

Kramer Working Over Eugene High Squad Eggs May Take Jump; Stocks Sweep Upward

SECOND TEAM WILL BE GIVEN CHANCE TO PLAY THIS YEAR

Hard work and more hard work is the order of the day at the Eugene high training camp, with Coach Fritz Kramer drilling his men on tackling, blocking and charging, the three departments in which they were weakest in the Jefferson tilt last Saturday. Kramer hopes to have all these defects ironed out by Sept. 30, the date of the Springfield game.

"The team should show a good deal of a change by that time," he said late Wednesday. "I have borrowed the charging aid from the university and am teaching the linemen to stay on their feet. We've resurrected and old tackling dummy, and expect to have the whole team vastly improved defensively within the next two weeks."

Two Are Out

No serious injuries were suffered in the Jefferson game, Marlon Mann, tackle, sustaining a bad chondy horse, but is expected back by Monday, and Wick Bishop, fullback, also out temporarily.

Cubs Celebrate Victory With Cheers, Handshakes

CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Chicago's Cubs today were "in" with little in the way of serious business to worry them until a week from today when they oppose the New York Yankees in the opening game of the world series—and they intended to get a little fun out of their baseball.

As soon as Kiki Cuyler smashed one of Steve Suetonic's curves for a triple with the bases loaded in the seventh inning of the first game of yesterday's "crucial" doubleheader, the veteran regulars had earned a rest. They started taking it in the second game, and they don't have to go back to work until they have rested. Neither do they have to rest if they don't want to.

Then they yelled at Grimm, at each other, and finally demanded a speech from the manager. He obliged with one word, "great," repeated many times. President William L. Veech, who on Aug. 2, deposed Rogers Hornsby as manager and appointed Grimm, congratulated each man, fash-ing up with Grimm.

"That's manager," Veech said, pumping Grimm's hand. "But, we knew we could do it."

Not a word of mention was accorded the Yankees. The athletes all seemed to have their minds too full of their own accomplishments.

BEAVERS TROUCE ANGELS, 17-6, AS HOLLYWOOD LOSES

(By The Associated Press)

Those pennant-mad Ducks went wild at Portland Tuesday night to trounce Los Angeles 17 and 6 and increase their lead to three full games over the Hollywood Stars, who lost to Oakland 3 to 2 at Los Angeles.

Four Angel hurlers were sent to the mound in a vain attempt to halt the Portland attack, but all four were hit freely, together allowing 15 hits and 14 walks. The Ducks cinched the game in the fourth inning when they scored eight runs on five singles, a double and three walks. They scored three more in the sixth and six in the eighth. Batteries: Los Angeles, Buckett, Ward, Mohlendorf, Curtis and Campbell; Portland, Peterson and Palmisano.

Steampunk of Oakland had a slight edge over Tom Sheehan of the Stars in a pitcher's duel at Los Angeles that gave the Gals the series opener, 3 to 2. Jack Sheehan's home run was the only earned run scored off the young Oakland pitcher. Batteries: Oakland, Steampunk and Palmisano; Hollywood, Sheehan and Strang.

San Francisco's Sells found Seattle pitching to their liking Tuesday night and pitched out 10 hits to defeat the Indians, 11 to 8, in the series opener at Seattle. The Sells acted in every inning but the fourth, eighth and ninth. Seattle scorched for four in fifth, put on a drive in the fifth and sixth but failed to catch up with the visitors. Batteries: San Francisco, Davis and Bronck; Seattle, Kallio and Cox.

Pitcher Chelini of the Missions was better with his hot genetics with walks, Pender and Sacramento won a hand-fought pitcher's duel, 2 to 0 from the San Francisco team. Chelini allowed the Senators only five hits but granted 8 bases on balls. Two of these walks were directly responsible for the scores. Batteries: Sacramento, Bryan and Wiets; Missions, Chelini and Olsen, Ricci.

HIGHCHUMBER Looks em over

By ROY CRAFT

Junction City has always been noted for its fighting football teams. Usually the team is light and frequently the squad is made up of a preponderance of green material, but the boys are always in there for 60 minutes of fast action.

This year promises to be no exception and while Coach Roy Todd is starting the year with most of his regulars gone, it begins to look as though Junction City will have a formidable outfit after all. Several transfers from other schools have bolstered the team and several of last year's reserves are coming through to win first string places.

The prospects for this year did not look bright to Coach Todd when he saw Les Nelson, his red headed fullback, Vernan Johnson, center, Marlon Evans, tackle and Ernest Baldwin, end, receive their diplomas. They were the only really average sized boys he had and their departure left only a handful of boys who knew the game.

Then, to top it off, Todd saw his promising back, Robert Beck, leave for Wyoming, and Vernon Nelson, an end, transfer to Florence. Steve Moser, a guard, transferred to a California high school and Jack Seales, a punting back, did not return to school. Nelson looked black indeed to the Junction City coach.

