

DON HILL TOSSES CYCLONE; PETE, PARELLI, DRAW

After braving Wildcats and sun-bearing Orientals, Cyclone Mackey was finally tumbled from his undefeated perch among local wrestlers by Don Hill and his educated feet from Wichita.

The biggest crowd ever to see a summer wrestling show turned out and was rewarded with the 2 best bouts brought together on one card in a long, long time.

The two-hour fight opened up with Hill and Mackey going right after each other and mixing it in the first minutes. Mackey depended on arm holds and headlocks in the main, while Hill used his flying leg holds to advantage.

Special Red-Hot If the main event had been anything but the best of the special world has stolen the show. "Push-em-up" Joe Parelli, who looks and wrestles like a gorilla, hit Eugene's Wildcat with everything but the referee and Parelli returned the blow for blow, the match going the full time without a fall. Parelli was technically booted, as was Mackey in the main event.

Vern Harrington did not permit his injured ear drum to interfere with his aggressive refereeing, and mixed with the grapplers several times when they failed to obey orders.

AUSTRALIAN WINS SCULLING CONTEST

MARINE STADIUM, Long Beach, Calif., Aug. 12.—(AP)—Demonstrating his complete mastery over the world's foremost amateur scullers, despite an unexpectedly strong challenge from his American rival, Henry Robert Pearce of Australia, captured the Olympic single sculls championship for the second straight time.

Pearce thereby became the first oarsman in Olympic history to repeat in the solo event. The powerful, rangy Australian, devouring the water of the Olympic lagoon with his long sweeping strokes, stood off the closing challenge of Bill Miller of Philadelphia in the States championship race.

By HENRY McEMORE (United Press Staff Correspondent) NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—(AP)—Dan Hays, every bit as dapper as he was in May when his Cincinnati Reds were burning up the league, was inside the press gate at the Polo grounds yesterday and talked about the National league, and the probable winner.

"Why not ask me when the moon's going to get over the mountain? This race is just what I said it was going to be back in the spring—the goofiest thing the National league had ever seen as well as the easiest thing for a good club to win. Trouble is, there aren't any good clubs. That's why it's a toss-up between five clubs and I'm not crazy enough to say which one will win. But boy, wouldn't it have been a set-up for a strong team, the Cards of last year, say. They'd have walked in."

Dan was asked what happened to his Reds. "What happened to 'em? Don't you know? Hays, gentlemen, Hays. When Chick went out of there with the flu, our chance crawled right under his bed and went to sleep. While he was out we naut have lost 15 or 16 games by one run—guess that his bat would have taken care of it."

"Had Hays been in there all the time we'd be right in the middle of it now. He's the best ball player in the business. And if you don't agree with me, please name me a man who can out-throw him, out-field him, out-bat him or out-swing him? Yes, he's a marvel, and the fact that it took off his glasses he couldn't tell President Hoover from Daniel Boone at 10 paces, only makes him all the more remarkable."

Flapper Fanny Says:

Maybe a politician is called the salt of the earth because he's a great shaker.

BROOKLYN MOVES TO THIRD PLACE

(By Associated Press) Max Carey's Brooklyn Dodgers have become formidable contenders for the National league pennant. Triumphant in 16 of their last 20 games, the Dodgers today rested in third place, three games back of the second place Pittsburgh Pirates and one and a half behind the pace-setting Chicago Cubs.

What makes the Dodger streak more remarkable is that they have won without consistent pitching. In the 20 games only eight times has the starting pitcher remained for the finish. Timely hitting, especially by Lefty O'Doul, and effective relief pitching have contributed to the sport.

There was nothing wrong with Bill Clark's pitching yesterday, however, as the Dodgers blanked the New York Giants, 1-0. Clark gave up only four hits. His mates collected 12 but made only one run as the Giants completed six double plays and equalled the major league record.

Chuck Klein hit two home runs, his 34th and 35th of the season, and drove in five runs as the Phillies trounced the Boston Braves, 5-1. In the American league, the Cleveland Indians moved into a tie with the Philadelphia Athletics for second place by beating Detroit, 2-1, while the A's were dropping a 2-1 decision to the Boston Red Sox.

Ivy Paul Andrews broke the Red Sox's 11-game losing streak as he held the A's to five hits and fanned eight men, Simmons three times.

ZOOK VISIT STORY

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1) a letter warning him not to accept the appointment as chancellor of higher education in Oregon.

Dunne, who sent Dr. Zook a telegram several weeks ago advising him not to come to Oregon, called upon the educator to forget all about the board, which has invited him here, will be nullified by abolishment of the board at the next session of the Oregon legislature and all acts done in its name will be cancelled."

Continuing his warning, Dunne said: "You could not sustain an action in court, because you are now notified and could not approach court with clean hands."

JAPAN DOPED TO WIN SWIM TITLE; CREW UNCERTAIN

By STUART CAMERON (United Press Sports Editor) LOS ANGELES, Aug. 12.—The greatest Olympic celebration drew to a close today with United States in possession of the track and field title, a problematical victor in rowing and chance to defeat Japan in swimming.

The United States had hoped to sweep all three of these groups, the ones it prized most highly, but it faced a battle with Great Britain for rowing honors and it seemed to have no chance to defeat Japan in swimming. Main interest centered on the Olympic marine sports where 733 persons were expected to watch the fight for eight gun crew and other championships.

