

WENDLING CHURCH SERVICE ANNOUNCED

WENDLING, Aug. 30.—(Special)—Rev. Charles R. Mitchell, pastor of the Wendling community M. E. church, announces "The Old Wells" as his subject for next Sunday morning at the 11 o'clock hour. There will be no preaching at night, it being the occasion of the second sacred song service, beginning at 6:30. The service will be by the choir, solos and duets, and instrumental numbers by the orchestra.

Mr. Mitchell reports the work on this charge as progressing very satisfactorily. New faces are seen at every service, and so far this conference year 11 new members have been added to the church roll.

To cultivate a better community spirit, the church is sponsoring a "get together" to be held at the community hall Thursday evening, September 1, at 8 o'clock. A moving picture, "Ocean, Mountains and Titan of Chasms," will be the piece de resistance together with songs by the choir and Sunshine chorus, and a regular "community sing." The Sunshine chorus from the Marcola M. E. church and others will attend in a body. Everything will be free and everyone is invited.