But school started and it's looking better now. The squad includes Gordon Evans who saw some action last year, and who is now being led out at center; Keith Short, a field left tackle; Colin Moore, an end left tackle who is working in the backfield; Genehart Jensen, a guard; Howard Holmes, a guard; Alvin Skovbo, left tackle; Mervin Gene, tackle, a transfer from Monroe; Kenneth Guphill, quarter, a transfer from West Linn; Lane McFadden, end and back who is improving fast; Jim and Jack Crowley, transfers from Waldport who have just turned out for the team; Jack Hagerty, guard; Jack Barrowfield, halfback, a freshman; Bill Achenbrenner, tackle, a freshman; James Weber, end and football manager; Dan Showalter, end; and Arden Wilde, guard.

A complete schedule has not been made at Junction City but will include games with Harrisburg, Solo and Springfield. Junction City is to play a practice game with Harrisburg on the Junction field Friday afternoon.

ALL PRICES ARE STEADY IN EUGENE FOR WEDNESDAY

All prices were steady in the Eugene markets Wednesday. Further advance in the price of eggs was expected soon as these appears to be a much firmer tone to the market.

No change was reported in the price of poultry, livestock, grain, hay, fruits or vegetables. Fall fruits are arriving in large quantities and they are of excellent quality due to the absence of rain and plenty of sunshine.

Butterfat values are unchanged. Market for eggs continues to reflect strength and the surprising feature is that demand for the total supply played last week, the outside supplies available here were more than sufficient to make up for this shortage. This together with rather liberal withdrawals from storage, gave the trade a very considerable increase in the supply.

MARKET RALLIES VIGOROUSLY WITH SHORTS TRAPPED

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—(AP)—A vigor that matched its best in years since the summer rally, the market swept upward today. Net gains of $5 to $7 and more were numerous in leading issues while on the commodity exchange cotton soared more than $2.50 and wheat jumped 25 cents.

Sales of stocks exceeded $200,000,000. The market, strong from the opening, showed enormous momentum in the last hour and closing prices were virtually at the top.

Traders who had sold short in the recent reaction found themselves being trapped and bought their way out at swiftly advancing prices.

BEAVERS PREPARE FOR NIGHT GAME WITH WILLAMETTE

ORANGE STATE COLLEGE, Corvallis, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Oregon State college football team will meet Willamette tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock in the second non-conference game on the Orange schedule this season.

After meeting Gonzaga at Spokane in the toughest regular game ever recorded on the Oregon schedule, the Beavers are preparing to take Willamette in stride with the opening conference game of the season against Stanford in Portland Oct. 1, figured to be the turning point of the Orange season.

Spac Keane, Willamette coach, has only four lettermen to use as a nucleus for his team but he will rely on some fine reserve strength from last season's squad to fill out his first string. Orange coaches do not expect any such "weekend" as that featured by the Beavers last season however, as Keane promises a good hard fighting team which will well establish in fundamentals.

The Orange returned from Spokane Saturday in a slightly dilapidated condition. Cully Miller, Willis Danforth, Everett Davis and Loren Tuttle, first string linemen, were issued hospital tickets upon their return because of various leg injuries. From the backfield Tommy Ward, Red Franklin, John Danoune and Frank Little were on the sick list when practice resumed Monday. Tuttle received the most serious injury when he shouldered his way into the line in the game. The injury will keep him on the shelf until the Southern California game, Oct. 8.

JENNE WILL BRING IMPOSING PACIFIC TEAM HERE FRIDAY

Prink Callison's group of untried football prospects may not have to worry about a victory in the opening game of the year Friday night with Pacific university but it is sure to have plenty of trouble with the speedy and deceptive style used by the Beavers.

Eldon Jenne, a former all-east halfback at Washington State college, will bring a fast, shifty eleven here for the game. Jenne's teams at Washington high school in Portland were noted for their speed and offensive play. Thrills are promised when his backfield opens up laterals, triple-passes and other tricks.

Only 14 of last year's thirty lettermen have turned out to date but the Beavers' manager to hold the strong St. John's Bulldogs club of Portland to a 6-6 tie last week. Jack Hillis and Al Wines, former Portland prep school stars, showed plenty of promise in the backfield.

Veteran Guards

Eldon Coe and Sam Nixon, veteran guards, stand out in the Badger line. Ray Bremer, 200 pound tackle, weighs the average weight of the forward wall well exceeded. Captain Art Peterson will fill the other tackle position.

Several new men have brightened Jenne's chances for a season in the westward conference. Howard Smith, former Roosevelt high star from Portland, and Jim Corrigan of Seattle, are two outstanding halfbacks. William Rosenfeld of Oregon City is being billed as Johnson, two-year veteran, will contribute at quarterback.