Japan's great men's swimming team seemed to have a certain victory before it today. A sweep of first, second and third places in the 100 meter back stroke gave Japan a 10 point lead on the United States.

In the 100 meter back stroke late yesterday, Masaji Kiyokawa, Toshio Irie and Kentaro Kawatsu, three lithe, brown-skinned Japanese, finished in that order. Kiyokawa's time was 1:08.5.

The best the United States could do in the back stroke was the fourth of Robert Zehr, Ft. Wayne, Ind. Japan showed what it expected today when Kusao Kitamura, 14-year-old school boy, won his heat in the 1500-meter scum-fun in the time of 19:51.6, which broke the Olympic record of 19:51.8.

Kitamura's record stood only until the next heat when his 15-year-old teammate, Shozo Makino, won in 19:28.7.

Meanwhile the United States women won their section. The American girls took first, second and third in the high diving and won the 400 meter relay to amass a total of 80 points.

Helene Madison, queen of United States women sprint swimmers, was expected to add to that total today by winning the 400-meter free style event.

The sweep in the high diving was due to the work of three Los Angeles girls, Dorothy Poynton, Georgia Coleman and Marion Roper.

HOLLYWOOD DROPS NOTCH; DUCKS WIN

(By United Press) The Ips Angeles Angels scored the first triumph in their battle to gain leadership of the Coast league last night by defeating Oakland and gaining second place from the Hollywood Stars.

The Angels, scoring three times in the tenth inning, nosed out the Oaks, 6 to 4. Pallon held the Oaks scoreless until the closing inning of the game, but the Oaks tied the score after scoring once in the eighth.

Freddie Muller, Almada, and Ellisworth blasted out three home runs to give the Seattle Indians a victory over Hollywood, 7 to 6. Ellisworth's hit came with two men on bases in the eighth inning.

Alive! abounds with thrills — many hair-raising sequences are shown and the questions that follow are but a few of them:

How would you like to see a hungry man-eating tiger battle to the death with a 25-foot bone-crushing python? How would you like to see this same embattled tiger step into a pool to slake his thirst and come face to face with the jaws of a 16-foot crocodile just waiting for tiger meat?

How would you like to see the meanest of jungle beasts...the wily black panther...tackle the jungle's most ferocious man-eating tiger? How would you like to see what happens when the crocodile gets himself wrapped in the coils of a 25-foot python?

How would you like to see a lone white man in the heart of the tropic jungle entrap this snake with his bare hands...and alive?

These are some of the superior thrills in the Van Beuren corporation feature film, "Bring 'Em Back Alive," the authentic camera record of Frank Buck's famous book of the same name.

Augmenting the feature picture will be a Glenn Tryon comedy entitled "Ship Ahoy" and a sport reel "Inside Baseball." A Fox Movietone news will conclude the bill.

A large attendance is expected at the second annual Lane county poultrymen's picnic at Dillie's Riverside park Sunday. Ah! Did Roy See Mexico? Well Just Read And See For Y'self

Tijuana, Baja California, Mexico, Aug. 9. Dear Folks: So this is Mexico! The Eugene delegation, made up of the two Charlies and me, arrived here at 9 o'clock this morning. We left Los Angeles at four o'clock to avoid the traffic and drove leisurely down here Tijuana is about 16 miles south of San Diego and about 135 miles from Los Angeles. And what a town!

We had expected to find a little city here in which one could, if one looked, find bars and gambling joints and the various other places which make Tijuana attractive to Americans. We found, instead, a place composed almost exclusively of bars and gambling joints and if there is any city here other than that, we haven't been able to find it.

Grocery stores, mercantile establishments, soda fountains, shoe shine parlors, the sort of places you find on Willamette street are missing. It is a city composed exclusively of liquor and gambling houses with a fringe of unimposing homes on the outside where the natives live who make their living in the dives of Tijuana.

The town is about the size of Springfield with the entire "business district" made up of these drinking and gambling places. There are in addition a few curio shops where you can buy picture post cards showing huge glasses of beer to be sent home to the lot of 15 cents the dozen but the more thrifty shopper sits at the tables and orders his beer in pitchers—25 cents for the small ones and 75 cents for the large ones. The swankier joints charge 50 cents and $1.

At one end of the halls are orchestra platforms and dance floors. Here the bleary Americans may dance to the tune of tin can music during the daytime and brassy orchestra music at nights. Between dances, painted ladies in faded ballet costumes and hula-hula skirts, some of them Mexicans and some of them wild Americans, strut their stuff for the edification and enjoyment of the patrons.

A "kitty" stationed conveniently near the orchestra platform provides a place where appreciative guests may toss quarters and half dollars. The mouth of the "kitty" is sufficiently large to offer a generous target for those whose aim may be, at the moment, bad.

To those of us whose knowledge does not extend back to pre-prohibition times, the bars are a revelation. Shiny mirrors, booming cash registers, and rows upon rows of bottled liquors greet the eye. Signs about the walls advise the patrons of the superiority of whatever saloons they happen to be in. At American bootleg prices!

There's a drink, it's said to be distilled from cactus plants and one in a position to know informs me that it has a wallop like the stuff the boys used to bring up from southern Oregon.

The beer is said to taste much better than Eugene home brew is said to taste and to have much less "kick." The boys and girls at home are said to have been drinking it.

Other committees are as follows: Sports, J. C. Scott; A. Gent and Kenneth Nielsen; coffee and ice cream, Al Hoffman; ball game, Dan Earle and Herbert Cochran.
