hadn't been given a look-in, steamed away. Steamers so far ahead, in fact, that two weeks ago the experts were handing them the flag.

Well, you know what happened to them. The Phils Phillips banged the daylight out of 'em, and then sent the Robins to Brooklyn where the Reverend Sarge's boys finished the job. The Pirates are still up there on top, but it's just a matter of time until they get off.

And when they go who's going to take their place? It will be the Robins or the Phils. The Phils are three-pronged, stomped down, waltz me 'round again. Willa terrors down there in that saucy jockey called Eaker.

Brooklyn isn't any ball of fire. In a normal National league race, the present Robin lineup wouldn't get in the first division. The pitching staff is such that Reverend Carey used them in shifts of three and four to a game, and the outfield, outside of Mister Doodle O'Don, is nothing to take your breath away. But the Robins are in a streak.

The recent collapse of the Pirates must have been a sad, sad blow to the Robins. In 1921, the Pirates came east late in the year leading by 7 full games. They looked so much like winners that Owner Barney Dreyfuss ordered a carload of lumber with which to build temporary world series stands. That lumber eventually was used for chicken coops out in Missouri.

The Giants popped the Pirates free straight, and then went on to snatch the ball by four games. That collapse all but ruined Pittsburgh. Dreyfuss, Gibson and the players. But let's talk about the Pirates. Let's talk about the ditty Dodgers.

LINCOLN CARDS GET STATE CROWN WITH WIN OVER EUGENE

The Lincoln Cards, Portland city champs, trounced Eugene 9 to 1 to win the state title Sunday in the American Legion playoff at Vaughn street in Portland. Eugene had won the right to play for the championship by beating The Dalles 11 to 8 in Saturday's game. Lincoln eliminated the Woodmen.

Merced went the route for Eugene, allowing 11 hits and walking 6 batters. He whiffed 10, however, Donald "Lefty" Levean blanked Eugene for the eight innings he pitched, the sole local run coming from Takami, who replaced Levean in the last inning. Eugene got 5 hits off the southpaw, and 3 off Takami.

The Cards got four markers in the first frame, 2 errors and a wild pitch by Merced making things easy for the Portlanders. The Cards stretched their lead gradually through the remaining innings, getting a run or two at a time. Eugene made five errors to help the Rose City outfit along.

Eugene threatened in the fifth, when Dunn and Parks reached second and third with only one away. Levean tightened down, however, and fanned Christensen and Kelsay to retire the side.