While Jenne does not expect to start the season with a victory over Oregon he hopes to give the Willamette a lively encounter. Last year Oregon trounced the Willamette a score when they held Beavers' eleven to a 2-0 score.

The game will start at 8 o'clock on Hayward field.

CONCORD GRAPES ARE COMING IN

Some fine Concord grapes were seen in the Producers' Public Market Wednesday, selling at 25 cents a basket. The crop is good this year and the weather has been propitious for opening.

Green cherries were seen in a couple of stalls and they were priced at 10 cents a pound. These make fine sauce and preserves.

Cantaloupes were plentiful and were exceedingly low in price. Prunes, sweet corn, potatoes, cabbage and other seasonal produce were shown in large quantities.

Portland Awarded National Tourney

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—(AP)—The 1934 national public links golf championship has been awarded to Portland, Ore., the United States Golf Association announced. The tournament will be played over the Eastmoreland municipal course.

Dates will be announced later.

BERGDAL OUT

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 21.—(AP)—The U. C. L. A. Bruins have lost Leon Bergdahl, their quarterback, for this season. News coming from an "ex" on his part of the world said that Bergdahl as it was doubtful if he could play against St. Mary's Armistice day, he did not want to waste a year of competition for one or two games. The Bruins trounced the Pomona J.akers 27-0 in their first night drill last night.

STEELE, FRAZER WINNERS IN SOUTH

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Out of the north-east came southern California's two latest boxing idols. They are young Freddie Steele, of Tacoma, and Don Frazer, of Seattle, who by convincing victories over local favorites, established themselves as the new attractions.

Steele, with a long record of knockouts lived up to his reputation by putting California Garcia, 160-pound welterweight, to sleep in two rounds. Steele's previous loss, against the Filipino in the northwest, had local fans had considered it just one of those things as Garcia had shown he was no ordinary boxer when he knocked out Alfredo Guana, the Mexican, here in four rounds.

Steele, however, had a close call. Garcia landed a terrific right to the chin at the close of the first round and the Tacoma rookie was saved only by the bell. Freddie, however, came back, outslugged and outboxed the Filipino and then put him away near the close of the second round.

Frazer took two, lost one and drew in the other of a four-round bout to win the decision from young Peter Jackson, California lightweight champion, and considered one of the best boxers at any weight in the state.

SPORTS PARADE

By HENRY McLEMORE

(Edited From Staff Correspondent)

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—(AP)—It is a new tradition these days to run down to the corner bookie and buy out a dose of what is taken on Mickey Walker to win Max Baucus race, when you get the news. Not because we think Mickey is a saint, you see, but because last, all things being on the line and up, Maxie couldn't knock the Irish's head off.

But Maxie's record in the short-cut in the betting and bookie from the street game has been just few months letting people in on some big scores through in one word and elegant way to get rich. This doesn't only apply to the one gambling sport of boxing, but to all the major pastimes from racing to women's tennis. Boxing, however, has had it's share, for example, what sweet and satisfying killings could have been made by taking Maxie to bet. Schaff, Boulevard to kid, Earlman and Berg to take the lead over Chocolate. And that's just a few of 'em.

And look at that Belmont fatality last Saturday! It was Ladyman this, Ladyman that, and yet when they winged past the judges stand at the end of the chute it was Jerry Patch, a rank, rank outsider who was out in front. They offered 30 to 1 on Jerry. You could have had 100 to 1 for the asking.

But it was the Olympics which offered the upsets. Think, my citizens, what sweet and satisfying killings could have been made by taking Maxie to bet. Schaff, Boulevard to kid, Earlman and Berg to take the lead over Chocolate. And that's just a few of 'em.

BUSH'S 19TH WIN GIVES CUBS TITLE

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Guy Bush of the Cubs won his 19th game of the season, the opener of yesterday's double-header with the Pirates, 5 to 2.

Although the Pirates blanked the Cubs, 5 to 0, in the nightcap, aided by Heide Meine's three-hit pitching, the opening victory blotted out every mathematical chance of Pittsburgh taking the pennant.

Brooklyn's Dodgers strengthened their hold on third place by downing their closest rivals, the Phillies, 3 to 1.

Bill Terry's New York Giants got 17 hits defeating the Boston Braves, 13 to 3. The St. Louis Cardinals trounced the last-place Cincinnati Reds, 3 to 1.

Walter Johnson's Washington Senators advanced within three and one-half games of the second place Philadelphia Athletics in the American league by beating the Boston Red Sox, 4 to 1.

Cleveland strengthened its grip on fourth place by taking both ends of a twin bill from St. Louis Browns, 5 to 2, and 11 to 2.

Chicago's double-header at Detroit was washed out. They were the only games scheduled.
