

OAKRIDGE CARNIVAL PROVES SUCCESS

OAKRIDGE, Sept. 28.—(Special)—The Mother Goose carnival sponsored by the Ladies' Aid of Oakridge in the I. O. O. F. hall Friday night was one of the most successful affairs ever put on by the group. The hall resembled a fairy land with booths built to represent the "Old Woman in the Shoe," "The Wishing Well," "Little Tommy Tucker," and many other nursery rhymes. Every one taking part was dressed in costume. The program started with a chicken dinner. Next was the voting on the prettiest ladies and then the booths were opened and at closing time nearly everything was sold. The most popular entertainment for the children was the pony track. The fish pond, the beauty shoppe, the ice cream booth and many others were well patronized during the evening. About $125 was realized from the affair. Mrs. E. E. Smith, president of the aid, and her executive committee consisting of Mrs. Roy Putnam, Mrs. H. M. Harkins and Mrs. Martin Johnson were assisted by numerous committees. The aid puts on a fair or carnival every year. This group will serve two meals during the Rehebek convention here Oct. 4.
