

HIGHWAY SHOVEL WORKS 3 SHIFTS

CUSHMAN, Aug. 8.—(Special).—The gasoline shovel operated by Mr. Rice on the Siuslaw highway moved Wednesday to the Betzen hill. They now employ three crews, each crew working an eight-hour shift. The shovel is taking out is used for a top dressing on the new Siuslaw highway to help hold the gravel. The people of this vicinity are pleased to know the money is now available to finish this road through to Florence, as many have waited more than 40 years to see this dream come true.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Boren of Tempe, Ariz., were here for a short visit Thursday. They note many changes and improvements in this part of the coast country in the years they have been away, especially the Coast highway and other roads. Mr. Boren for many years operated a big ranch on Bear creek near Ada, postoffice.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ramos and son Louis, who have been visiting relatives here the past two weeks, left Sunday for their home at San Mateo, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hewitt and Claire Palmer left Wednesday to spend a vacation with relatives and friends here.

A fishing trip to Siletto lake was taken by Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Mills, E. L. Devore, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ramos, Bud Southworth, and Dee and Bob Mills. The trip over the new highway was fine. The fishing was fairly good and the picnic dinner on the lake shore made the end of a perfect day.

Mrs. Geo. Saubert Sr. is visiting relatives and friends in British Columbia.

Oscar Gates and family motored up from Marshfield Sunday to shake hands with old neighbors.

Mrs. W. H. Day of California came up last week for a visit with her son, John Gregory and family, and a host of old friends and neighbors here.

Mrs. Rosa Mason of Point Terrace visited over Sunday with her sister, Mrs. C. E. Southworth, and took a ride over the new Coast highway to Big Creek.

The S. A. Weeks family of Winchester Bay called on the G. R. Mills family while on their way home from Newport Saturday.

After a week's visit with the G. R. Mills family, Jim Goodhue returned to his home at Belmont, Cal. Sunday, loud in his praise of the Oregon coast's scenic beauty, salmon trolling, clam digging and the new Coast highway.

Jean Mills spent several days last week visiting the Myrind girls up the river.

Lane Poultrymen To Attend Meeting

Many Lane county poultrymen are planning to attend the ninth annual convention of the state poultrymen's organization at the state college at Corvallis Thursday and Friday of this week. O. S. Fletcher, county agricultural agent, is also planning to be present at all sessions.

All sessions of the convention will be held in the large tent adjoining the poultry building and members of the poultry husbandry department of the college will be on hand throughout the convention to answer questions and to render any possible assistance.

Prominent poultry experts will be speakers.

Calf Clubs Make Plans for Judging

Calf clubs in the western part of the county are busy with plans for this year's stock judging activity, according to R. C. Kuehner, county club leader, who has returned from a trip to western Lane county.

He met with Portage and Blachy clubs and made arrangements for a meeting of the Adn club Aug. 21. This meeting will be held at the grange hall. The Portage club has been invited to join in the meeting.

Pie and corn clubs of Pleasant Hill will meet Tuesday, Aug. 9, at the home of Peter Pontius.

COTTAGE GROVE NEWS ITEMS

COTTAGE GROVE, Aug. 8.—(Special).—The following Odd Fellows and Rebekahs attended the picnic at Lost Creek ranch on the McKenzie Sunday: The Walter Hatch family, John Veatch, Mrs. John Veatch, Mrs. Charles McKibben, Mrs. Minnie Wilcox, and Mrs. Hattie Hawkins.

Union service at the Presbyterian church Sunday night was a success. Mother Sawyer sang an address, telling of her experiences as a Salvation Army worker in the slums of eastern cities, during saloon days. Mrs. Hugh Truett and Mrs. Lottie Lewis sang solos, and Mrs. Hattie Hart and Mrs. Alice Breedlove a duet. E. E. McLeander took charge of the meeting. Rev. D. P. Cameron read the scripture lesson, and offered prayer.

