HAPPENINGS OF CRESWELL

CRESWELL, Oct. 21.—(Special)—A social afternoon was spent by members of the general aid society of the Methodist church Wednesday afternoon. While the senior group quilted others worked on bazaar articles. The auxiliary group was in charge of the birthday anniversary lunch with Mrs. R. E. Wright, Mrs. H. W. Parks, Mrs. W. T. Land and Mrs. Fred Wullschleger serving. Fall flowers and Hallowee'en favors were the decorations. A special table with a jack o' lantern for a centerpiece and place cards in keeping with the occasion was arranged for the birthday guests. Rev. W. S. Burgoyne, pastor, was persuaded to join the group for lunch and to add his contribution to the birthday box. Other birthday guests were Mrs. Kenneth Abels, Mrs. Joseph Weber, Mrs. Minnie Smith, Mrs. C. E. Warner, Mrs. Sarah Padden, Mrs. B. A. Land and Mrs. C. I. Kent. Mrs. W. S. Burgoyne favored the company with two steel guitar solos.

Miss Vera Gwyther and Mrs. G. R. Potwin were out of town members present. Other guests were Mrs. D. Wilson, Mrs. Kenneth Abels and Mrs. J. F. Rose. Forty members were present.
