Veteran Expulsion Opposed by Legion

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Aug. 20.—(U.P.)—The Pennsylvania state convention of the American Legion today adopted a resolution condemning the methods of expulsion used against the bonus expeditionary forces in Washington.

The convention also demanded immediate payment of the bonus, repeal of the 18th amendment and modification of the Volstead law and the Snyder state law for enforcement of prohibition.

Efforts to adopt a minority report of the resolutions committee which would have deleted a paragraph criticizing President Hoover for the expulsion of bonus seeking veterans from Washington were shouted down.

Boy's Body Found Hanging From Tree

GRANSON, Ky., Aug. 20.—(U.P.)—The body of Roy Rickey, missing 10-year-old mountain boy, was found today hanging from a tree at Soldier, not far from where he lived.

His body showed marks of severe beatings, Coroner C. W. Anderson, of Carter county, said. The coroner said he was undecided if the boy was dead when suspended from the tree.

Upon the coroner's advice, county officials took into custody for questioning the boy's father, Clyde; his stepmother, Bitha, 37, and a neighbor, Jim Andy Day.

Footprints of an adult found near the tree tallied with shoes worn by Day, the coroner said. There were no traces of a boy's footprints, he added.

Glider Falls, Youth Unconscious 18 days

GLENDALE, Aug. 20.—(U.P.)—Lester Fuller, 19-year-old junior college student, woke up today and found nearly three weeks had been eliminated from his life.

The last he knew 18 days ago was when his home-made glider struck a down draft while flying at Redondo beach.

He regained consciousness today after having been in a coma since the accident. He was not expected to recover fully for another two months.

Leap of Frog Is Defense in Court

CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 20.—(U.P.)—Six peddlers stood before Police Snyder asked Judge Day to let him tence on charge of violating the peddling ordinance. One of them, Earl Snyder asked aJudge Day to let him demonstrate his wares before sentence was passed.

The judge agreed and Snyder placed a toy frog on the floor in front of the bench. He spoke. The toy frog leaped five feet in the air and landed in Judge Day's lap.

The judge smiled.

"May I have this frog?" he asked.

"Sure," Snyder answered.

"Case dismissed," the judge said.

GRETA GARBO IS PLAYING AT REX

The Fox Rex in an effort to present only the stellar subsequent run releases from all of the major studios has booked its strongest week this year. For a starter Sunday and Monday will be seen the glamorous one, Greta Garbo, in "As You Desire Me." It is Garbo's first appearance since her highly praised performance in "Grand Hotel." The picture portrays the story about the woman with the dual personality who runs the risk of exposure in her desperate attempt to find love and happiness. Miss Garbo's leading man in "As You Desire Me" is Melvyn Douglas who will be best remembered for his great work opposite Gloria Swanson in "Tonight Or Never." The noted actor, Erich Von Stroheim, has a prominent part in the production as a depraved novelist. In addition to this stellar attraction, Manager O'Connell has arranged for Max Factor the eminent Hollywood make up artist, to give away absolutely free, packets of his famous face powder to the lady patrons. This feature will be in vogue all week and starts Sunday with the Greta Garbo engagement.

Officer Killed in Battle With Thugs

PORTALES, N. M., Aug. 20.—(U.P.)—One officer was killed and a deputy and a bandit suspect were wounded this morning in a gun battle 48 miles southeast of Portales when officers went to the Pebsworth ranch to arrest three men suspected of robbing the Olton, Tex., bank on July 5.

Harvey Bolin, deputy sheriff of Olton county was killed.

R. L. Hollis, special deputy, of Portales, was wounded.

One of the bandit suspects was wounded but officers were not certain which one it was.

The three men sought were Jack Sullivan, A. C. Hunsucker and Lee Pebsworth.

It was reported here this afternoon that the wounded man had been captured at Twtum, N. M.

When officers went to the ranch the three men opened fire on them it was said. The officers had only pistols but returned the fire and hit one.

They were forced to stand by and watch the bandits make a getaway in a car.

Oregon Carpenters Favor Union Wages

ASTORIA, Ore., Aug. 20.—(U.P.)—Oregon state council of carpenters in annual session here today unanimously adopted a resolution opposing payment of less than union scales for labor on all public works. The council re-elected F. H. Allen president and David Duff secretary-treasurer. Both are of Portland.

As the carpenters concluded their two-day session today, local labor officials prepared to greet 200 or more delegates expected Monday for the annual convention of the state federation of labor. The gathering will last five days.

William Cooper of Portland, president, will preside over the numerous business sessions that are scheduled. Ben T. Osborne, executive secretary, is here already for the carpenters' session.

Washington Solon For Resubmission

SEATTLE, Aug. 20.—(AP)—Senator Wesley L. Jones, republican, issued a statement from his campaign headquarters here today in which he said while his personal views in favor of prohibition had not changed, he believed the 18th amendment should be resubmitted to the people. He added: "I shall vote to do so at the first opportunity."

The senator, long a dry and author of the "5 and 10" sentence law for prohibition violators, subsequently modified, declared: "The 18th amendment is a part of the constitution of the United States. Congress cannot modify it or any other part of the constitution; congress can only submit a proposed change to the people for their decision.

"The people have an absolute right to exercise their ultimate power in deciding any constitution question whenever such a question has become of national interest.

"I made a statement more than two years ago in harmony with this principle which is reported on page 9696 of the congressional record for May 28, 1930."