The Christian Endeavor had 40 in attendance Sunday evening. They will have a party Aug. 10 and will play baseball Monday night with the Creswell C. E. team and with the Cox team of Cottage Grove Wednesday night. The C. E. team of this city has never been defeated.

The Cottage Grove Epworth league was entertained Sunday night at Creswell by the Creswell league.

The Elminers club will entertain Tuesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Sam R. Veatch who is moving to Newport this week.

The united temperance forces of Cottage Grove will have a meeting Sunday, Aug. 14, in the Presbyterian church at 2:30 p. m.

The Cottage Grove relief council is putting on the program at the Baptist church next Sunday night.

The Hawkins families went to Boswell Springs Sunday and had a family picnic. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Houser of Eugene, the Frank W. Hawkins family of Cottage Grove, Mrs. Tillie Kohls and daughter Sylvia Fritz of McGregor, Ia., the Guy McFerrin and Harry Ray families of Cottage Grove, Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Smith and Mrs. Smith of Roseburg, and Mrs. E. E. Markley from Cottage Grove were present.

The Damon Scott family and the R. D. Dickinson family of Eugene had a picnic up Sharps creek Sunday. Mrs. Frank Wheeler, president of the W. C. T. U. of southern California, on her way to Seattle to attend the national W. C. T. U. will visit her sister, Mrs. N. E. Compton, Tuesday.

William Scott, son of Mrs. Katherine Scott of Portland drove from Chicago, 2265 miles, in 45 days. Mr. Scott and his mother, his uncle William Edlison, and Mrs. Richard Edlison drove up from Portland Friday and visited with Mrs. Catherine Bader.

Born, Aug. 3, 1932, to Mr. and Mrs. Bert Courtney of Roseburg, a son. Mrs. Courtney was Miss Leone Stanley, cashier of the J. C. Penney store in Cottage Grove, and sister-in-law of Glen Owen.

Sam R. Veatch, who has gone into the commercial fishing business in Newport, and who spent the week-end in Cottage Grove with his wife, returned to Newport Monday. They will move their household goods this week and Mrs. Veatch will join him in their new home this week.

The Mission Circle of the Baptist church met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Leone Keith for their regular monthly meeting. Mrs. Collant had charge of the devotional program. They studied the personal experiences of native missionaries. There were ten members and one visitor present. The hostess served cake, jello and lemonade for refreshments.

Mrs. Frank Marshall will play hostess to the Veneta Home Economics club at her home here next Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The afternoon will be spent in sewing different articles of clothing and any new ideas of home dressingmaking will be discussed.

Lane county is doing a lot of needed road repair work and bridge building in this locality. Arthur Striker, bridge superintendent, and crew, are putting in all new bridges between Veneta and Elmira, and will be employed here about two or three weeks more. Some local men will be employed. It is understood, Veneta's famous main street is receiving a patching. All of the chuck holes, which shook strange words out of many a fluster driver, will be soon in shape.

VENETA, Aug. 8.—(Special).—"Foxy Grandpa" took his false teeth out of snark. "Punk" kissed his girl good-bye and "Hooker" rocked his baby daughter to sleep for the last time last night as these boys and the rest of the well known radio unit known to thousands as the Oregon Loggers embarked on a tour of the Pacific coast to be gone 12 weeks.

The boys feel that they are now on the verge of the greatest break in their career as radio entertainers. They have secured Walt Williams of Eugene as their advance manager with his sound car to hallyhoo the attraction and give it the proper publicity. Jim Lawson, known for his leather lungs will be the master of ceremonies for the Loggers.

"Hooker," played by Sherman Ritz, who is the main spoke in the wheel of the Loggers, says they have played 95 halls within a radius of 100 miles of Eugene since they have started broadcasting, and as thousands of letters and requests are coming in, it was felt that during the remainder of the summer they would tour and broadcast in whatever city they will be in where there is a radio station.
